THE clause in the McKinley bill increasing the duty on plush goods has frequently been attacked by the democratic press and orators. It is hard for them to explain the fact, however, that under the law a factory for the manufacture of such goods has just been opened at Lowell, Mass. Speaking of the matter the Leeds Mercury says: "The opening up of this branch of manufacture in the country cannot, however, be placed to the credit of Ynakee shill and enterprise. The increased duties imposed by the McKintey tariff have alone made the development possible, as up to recently no goods of this description were produced in the states."-Nebraska Press.

MUNICIPAL EVILS.

Fundamentally, the cure of political evil, of municipal as well as othe forms, falls back on education says a writer in the Globe Democrat. An appeal to scholars to lead in politics is of no use, so long as we mean by scholars a parcel of college graduates, from whose education from the very outset moral obligation has been emasculated.

Another license was procured, but the fact was not published in the papers. The same minister was engaged again. Miss Ida Porter, who did not usually pick cotton, suddenly became very industriously inclined, and concluded to help pick out the crop. She went into the field and began work. Pretty soon her big brother, not suspecting anything, went to the gin with a load of cotton, and about the time he was gone Mr. Strickland and the preacher came along, and right in the cotton patch the ceremony was performed that made the blushing maiden and the gallant lover man and wife.-Galvestor
