I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep and had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all other for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

A FULL-FLEDGED CITIZEN.

Affidavit Requesting the Citizenship of L. C. Eickhoff. That remove all doubts.

The following is a full and complete affidavit of the citizenship of the county treasurer-elect:

STATE OF ILLINOIS, COOK COUNTY.

I, Henry Best, clerk of said court, a court of record in which is kept the record of naturalization of citizens, do hereby certify that the records of said county which were kept previous to the year 1871, and which included the said record of naturalization of citizens who took out their naturalization papers previous to October, A. D. 1871, were entirely destroyed by the great fire of Chicago in the year 1871, and further, that no copy of said records are obtainable and that there is no record of naturalization of any citizen previous to said date aforesaid.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, at Chicago, this 24th day of November, A. D. 1891.

HENRY BEST, Clerk of Circuit Court.

AFFIDAVIT. STATE OF NEBRASKA, CASS COUNTY.

J. T. A. Hoover, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a resident elector of said county and state and has been since the year 1883; that he knew Frederick Eickhoff, the father of L. C. Eickhoff, the treasurer-elect of said county, and lived in the same precinct in which said Frederick Eickhoff lived for over nine years previous to the death of said Frederick Eickhoff; was registrar of voters in an 1st for said Louisville precinct in the year 1867, and registered the name of said Frederick Eickhoff about the 31 day of September, A. D. 1867, in a book furnished for that purpose and which is now on file in the county clerk's office of said county; and, as was the custom and law in reference to citizenship of persons offering to be registered as voters, he demanded the papers of said Frederick Eickhoff showing his citizenship, and they were produced by said Frederick Eickhoff in person, and that the said papers so produced were said Frederick Eickhoff's last or final papers, showing him to be admitted to full citizenship and that the interesting on said register of voters giving the words "Papers exhibited September 3, 1867" was made by him (J. T. A. Hoover) and that the papers referred to were the final papers of said Frederick Eickhoff, and that said Frederick Eickhoff was also sworn to as his qualifications to vote and to the correctness of his statement in reference to his age, place of birth, residence, etc., and further the affiant saith not.

J. T. A. HOOVER. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of November, A. D. 1891. W. A. CLEGGON, Notary Public.

AFFIDAVIT. STATE OF NEBRASKA, CASS COUNTY.

In relation to the matter of the citizenship of Louis C. Eickhoff, of Cass county, Nebraska.

Mathew Inhelder, being of lawful age and being by me first duly sworn, says, that "I was well and personally acquainted with Frederick Eickhoff, the father of Louis C. Eickhoff, during his lifetime."

"I knew the old gentleman twenty-five years ago, and married his daughter, a sister of Louis C. Eickhoff; I also know that the said Frederick Eickhoff was a citizen of the United States of America; that he became such before the said Louis C. Eickhoff became twenty-one years of age. The last time I remember of seeing his certificate of citizenship was in the year 1883."

"I remember the time from the fact that at that time Louis and I looked over the old papers of the old gentleman and divided them between us, he keeping part and I keeping part, my wife and Louis being the only heirs of the estate of the old man. Eickhoff, that since that time I have no recollection of seeing the certificate and do not remember which of us two retained said certificate at the time of the aforesaid division, and further, that I remember that I told Louis at that time that the certificate ought to be well taken care of and it may be that it is with my papers in the bank at Fremont, Nebraska."

And further the affiant saith not. MATHEW INHELDER.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 30th day of November, A. D. 1891.

[seal.] W. L. WELL.

AFFIDAVIT. STATE OF NEBRASKA, CASS COUNTY.

L. C. Eickhoff being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that he, together with his father, Frederick Eickhoff, reached Cook county, Illinois, on Christmas in the year of 1854, and resided in said Cook county until March, 1869. Moved from said Cook county, Ill., to Cass county, Nebraska, and have resided in Cass county ever since.

During the year 1839, or first part of 1840, his father, Frederick Eickhoff, took out his last papers in said Cook county and had them in his possession until his death, at which time they became the property of his mother, Mary Eickhoff, and at her death the papers became mislaid or lost.

In the year 1889 the mother died, but during the same year or previous year he saw the naturalization papers of his father and read them; also remember the said act by reason that his mother was sick and asked him to look over the papers and while so doing he read the said papers, he also has seen the papers a great many times previous to that time, and knew of the time his father took out his papers, as he often told the children that they were citizens by reason of his becoming a citizen.

He further states that he made an effort to get a copy of records in said Cook county, Illinois, and in reply to a letter to the clerk of said county, he received the information that the records of said county were destroyed by the Great Fire of Chicago in the year 1871, and further the affiant saith not.

L. C. EICKHOFF. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of Nov., 1891. H. R. CHATHAM, County Clerk.

AFFIDAVIT. STATE OF NEBRASKA, CASS COUNTY.

Claus D. Taper, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is an elector of Cass county and has resided in said county since the year 1883; that he was well and intimately acquainted with Frederick Eickhoff, father of L. C. Eickhoff and lived on the same farm with Frederick Eickhoff in Cook county Illinois and about the year 1850 or 1851 said Frederick Eickhoff in company with Fred Turner and Christ Turner went to Chicago, Ill., to get said Fred Eickhoff's last or final citizenship papers. Said Taper knows the above facts by reason of being in same family at the time said Frederick Eickhoff returned from Chicago and knows that the said Frederick Eickhoff had his last or final papers making him a citizen of the United States. C. TAPPER.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of November, A. D. 1891. W. A. CLEGGON, Notary Public.

A Mammoth Stock.

A HERALD reporter leisurely dropped into the dry goods store of Fred Herrmann one evening last week, and after engaging in a brief conversation with his affable and efficient salesman, Emil Wurl, at his suggestion we were shown through the establishment. Upon inquiry we were informed that the establishment makes a specialty of dry goods; the proprietor makes the wants of his customers a study and endeavors to keep as complete a stock as the average buyer may wish to select from. We were particularly impressed with his stock of dress goods, which is unquestionably the most complete stock ever brought to this city. Samples of carpets, from ingrain to the finest Brussels, are always kept on hand and buyers are supplied at little delay directly from the wholesale house. We were impressed with the fact that his stock of ladies' cloaks would be in keeping with the demands of a city like Omaha. His stock includes every grade and quality of goods for which there is a demand. His stock of furs, muffs, hoods and notions is complete and the selection has been made with becoming taste. The stock, throughout, can not fail to please the most fastidious purchaser.

In the course of a conversation with Mr. Herrmann, we were informed that, notwithstanding the open winter, his business was enjoying a period of prosperity and as farmers had begun to market their crops his sales were gradually becoming larger.

We believe that it will pay our readers, from an economic standpoint, to inspect this mammoth stock before going to other cities to do their trading. The assortment is complete, prices always reasonable and under the efficient management of Miss Amelia Wurl customers are accorded courteous and fair treatment.

Private Secretary. The performance of Gillett's new "Private Secretary" at the academy of music last night was excellent, and the Edwin Travers Co. deserves and will win good houses wherever it goes. The house was the largest and most select of the season so far as it has gone, and a remarkable as well as flattering feature of it was that the money was all below the gallery. To say that the audience was pleased would be putting it mildly. From the first to the last they gave hearty vent to their amusement and appreciation of the acting, which, taken throughout, was clean, studied and admirable. Wm. Fairbanks as the Rev. Robert is a treasure, and the presentation of "Old Man Chattermole" by H. Rees Davies was simply grand. The new "Private Secretary" in its present hands will pass into the front row, and "Do You Know" that it will surely prove a money winner as it swings around the circle?—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cocksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at F. G. Fricke & Co's drugstore. Large bottle, 50c and $1.00. An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she had to cough up for fifteen minutes. Then she went to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave her the same remedy with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true merits of this wonderful medicine. CHARLES A. THOMPSON, Des Moines, Iowa. 50 cent bottle for sale by F.
