The Actor.

Varied is the life of the actor To-day he is swimming on the top wave of success; to-morrow there are none so poor to do him reverence. He is of all kinds and colors, from the rich, ripe, full-blown hero of the dime novel stripe to the measly, scrawny, emaciated wretch of the society novel. His great forte is his solitary and impressive grandeur. His grandeur is always with him. Never is it laid aside from the bright early flush of young actorhood until time and the winds have scattered his whiskers asunder. Be he ever so vile and actor, he must have a grandeur. He needs it in his business. And when you come to think of it, what is so great as a suitable grandeur? He starts out from Kalamazoo or Nebraska City in the early bloom of the fall, laden with eloquence and a grandeur, and he travels to far-away Lockport or Golden with that same winning grandeur and eloquence, and nightly he plays to empty benches and soon he is in it. Yes, he is indeed in it. Up to his neck do the bills surmount. And soon his grandeur attracts the sheriff, and the more it attracts the greater do the sheriff's attachments for him grow, until at last he is covered with attachments from head to foot. But his matchless grandeur still goes on. "Age cannot wither nor time stale his infinite variety." But the actor, with all his grandeur gives us amusement, and that is what we are here for. His grandeur can be seen at the opera house Friday night, January 29, in "The Midnight Alarm."

The largest meat train ever brought in by the B. & M. came in this morning at 2:30, consisting of forty-eight cars, enroute to Chicago. The train was from South Omaha and was drawn by engine No. 108.

CITY LEGISLATION.

Regular Meeting of the City Deeds-- Henry Bons Allowed the Privilege of Moving His Saloon.

City council met in regular session last evening in the council chamber. Present, His Honor Mayor Richey, Clerk Fox, Councilmen Salisbury, Browne, Gutsche, Petersen, Jones of the Second, Murphy, Miner and Dove. Absent, Jones of the First and Larson. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

A communication from Henry Bons, asking for the privilege of moving his saloon from the corner of Main and Third streets to the Polk building, one door west of Hendee's hardware store, was read. On motion of Jones of the Second it was granted.

Following is the report of the finance committee:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Amount. F. J. Morgan, salary, $ 75 00. E. S. Aagaard, blacksmithing, 5 75. Journal, printing, 5 25. F. M. Richey, lumber, 121 10. F. J. Searles, special police, 8 00. Weldmann & Breckenfeld, hardware, 11 75. Pe or Hansen, repairing, 2 25. Geo. Pissall, salary, foreman hose No. 3, 25 00. Henry McGuire, same, No. 4, 25 00.

The claims of McGuire and Pissall, at the last meeting, were referred to the claims committee. Last night, on motion of D. M. Jones, the claims were accepted and warrants were drawn.

The judiciary and fire and water committees reported an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance providing for the establishment of a paid fire department." It was read for the first time and will come up for second reading and amendments next meeting.

After the council had adjourned Browne moved that the council proceed to the election of a chief of police. The mayor informed the Second ward councilman that the council had adjourned, but Mr. Browne thought different. The mayor refused to entertain the motion, whereupon the Second ward councilman began to get warm under the collar. Mr. Browne then served a written notice on the mayor, signed by himself, Gutsche and Petersen, requesting him to call a special meeting Thursday night for the purpose of electing and confirming a chief of police. The mayor thereupon informed the few councilmen standing around him, that as long as he was mayor no man would serve as chief of police unless he was a man that he personally wanted, as he had been cursed as long as he was going to be for appointing men that the council wanted.

A lively time may be expected next Thursday night over the affair.

Chili Humbles Herself and Will Right Every Wrong.

SANTIAGO, CHILLI, Jan. 25.—The Chilean government has sent a reply to ultimatum of the United States. The reply is in effect as follows:

Chili agrees to withdraw the offensive note sent by Senor Matta to all the Chilean minister abroad and acknowledges that its issuance was due to an error of judgment.

Chili also withdraws its request for the withdrawal of United States Minister Egan. In addition the Chilean government, in its answer proposes that the affair of the attack on the Baltimore sailor in Valparaiso be submitted to the arbitration of some neutral nation. If this proposition is not acceptable to the United States government, the Chilean government suggests that the matter be submitted to the decision of the supreme court of the United States.

Mrs. Gering had her hands very badly burned this morning. She had taken some ashes from the stove, and in so doing she removed some coals of fire into the bucket, and while working around the stove the bottom of her dress caught on fire. When trying to put it out she burned her hands very badly. Miss Eda, seeing her mother's danger, went to her assistance and in endeavoring to put out the fire she also severely burned her hands.

A VET'S SOLILOQUY.

Take down the old Springfield rifle, John, and burnish up the barrel. Them Chilian dogs are growlin' fierce--there's bound to be a quar'.

Brave blood o' Yankee tars has run in Valparaiso's streets, And that's a deed we must avenge in spite o' all their fleets.

Our war ships are not many, but the boys o' '62, Are ready for the scrimmage--the gray besides the blue--

And all they ask is standin' room on Chilli's bloody coast To make 'em rue the day they pulled the eagle from his roost.

Then take down the old rifle, John and burnish up the barrel. The boys that wore the blue and gray can straighten this 'ere snarl.
