FIFTH YEAR.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1891.

NUMBER 66.

All Experts Use

Royal Baking Powder

Perfect and uniform success in making finest food is certain with Royal Baking Powder than with any other. Use it in every receipt calling for a baking powder, or cream of tartar and soda, and the best results in pure, wholesome, appetizing food are assured. Experts use it because it adds to their success. Physicians and Health Officers recommend it because it adds to the wholesomeness of the food.

MR. H. HARLAND: "I regard the Royal Baking Powder as the best in the market. Since its introduction into my kitchen I have used no other."

MR. M. PARLOA: "It seems to me that the Royal Baking Powder is as good as any can be. I have used it a great deal and always with satisfaction."

MRS. BAKER, Principal of Washington, D. C., School of Cookery: "I say to you, without hesitation, use the 'Royal.' I have tried all, but the Royal is the most satisfactory."

M. GORJU, late Chef, Delmonico's, New-York: "In my use of Royal Baking Powder, I have found it superior to all others."

A. FORTIN, Chef, White House, for Presidents Arthur and Cleveland: "I have tested many baking powders, but for finest food can use none but 'Royal.'"

Geo. Vass and then Christmas.

Police Judge Archer returned from Omaha this morning.

The new court house will be completed in less than a month.

H. D. Travis is attending to legal matters in the county court to-day.

For ladies' fine kid shoes and Christmas slippers, go to Joseph Fetzer's.

J. H. Haldeman, a prominent attorney of Weeping Water, is in the city to-day.

You can get the best of hand-made boots and shoes at Joseph Fetzer's.

The twentieth anniversary of the organization of Adams county will be celebrated at Juntura, December 12.

Mrs. W. A. Scott, who been visiting at the residence of her father, H. C. McMaken, returned to Omaha this morning.

Shorthand and typewriting college over Mayer's clothing store. Day and night sessions. Situations guaranteed to all competent students.

Dr. Siggins and family returned last evening from a six weeks' visit to friends in Minnesota and other northern points.

Joseph Fetzer will move his stock of boots and shoes to-day into the west room of the Parmelee building on Main street.

Mrs. D. P. Aylsworth, of London Ontario, arrived in the city this morning on a visit to her Mother Mrs. Kate Oliver.

There will be an oyster supper at the M. E. church, on Sixth street, Thursday eve, Dec. 3; also other refreshments, and table of articles for sale. Everybody invited.

All young gentlemen contemplating a wedding tour, should call and examine the latest styles of wedding invitations samples of which are always kept on hand at this office.

Plattsmouth's sportsmen should get to the front. In several neighboring counties sportsmen get together on a hunting bee, and, besides running in lots of game, an untold amount of fun is the result.

For fine boots and shoes go to Joseph Fetzer, Main street, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Prof. Musgrave informs us that he has received another new typewriter and is prepared to accommodate all students who apply. The evening class will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. N. Wise henceforth.

The B. & M. road received during the past week 61,302 pounds of merchandise; also nineteen full carloads of material. There has been shipped from this place 20,619 pounds of merchandise in small lots; ten full carloads.

Kearney is making a bid for a glove factory and proposes to send delegates to Gloveville, N. Y., for the purpose of inducing several of the hundred factories there to locate in the west. There is little doubt that Kearney will succeed, as the signs of the times indicate that the capitalists are becoming interested in the west.

The M. E. pulpit was filled yesterday morning and evening, by Rev. J. W. Shank, of Omaha. Rev. Shank is at home in the pulpit, notwithstanding the fact that he is an editor. He has recently established the Christian Advocate, a religious paper; its growth has been rapid from the start and it bids fair to become the official church paper at no distant day.

The regular meeting of the city council occurs next Monday evening. It will very likely be an interesting session as a chief of police will probably be elected. It is highly important that a man be chosen for this position who is thoroughly in sympathy with the welfare of the city. The names of R. W. Myers and W. T. Cole have been mentioned, either of whom, if they could be persuaded to accept, would fill the position to the entire satisfaction of our law abiding people.

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep and had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all other for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

A. C. O. T. Social.

The last but probably the most enjoyable C. O. T. party for the season, was given at the home of Mrs. Kate Oliver, in honor of the twentieth birthday of Miss Marguerite.

The club is composed of about a dozen of our most highly respected young ladies and they with a few invited gentleman guests whiled away the hours in a highly satisfactory manner. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served, which our informant says were decidedly "out of sight." Before departing the guests presented Miss Oliver with a handsome silver fruit basket as a token of esteem in which she is held by the members of the club. At a seasonable hour the party disbanded regretting that this was to be the last party for the season, but finding comfort in the fact that the parties would be instituted again next season. The following were present:

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Linchman Misses Marguerite and Dora Oliver, Mamie and Frankie Styles, May Dutton, Lizzie Miller, Nettie Balance, Ida Boeck, Ella Clark, Nannie Moore, Miss Burke, Bert Wise, Miss Mc Donald and Messrs Phelps, H. McCand, J. Schulhoff, Mathews, Chas. Sherman, Chas. Murphy, Henry Tarteck, Van Burke, Robt. Miller, Geo. Richardson, R. Rauens, Wm. Stadlmann.

The Schildknecht shoe house has the very finest line of men's shoes in the city.

Obituary.

DEAD—At the residence of Mark Bartlett, No. 355 Woodside avenue, Chicago, on Nov. 25, Mary A. Johnson, in her fifty-sixth year.

Our readers will remember Mrs. Johnson as an old and highly respected resident of this county, having resided in Salt Creek precinct thirteen years, and for twenty-two years preceding her death she lived in this city, on Winterstein Hill. The deceased had been ailing for some time and was recently sent to Chicago, where she might have the benefit of the best medical treatment to be obtained; but, notwithstanding all the material aid that human power could render was freely given, she had to succumb to the inevitable.

The interment took place at Chadron, Ohio, at the residence of her father. The deceased is a sister of H. Bestor, living near here.

The county commissioners, Geo. Vass and the court house clock.

Reduced Rates.

The B. & M. announces that reduced rates will be offered parties wishing to attend the Jefferson-James concert, to be given at Omaha, December 1 and 2. For a party of twenty-five a rate of one and one-third fare will be granted, with no special train for return. For a party of one hundred a rate of one fare for the round trip will be allowed, and arrangements made for a special train to return after the theatre. Here is a golden opportunity for our people to attend one of the best attractions of the kind that will appear in Omaha this season.

An announcement appeared in this paper last week to the effect that a change in the ownership of THE HERALD was contemplated, and in view of the fact that subsequent developments have altered the original plans materially, we deem it expedient to state that THE HERALD will continue to be issued by its present management. The office, already acknowledged to be the best equipped establishment in the county, will be replenished by the addition of $200 worth of the latest styles of type and other necessary appliances, which, unquestionably, will render our facilities for doing all kinds of printing work unsurpassed by any office in the county. It is our intention to keep THE HERALD in the front ranks as a local paper, and to the end that our desires may be fully realized, we earnestly and confidently invoke the hearty co-operation of our friends.

We appreciate the ability of Mr. Berge as a newspaper man and it is with regret that the originally contemplated change could not have been consummated. For his gentlemanly demeanor he has made many friends during his week's work in our midst, and whatever vocation he may choose to follow, the best wishes of all will follow him.

Gentlemen, if you want a fine dress shoe, it can be had at Schildknecht's.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe" when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cockport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at F. G. Fricke & Co's drugstore. Large bottle, 50c and $1.50.

An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she had to cough up the gathering in the throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave her the same remedy with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true merits of this wonderful medicine. CHARLES A. THOMPSON, Des Moines, Iowa. 50 cent bottle for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Painfully Injured.
C. A. Stevens, an employee of the shops, met with a painful accident last Saturday evening. He was doing chisel work striking forcibly with heavy hammer and unfortunately just as the hammer was about to land on the chisel he missed his aim and dealt an exceptionally heavy blow upon his left hand, crushing it and rendering it to say the least, very painful. It is probable that he will be laid off for a period of several weeks.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Stevens did not avail himself of the opportunity of taking out accident insurance, a plan recently adopted by the B. & M., thereby, instead of losing his time in this period of misfortune, he would be drawing a fairly good salary.
