CRISP, Mills and Springer might settle their differences by uniting on E. speaker Reed for speaker.

It has been said by good authority that Russell Sage is the most charitable man living.

One Way to Fix Up an Old Room. If you are repairing an old house and wish to have one or two striking and effective features, choose a room for a den and have the whole of a windowless side finished with drawers, cupboards, nooks and pigeon holes.

The countries with which a McKinley reciprocity has already been concluded are Brazil, Cuba, Porto Rico, San Domingo and the Hawaiian Islands.

It is well known that the Cleveland element of the democratic house favors Mills for the speakership, because Mills, more than any other man, represents the Cleveland free trade idea.

The republicans of Ohio are making an effort to inaugurate Governor McKinley with ceremonies that have never been more imposing.

The western democratic papers favor Boise for the second place on the ticket for '92, banking on the probability of his carrying Iowa.

The statement is given out that the administration has negotiated a treaty with the Hawaiian islands establishing absolute free trade with those islands.

ject lesson by which they may judge of the general effect of free trade. The fact is the administration has succeeded in establishing reciprocal trade relations with the Hawaiian Islands in accordance with the provisions of the reciprocity clause of the McKinley law.

CRISP'S ELECTION. In the nomination of Mr. Crisp for the speakership the democracy of this country has taken a decidedly aggressive and some may term progressive step.
