FIFTH YEAR.

All Experts Use

Royal Baking Powder

Perfect and uniform success in making finest food is more certain with Royal Baking Powder than with any other. Use it in every receipt calling for a baking powder, or cream of tartar and soda, and the best results in pure, wholesome, appetizing food are assured. Experts use it because it adds to their success. Physicians and Health Officers recommend it because it adds to the wholesomeness of the food.

MARION HARLAND: "I regard the Royal Baking Powder as the best in the market. Since its introduction into my kitchen have used no other."

MISS MARIA PARLOA: "It seems to me that the Royal Baking Powder is as good as any can be. I have used it a great deal and always with satisfaction."

MRS. BAKER, Principal of Washington, D. C., School of Cookery: "I say to you, without hesitation, use the 'Royal.' I have tried all, but the Royal is the most satisfactory."

M. GORJU, late Chef, Delmonico's, New-York: "In my use of Royal Baking Powder, I have found it superior to all others."

A. FORTIN, Chef, White House, for Presidents Arthur and Cleveland: "I have tested many baking powders, but for finest food can use none but 'Royal.'"

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep and had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all other for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Harford, Conn.

Small we Have a Wagon Bridge.

Since it has become evident that a railroad bridge will be built across the Platte at this place by the M. P. road, we have thought it might be well to suggest that our citizens consider the matter of building a wagon bridge in connection with it.

That such a bridge would result advantageously to our city and surrounding country there can be no question in the mind of any one. As the matter now stands Plattsmouth merchants receive practically no trade from that section, where as if our city were made accessible by such a bridge, an immense amount of trade would come to our city. As we are now situated, we are completely deprived of trade beyond the two rivers. Of course we deem it impracticable to advocate the bridging of the Missouri, but no serious objection can be urged against the bridging of the Platte. After the railroad bridge will have been constructed, the expense of driving the one row of piling, planking and railing the bridge will be comparatively light probably not to exceed $2,500. In the course of a conversation with Mr. Lewis relative to the subject, he stated that he was not prepared to speak authoritatively as to how the matter would be considered by the M. P. authorities but he would readily support any more that would be beneficial to Plattsmouth providing it would not result detrimentally to the road. We suggest that the board of trade and city council consider the matter seriously, and work in conjunction for the ultimate building of the bridge.

The Sherman vs. Berge Matter.

The editor of the Journal knows perfectly well that the article which appeared in the columns of THE HERALD at few days since with the "cowardly assassin-like character X" affixed and which he alleges was abusive in its nature, was not the production of the editor of THE HERALD nor did it receive our sanction. The wrathful journalist is aware that frequently correspondence is admitted by all newspapers, the sentiment of which is not endorsed by the editor. When the Journal again wishes to announce that J. W. Berge has been beaten in argument is an "idiot" and supplants "argument" with "abuse," we beg of him to be honest in the matter and not address him as "THE HERALD scribbler" when he is aware that the latter is not connected with THE HERALD. If Mr. Berge thinks that Mr. Sherman is a "public pauper" and a "rebel" and the Journal man is positive that the former is an "idiot" and a knave THE HERALD must insist they settle their difference between themselves, as this paper does not endorse the methods employed by either nor will it espouse the cause of either.

Royal Arcanum Notice.

There will be a meeting of Cass Council No. 1021, Royal Arcanum, to-night at 7:30 o'clock in their council chamber over Bennett & Tutt's store. All members are urged to attend, as the election of officers for the ensuing year and other business of importance will come before this meeting.

HENRY HEROLD, Regent.
THOS. WALLING, Secretary.

A Mechanical Wonder.

To-morrow (Friday) is the opening day of the Great Columbus Clock. It is not only a marvel showing what can be conceived and executed by man, but an intensely interesting entertainment and equal to a performance given by a hundred actors as one hundred mechanical life like moving figures appear, acting as though they lived and breathed, enacting the most exciting events of our national history.

Everybody should see this noted structure while here, and children especially should be permitted to attend, as it is one of these curious things that only comes around about once a lifetime. The clock will exhibit for a few days, showing afternoon and evening.

We are informed by one who was there, that of all the firemen that participated in the subjection of the flames last evening, Will Streight exhibited the most bravery and courage.

WHAPPED IN FLAMES.

The Residence of R. Bilstein Succumbs to the Ravages of the Flames.

The residence of R. Bilstein, on the corner of Vine and Eighth streets, was nearly burned to the ground at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The first to detect the disturbance was Mrs. Bilstein, who, looking through the window, perceived a light, which she at first attributed to a reflection from the moon, but as it grew steadily brighter she aroused Mr. Bilstein, who at once ascertained that their house was on fire.

Fireman George Brooks, who lives near Mr. Bilstein's, was at once awakened and hastened to the bell tower. The rapid intonations of the fearful sounding bell gave no uncertain sound. After persistent ringing, less than a dozen firemen gathered to subdue the ravages of the flames.

The F. E. White hose cart was the first upon the scene, closely followed by the F. M. Richey cart, and in a few moments two streams of water were brought from the hydrant north of the avenue, which had a telling effect upon the flames, but owing to the delay, and together with the fact that so few of the firemen responded to the call, it was found impossible to save the building.

The greater portion of the household goods, including a piano, three bedsteads, chairs, center-table and cupboard, were removed from the burning building, but were damaged considerably.

The loss is estimated at $650. The house was insured by the Livingston Loan association for $500. There is little doubt that the fire originated from a defective flue, as the fire had been burning briskly in the parlor during the evening and the roof was first ignited near the flue.

In connection with the above, we mention that John Waterman came near meeting with a serious accident. As he was hastily crossing the forty-foot bridge that spans the creek between Vine street and the avenue, being blinded by the light, he fell through a hole in the bridge, sustaining painful bruises. He was assisted home, where a HERALD reporter found him at 11 o'clock this morning, enjoying a quiet sleep. He deemed his injuries only slight and unworthy the services of a physician.

Two in One

A rumor was afloat at an early hour this morning that Judge Archer was the principal party to a performance by which two were united into one. A rumor to that effect would naturally arouse suspicion and to the end that facts in the case might be known and our police judge placed before the people in a fair light, THE HERALD man made inquiry and found that he had not taken unto himself a helpmate as was at first surmised, but he had simply been admitted to the bar. The one man possessing the attributes of an attorney and judge at once set us straight; upon the recommendation of Judge Sullivan the oath was administered by Judge Chapman at 2:45 p. m. to day.

Board of Trade

The members of the board of trade are hereby requested to meet in the county judge's office at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday December 8, when delegates to the beet sugar convention, to be held in Lincoln December 27, will be appointed and the proposition to locate an agricultural implement factory in this city will be discussed. A full attendance is desired. R. B. WINDHAM, Pres. G. F. S. BURTON, Sec'y.

Destructive Fire at Shenandoah.

The Western Normal College at Shenandoah, Iowa, one of the largest educational establishments in the west, was totally destroyed by fire about midnight last evening. Several other adjacent buildings were burned. The loss is estimated at $150,000.

Cass county is well represented at this institution of learning and doubtless the students will return home.

J. P. Young has secured the "T. K." Quartette of Omaha for a date in this city, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' N. S. society of the Presbyterian church, for Thursday, December 29, at the Waterman opera house. Everybody knows the "T. K.'s" and they promise an extra fine programme. They will be accompanied by a fine pianist.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe" when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cocksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at F. G. Fricke & Co's drugstore. Large bottle, 50c and $1.00.

When The Evening News rose to the heights of its dignity and rendered its "horse and horse" decision it completely overlooked the matter of justice, a very essential attribute of one who assumes such a trustworthy position as the concealed editor has reposed in himself. The Journal has never called the editor of THE HERALD an "idiot," neither have we attributed to the Journal man the station of a "public pauper." Of this fact the News is perfectly aware.

Attorney A. J. Graves is in Lincoln to-day arranging for the Edison contest, of which he has charge. Something may be expected to "drop" in the near future.
