 hours and four minutes of daylight.

Gering & Co. are headquarters for plush goods of every description.

How would it do to consider a proposition to have a Christmas tree for the benefit of the poor of the city?

The county board of supervisors will met for new organization Jan.
 7. At this time S. W. Dutton will be duly installed.

This is the harvest week, and merchants who advertise in THE HERALD will receive the bulk of the trade. It is not too late yet to insert an "ad."

Rev. Luther Smith of the Baptist church at Springfield, Neb., has disappeared, leaving a number of creditors in the lurch. Even the best of men go wrong at times.
 The old business maxim, "In business treat every man as a scoundrel," is a good one.

The Fair has the largest assortment of useful Christmas presents in the city, and for quality and for cheapness they cannot be beat.

The railroad companies are utilizing every car possible to assist in the transportation of the immense grain crop. In some instances stock cars have been fitted up and used. A hard time the farmers are having to be sure. Send for Peffer and Sockless Simpson that they may give us some consolation.

Judge Archer's Court.

Pat King, a corn husker from near Eight Mile Grove, came to town yesterday and proceeded to fill up on whiskey, and about 11 o'clock last night he was "run in" by Policeman McGuire. He appeared in police court this morning and loaned the court $0.30, and was discharged.

A Resignation.

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Cass County Nebraska:

GENTLEMEN:—Owing to the general responsibility attached to the office of overseers of road districts in this county and considering the uncertainty of this life and the death of the great independent movement in this state and last but not least that my alliance friend and Pro. the Hon. Ami Todd will at your next meeting retire from active service on this Hon. board, I hereby tender my resignation as overseer of road district No. 52 in said county of Cass and ask you honorable body to appoint M. B.
 Williams as overseer of said district No. 52. Very respectfully submitted.

Dated this 21st day of December.

DO WE WANT IT?

If so, Let us Work in Unison to Secure it.

THE HERALD's interview with President Croan, published last week, in which he authorized us to state that he desired to consider a proposition from the city of Plattsmouth looking to the establishment of a first-class normal college here, has induced a number of our people to think seriously of the matter.

At this writing, Messrs. Thomas and Isaac Wiles appear to be the most enthusiastic supporters of the movement. The former called at THE HERALD office last evening and stated that in the event the citizens of Plattsmouth desired to make President Croan a proposition, he would donate a sufficient amount of land for the college campus; also, he and Isaac would each furnish, gratuitously, ten acres of land, providing the citizens would purchase for the use of the college what remained of the original eighty acres, which would probably be about fifty-five acres.
 This proposed site is located six blocks directly south of Oak Hill cemetery, rendering it about one mile from the business portion of the city.

THE HERALD should be pleased to see our people awaken to a true realization of the importance of this matter. A prominent Shenandoah business man, in speaking of the loss property holders of that town would sustain by the removal of the college, recently stated that property would immediately depreciate 20 per cent. If it be true that a college of that nature would enhance the value of property even 10 per cent, our property owners could donate in the aggregate at least $100,000 and yet receive the equivalent of a high rate of interest on the investment. The bringing of 1,000 students to our town would bring hundreds of families and thousands of dollars every year; as a medium of advertising a town, a school conducted by President Croan has no equal, for catalogues, primarily in the interests of the college, yet incidentally setting forth the merits of our town and county, would besent into nearly every community in the country.

Besides, those of our young people that to-day attend school in other towns, would remain here; and many who are now deprived of an education because of the extra expense necessarily incurred in attendance away from home, would be afforded an opportunity of getting an education. The location of such a school would be a help to our town intellectually. As our churches reflect the rays of divine light over the community and thus raise our people to a higher standard of morality, so would a college materially aid in the social and intellectual culture of the community. Here is a golden opportunity.
 Shall we embrace it? If so, let a meeting of the board of trade be called and committees appointed to push the matter vigorously.

An Unfortunate Runaway.

Roy Britt, son of Dr. Britt, met with quite a misfortune while out driving Sunday afternoon. While driving in the neighborhood of the electric power house the horse became unmanageable and in its fright hurled the buggy against a large tree, throwing Mr. Britt about fifteen feet in the air and jolting him considerably. The buggy was damaged considerably. It was unfortunate that the accident should occur, but, as the southern statesman would put it, we might be glad "it twa'n't no wuss."

Mr. Britt has been in the employ of the B. & M. as chief clerk of the freight station at Omaha for the past six years.

Closed by His Creditors.

The grocery store of August Bach was closed this morning to satisfy creditors holding chattel mortgages as follows: Groenewig & Schoentgen, of Council Bluffs, $200; Fred Schroeder, Cedar Creek, $112; Ashland Mill & Electric Light Co., $381.97; Meyer & Raapke, Omaha, $375; C. H. Parmele, Plattsmouth, $423.20.

Lost—Between the B. & M. yards and Winterstein hill, a pocketbook containing a check on the Citizens' bank for $22, two photographs and citizenship papers. The finder will receive a reward of $5 by leaving the same at THE HERALD office. JOHN JANNE.

SILVERWARE GIVEN AWAY

A Stimulator for Cash Trade to Wide-Awake Persons.

While we appreciate the large amount of trade we are favored with, we still desire to increase our

CASH TRADE

and have completed arrangement in which we have secured large quantities, at first hands, of the celebrated

ROGERS' SOLID NICKEL SILVER PLATEWARE at such prices that we propose to give them to our many customers believing that we shall increase our trade, as our customers appreciate the fact that we are spending the money we set aside for advertising purposes by returning it to them, believing they will appreciate the gifts and tell their friends, and thereby increase our trade.

EVERY Cash purchase to the amount of $5 entitles the purchaser to either a Roger's Solid Silver Metal Butter Knife or Sugar Shell sold by Jewelers at $1.00.

EVERY Cash purchase to the amount of $15 entitles the purchaser to a set (6) of Roger's Solid Nickel Tea Spoons, sold by Jewelers at $2.00.
