COLD WATER CURES ALL

A UNIVERSAL PANACEA FOR SUFFERING HUMANITY.

"The Abbe Sebastian Kneipp" and His Power of Healing—A Patient Describes the Method of the Priest's Treatment—Cold Water Used Externally.

Few Americans have seen the little village of Weorshofen, between Memmingen and Augsburg, in Bavaria, and yet for the past four or five years this little burg has attracted as many visitors...

The citizens of Plattsburgh have abundant reasons to be proud of the city schools as conducted by the present management.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds...

A son of Mr. M. D. Pusser, a merchant of Gibraltar, N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism for a year or more, as to be unable to work or go to school...

"How now! What hot deal sir," said an old rascal, stopping me at the Washington statue in front of Independence hall...

"Well, go ahead," I said. "For about the fiftieth time I read the Declaration of Independence today," he continued...

"Certainly. But what have I to do with that?" I asked. "Everything, my dear sir; everything," he replied. "You are a good American, I know, and that is the reason why I wished to say to you that men are not free and equal in all cases..."

I don't wonder that reformers shudder when it comes to the names of streets. I myself have counted twenty-six King streets, sixteen Queen streets and thirteen Duke streets in this town!

The time has arrived when a halt should be called upon the soporificated and unwarranted warfare being waged against our public schools by the Evening News...

The English glow worm is the wingless female of a winged beetle. Some suppose that the light she bears is bestowed for her protection to scare away the nightingale and other nocturnal birds...

"It's little things that count," said Hicks. "Ye-es," returned Mawson. "But very inaccurately. My boy can't count eleven without making about forty mistakes..."

The champion horse jockey belongs in Belfast in the person of Life Walker. Just to give his boy an idea how to get along in the world...
