To Extinguish Prairie Fires.

An inventive genius of North Dakota has just patented a device for making a fire break to fight prairie fires with.

While the first two of these are passing over the grass it is supposed to be well consumed, and the final trailer is designed to extinguish every particle of fire.

The Dead Returned.

The announcement of the suicide of Dr. F. D. Clarke, in Chicago, led to a sensational incident when Dr. H. V. Oldfield entered Fenwick's restaurant to take his dinner next day.

Sickness in the Jury Room.

The sanctity of a jury room appears to be so well guarded that even in case of sudden sickness a physician may not enter except after due process of law.

The popular impression that every family possesses a Bible as well as a dictionary and a copy of Shakespeare, like many other popular impressions, seems to be an erroneous one.

IN AN EGYPTIAN APARTMENT HOUSE.

Interesting scenes in a lodging place in the City of Cairo.

The two rooms nearest us belonged to El Ashar student, so Mustapha said. He could speak no English, but he imparted the information to us in our own language.

One of the students was evidently an ascetic. His room contained piles of books and pamphlets, and also a bedstead. His one rug was at the foot of the bed.

Opposite the rooms of the students there was a large chamber almost entirely filled with white bales, like small cotton bales.

Every now and then this creature who was secured by a long loose cord, ascended slowly to the top of the bales and came down on the other side, facing his master.

In another chamber a large very black negro, dressed in pure white, was crouched upon the floor, with his feet stretched out in front of him.

In a chamber next to the negro two grave old Arabs were playing chess. They were perched upon one of those Cairo settees which look like square chicken coops.

Authors' Words.

A statistician in Paris has the patience to count the number of words employed by the most celebrated writers. The works of Corneille do not contain more than 7,000 different words.

Not at All Gallant.

"Do you know, Mr. Hicks," said Arabella, the night after Halloween, "I went down stairs last night at midnight with a candle and looked into the mirror to see the face of my future husband reflected there, and—tee-hee—I saw your face!"

What beastly ridiculous things these Halloween customs are! said Mr. Hicks.—Harper's Bazar.

Big Hickory Nuts.

Stories have reached the division of geology of hickory nuts in the Washburn valley as big as one's two fists. Much anxiety was felt to secure some of them, but it was finally learned that this estimate of size included the husks, the kernels being small and almost worthless.—Washington Star.

The Boy on a Ready See.

A judge and appreciator, an evening. The entertainment departed somewhat from the usual comedy, the play having been written more on the plan of a mystery.

The High school course will give an entertainment social at the residence of R. W. Myers, Friday Nov. 20 to which a general invitation is extended.

A Smart Hand School.

We are pleased to announce that Prof. W. P. Rogers, who for the past three years has been principal of the Wesleyan college, Lincoln, has about completed arrangements for the establishment of a short hand school in this city.

For lame back there is nothing better than to saturate a flannel cloth with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on the affected parts. Try it and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords.

The Effort Toward Toilet Article. 316,574 bottles of blush of roses sold in 1899. You know I could not have sold so much if blush of roses was not as represented, a sure cure for pimples, freckles and blackheads.

Stanley as an explorer, Edison as an inventor, Miss Flora A. Jones as the discoverer of the Famous Blush of Roses for the complexion; are names that will be handed down as benefactors of the race.

A POPULAR FAMILY.

Jennie: "How is it, Kate, that you always seem to 'catch on' to the latest new thing? Do what I may, you always seem to get ahead of me."

without any teacher; you came to the rescue when Miss Lathrop deserted her Delicate class so suddenly, and certainly we are all improving in grade under your instruction; I heard you telling Tommy Jones last evening how his club made mistakes in playing baseball; you seem to be up on all the latest 'fads' and know just what to do under all circumstances; you entertain beautifully; and in the long run you have improved so in health, vigor, and in your physical culture exercises.

Kate: "Why, Jennie, you will make me wish I have only one source of information, but it is surprising how it meets all wants. I very seldom hear of anything new but what the next few days bring me full information on the subject. Magnet, No. 1 Magazine! And a great treasure it is to us all, for it really furnishes the reading for the whole household; father has given up his magazine; but he has taken for years, as he says this one gives more and better information on the subjects of the day; and mother says that it is that that makes her such a famous housekeeper. In fact, we all agree that it is the only really FAMILY magazine published; as we have sent for samples of all of them, and that is where the economy comes in, for it is only $2.00 a year. Perhaps you think I am sure, or better still, send it to the publisher, W. Jennings Leonard, 15 East 44th Street, New York, for a sample copy, and I shall always consider that I have done you a great favor; and may be you will be cutting down on your physical culture exercises, if you do not, as is Demorest's Family Magazine that does it."

A liberal offer—only $3.00 for THE WEEKLY HERALD and Demorest Family Magazine. Send your subscription to this office.
