An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later she had no more. By this time she had to cough up the mucus in the throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave her the same remedy with the same good result. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true value of this wonderful medicine. CHARLES A. THOMPSON, Des Moines, Iowa. 75 cent bottle for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

A LITTLE PREMATURE.

The Great of Democracy Knows no Bounds and Descends to Abuse.

In attempting to refute THE HERALD's statement that L. C. Eickhoff is the choice of a large majority of the electors of the county, the Journal of yesterday caps the climax in its abused and wholly unauthorized attack upon the treasurer-elect and makes assertions so far from the truth and so akin to slander that it places the paper in an unenviable position, to say the least. The article in question charges Mr. Eickhoff with obtaining the nomination and subsequently the election by false pretensions. From misrepresentation he descends to abuse and uses the word "inglorious" freely and charges him with imposing upon the people. The whole article teems with abuse every word of which is absolutely false as Mr. Eickhoff will demonstrate to the satisfaction of his friends and the chagrin and mortification of his would be defamer. The Journal doubtless was led to charge the republican treasurer-elect with non-citizen-ship because it is a common characteristic of democratic candidates but it will not do to make such charges against a man whose integrity and sense of honor is above question and a man whom the people have called as their servant even after he had assured them that he declined to serve. In view of the fact that Mr. Eickhoff did not seek the nomination. The Journal cannot but see the blunder it makes in making these charges.

THE HERALD takes the liberty to advise the defeated democracy to remain silent henceforth concerning the matter of Mr. Eickhoff's eligibility so that after he shall have been properly installed in the office, the drop which the opposition will experience will be the less hard to bear.

Two inches of snow fell at Columbus last evening.

Fic eating contests are the latest sources of amusement at Columbus.

A first class plow factory would be a paying industry in Plattsmouth.

The press dispatches report blizzards and heavy snow throughout North and South Dakota.

Engine No. 275, makes a night and day run to Pacific Junction regularly now, there having been put on a day and night crew.

Mr. Jas Moore, accompanied by his sister, Irene Moore, of Pennsylvania, is visiting at the home of their relatives, E. B. Windham and J. M. Patterson.

Syracuse citizens are working a sly little game to have the Otoe county seat removed from Nebraska City to Syracuse. There may be lively times yet ere the matter is settled.

D. A. Dickson, of Cedar Rapids, says that his sugar beets yielding him about fifteen tons to the acre. After shipping them to Grand Island, paying the freight etc. they net him a sum of $48 per acre.

The young people's society of the Presbyterian church held an enjoyable and profitable social in the basement of the church last evening. An interesting program was rendered, interspersed with music both vocal and instrumental.

The oat meal mill at Beatrice was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $20,000; insurance, $6,000. Doubtless with the accustomed luck of her citizens Beatrice will see that the mill is rebuilt and work resumed.

The baggage and scenery, with property man, for the Kate Claxton Co arrived from St. Joe this morning, but the company will not arrive until 5:05 this evening, and will give a fine production of the "Two Orphans" to-night. No one should fail to see it.

An Eclipse of the Moon.

If the sky is cloudless to-morrow evening, those who desire will have an opportunity of witnessing an interesting celestial exhibition. The moon will pass through the earth's shadow and be totally eclipsed. Astronomers say that over the western portion of the United States the eclipse will begin in the afternoon before the moon appears above the horizon. As the moon rises it will gradually appear to be covered with a dark veil until finally, about dark, it will be lost to view entirely. This will be an interesting spectacle and worthy observation.

An Illinois Opinion.

From a half-column article in the Sterling Standard relating to the recent stop of "Nebraska on Wheels" made in that city we clip the following:

"This train reached Sterling via the C. & N. W., enroute home, last Friday morning, arriving at 10:30 a. m. and departing at 1:30 p. m. A large crowd was in waiting for the train, for the Standard had heralded its coming for three weeks, and during the three hours that the train remained here a great throng of people from both city and country threaded their way through this great agricultural show on wheels.

"The exhibit consists of a display, by counties, of the grains, fruits, vegetables, manufactured articles, illustrations of water power, educational structures, and a "thousand and one" interesting articles from this great commonwealth in the new west. The growth in the population of the state of 550,000 in ten years is understood and appreciated in the light of this exposition.

"The state of Nebraska made a great hit in sending out this train, and the cost is but 'bread cast upon the waters.' The productions of the state have been thoroughly advertised, and many of the people of six states now have optical proof of the fact that Nebraska can and does raise as good fruit as any state in the Union. Corn that even Illinois cannot excel; wheat and rye that neither the Keystone nor Buckeye states can equal, and 'murrhies' that would make a New Yorker green with envy. In short, the exhibition, taken in its entirety, probably could not be excelled, and in many points could not be equaled by any of the states through which the train passed."

Domestic Troubles.

A few weeks ago Dave Woodard left the bed and board of his wife and home, and has since been boarding. A few days late, we are told, he sent an attorney to consult with Mrs. Woodard, and she properly to her provided she would give him a divorce. Mrs. Woodard claimed the property was hers, and she positively refused all overtures toward giving her husband a divorce.

While Mrs. Woodard was visiting in the country, Constable McNurlin called at the house to replenish a part of the household furniture. He made his business known to Mrs. Woodard's daughter by a former husband, Miss Carrie Dunn, Carrie went for her mother in the afternoon, and while she was away an officer removed the furniture and carpets from the parlor and a bed room.

The suit is set for Saturday. H. D. Travis is attorney for Woodard and J. H. Haldeman for the lady. —Weeping Water Republican.

THE DISTRICT REUNION.

Shall we try to receive it for Next Year?

A call has been issued by C. J. Fisher, chairman of the district reunion committee, G. A. R. for a meeting of the delegates to be held at Auburn, January 5, for the purpose of deciding where the reunion will be held. If Plattsmouth felt disposed to entertain the old soldiers it would be the means of attracting a large crowd and material benefits would be derived in various ways. There can be no question that we could entertain the visitors with credit to ourselves and satisfaction to all concerned. THE HERALD suggests that our G. A. R. men consider the matter and if they deem it advisable to consent for the honor a committee should be appointed to take charge of the matter.

The counties of Cass, Otoe, Johnson, Nemaha, Richardson, Pawnee and Saunders are included in the district.

Notice.

Rev. A. Galloway, of Blair, the recently appointed minister of the Christian church at this place, has announced that on account of sickness he will be unable to occupy the pulpit to-morrow as he had intended. He will preach one week from to-morrow, unless announcements to be contrary are made.

It is not often that we have an opportunity of hearing many of the metropolitan attractions. Fortunately for us, we have coming next Thursday the greatest known comedian, Ray L. Royce. Mr. Royce is one of the few cultured gentlemen who has gained the top of the professional ladder by clean, honest, refined and artistic work, together with untiring energy and a careful consideration to give the public a thoroughly enjoyable performance. The play in which Mr. Royce has scored his greatest success is "Tom's Vacation," which is as its name implies, a light, breezy, medley sketch, full of real genuine fun. In other words, it is a vehicle for the display of Mr. Royce's wonderful versatility and that of his charming company.
