THE Julius Cooley of the democratic party—Milbert H. Hitchcock.

WHEN Col. Bryan gets through with the McKinley bill he will take up the subject of baptism by immersion, which is said to very vitally effect the silver question and contract the currency.

SOME political parties are born with trimmers within their ranks; others have trimmers thrust upon them.

TABLE TALK for January is full of reasonable good things, spread out before the housewife by Mrs. Rorer in her own practical style.

THE president has issued a proclamation announcing the signature of a reciprocity agreement between Salvador and the United States.

Animals, corn, rice, barley, rye, beans, hay and straw; fruits, biscuits, coal, bricks, marble, tar, fertilizers, agricultural implements, machinery, railroad materials, telegraphic and telephonic materials, electric and gas lighting materials, wharf materials, wood, iron, scientific instruments, printing materials, paper and printed matter, gold and silver in bars.

OUR TARIFF WORKS BETTER THAN ENGLAND EXPECTED. The St. James Gazette, speaking of President Harrison's message, says:

The most important point is that which refers to the tariff. The figures presented compare significantly with British figures, which show a stationary condition of trade.

Wonderful. E. W. Sawyer, of Rochester, Wis., a prominent dealer in general merchandise, and who runs several peddling wagons, had one of his horses badly cut and burned with lariat. The wound refused to heal.

I used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh. It proved a cure.—B. F. M. Weeks, Denver.

Ely's Cream Balm is especially adapted as a remedy for catarrh which is aggravated by alkaline dust and dry winds.—W. A. Hover, Druggist, Denver.

Shiloh's catarrh remedy—a positive cure Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker mouth. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

THE MANNERS OF PARENTS.

To Have Contentious Children They Must Behave Courteously Toward Them.

We hear a good deal about the behavior of children on these days, and these remarks are often the reverse of complimentary, says Eleanor A. Hunter in the Cincinnati Commercial.

"You never say 'Thank you' to me," returned the child instantly. "It is not my place to say 'Thank you' to you. You are my child, and it is your duty to do whatever I order."

When company comes, how many children are told to "keep out of the way"—to "keep still and not say anything" in the presence of the guests.

"Well," I heard his mother answer, laughingly, at one time, "for one thing I never snubbed him. He has no idea that there are people in the world who do not like boys."

He drops from his panting horse. He slouches into the lumber-yard. He is tall and gaunt. His cheeks are sunken. His eyes are sullen—or sad.

A board, a Saw, a Few Nails, and a Mother's Hot Tears.

He produces a consumptive wallet and says, "Kin I have a saw an' measure?" These are handed him. The men present look on in stolid curiosity as he cuts the board in lengths.

Up the street he buys some nails. He rides out of town. A scorching day. Overhead a vault of brass. All around tawny seas of stunted, tattered, drought-dried corn.

He leans patiently against the wagon, his head bowed on his arms. The children keep on playing. He rouses himself. He cuts down some cottonwood branches. The children help him to strip off the pale-green leaves.

She kisses the dead baby. She gives it to him. Then she tries to snatch it back. Not ungently, he pushes her hands away. He tenderly lays the tiny body on the leaves. He covers the wee face with an old gauze veil.

The volumes of the Magazine begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is specified, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order.

Mr. William T. Price, a Justice of the Peace, at Richland, Nebraska, was confined to his bed last winter with a severe attack of Chamberlain's Pain-Expeller.

THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Rheumatism, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions.

Do not confuse the famous Blush of Roses with the many worthless paints, powders, creams and bleaches which are flooding the market.

Electric Bitters. This remedy is becoming so well and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.

A Fatal Mistake. Physicians make no more fatal mistake than when they inform patients that nervous heart troubles come from the stomach and are of little consequence.

It Should be in Every House. J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds.

Some Foolish People allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away.

A Mystery Explained. The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen.

As well as the handsomest and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs.

Starting Facts. The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks and the following suggests, the best remedy: alphous Humpfling, of Butler, Penn.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. This medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved. From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Ford of Groton, S. D. we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption."
