A lady purchased a half pound of asafetida at one of our drug stores last week. She heard that it was good for the grip and was going to try it. In the bulk there is only one thousand doses, if she takes it all, we shall have to wait a long time for the results.—Weeping Water Eagle.

Cass county is not keeping up with the procession. As yet there is not a single Keeley gold institute in the county, while some of the neighboring counties have half a dozen. Some of our physicians should look after this matter and open an institute in Weeping Water.—Weeping Water Republican.

Supt. Noble and wife returned from their wedding tour last Thursday and have taken rooms with Mrs. Swearingen for the present. We sincerely hope that something will prevent their leaving us; and we don't feel particularly selfish in it either. We somehow feel that Weeping Water has the first claim over them.—Weeping Water Republican.

About nine o'clock the little folks returned to their several homes well pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

Another World-Herald Fake. This morning's World-Herald contained a dispatch dated at Louisville, stating that the Bank of Louisville had gone to the wall, and that a big rush was made for the bank by the depositors. The facts of the case are as follows: C. H. Parmele owns the Bank of Commerce and Frank Stander owns the Bank of Louisville. Mr. Stander is lying at death's door, and, wishing to settle up his affairs, he sold the Bank of Commerce to C. H. Parmele. Yesterday the bargain was closed and Mr. Parmele has consolidated the two banks. No such report as the one circulated by the World-Herald was in circulation yesterday at Louisville. The consolidation was made quietly.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Harrison Greatly Gratified at the Turn Affairs Have Taken.

The official confirmation of the information that Chile had signified her willingness to comply with the demands of the United States was given to the public yesterday, when President Harrison sent a message to congress on the subject. Accompanying the message was the correspondence between the two countries since the sending of the message to congress last Monday:

"I transmit herewith the additional correspondence between this government and the government of Chili, consisting of the note of Montt, Chilean minister here, to Blaine, dated January 23; the reply of Blaine thereto of the date of January 27, and the dispatch from Egan, our minister at Santiago, transmitting the response of Pereira, the Chilean minister of foreign affairs, to the note of Blaine of January 21 which was received by me on the 26th inst. The note of Montt to Blaine, though dated January 23, was not delivered at the state department until after 2 o'clock meridian of the 25th, and not translated and its receipt notified to me until late in the afternoon of that day.

"The response of Pereira to our note of the 21st withdraws, with acceptable expressions of regret, the offensive note of Matta of the 11th ult., and also the request for the recall of Egan. The treatment of the incident of the assault upon the sailors of the Baltimore is conciliatory and friendly.

"I am of the opinion there is good prospect that the differences growing out of that serious affair can now be adjusted upon terms satisfactory to this government by the usual methods and without special powers from congress. This turn in affairs is very gratifying to me, as I am sure it will be to congress and to our people. The general support of the efforts of the executive department to enforce the just rights of the nation in this matter have given an instructive and useful illustration of the unity and patriotism of our people.

"Should it be necessary I will again communicate with congress upon the subject.

"BENJAMIN HARRISON."

The O. D. C. Danes.

The O. D. C. gave their regular dance last night at Rockwood hall. The Italian orchestra, of Omaha, furnished the music. There were twenty-three couple present and a good time was had by those present. Following is a list of those in attendance:

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coursey, Mrs. Woodhurst and Miss Powell, of Glenwood; Janet Livingston, Maggie Oliver, Dora Fricke, Nannie Moore, Ella Wright, Bertha Wise, Delia Tartsch, Tressa Hempel, Amelia Vallery, Maud O'Neill and friend, Bertha Nitka, Georgia Oliver, Alice Eikenbary, Edna Adams, Carrie Gruesel, Mary Skiles, Maud Moore, Fannie McDougal, Will Anderson, of Glenwood; Will Stadelman, Charles Murphy, Charles Sherman, Frank Johnson, Henry Tartsch, John Schulhoff, Rob Crozier, Charles Vallery, Lew O'Neal, Ed Schulhoff, A. E. Reinhackel, Arch Coleman, Charles Richey, John Langston, Emil Wurl, Fred Fitch, Harry Green and Frank McCoy.

John C. Eisele, of Cedar Creek yesterday sold sixty-one hogs, weighing 20,160 pounds. Mr. Eisele sold them to Wiley Black of this city, and they were shipped to South Omaha, where they brought the top price. Mr. Black paid him four cents per pound, amounting in all to $24.40. Wiley always pays a good price for hogs, and those that saw this lot say they were the finest they ever saw in this county.

World's Fair Notes.

Indiana's building at the exposition will be French gothic in style, and constructed entirely of Indiana material. It will measure 100x170 feet, and in reality will be a $100,000 structure, though, on account of the donation of a large part of the material entering into its construction, its cash cost will be only about $30,000.

A collective exhibit of sanitary appliances and methods of sanitation, and of all that pertains closely to them, is to be made at the exposition. The various state and municipal boards of health will work in conjunction to that end, numerous representatives of those organizations having so decided at a recent convention in Chicago.

A grand dedication ball, probably in the auditorium, on the night of October 13, 1892, will conclude the exercises dedicatory of the exposition buildings. Many representatives of foreign countries are expected to be present, and the event will be, to an extent, international in character. The committee on ceremonies has selected the following patronesses and managers:

Patronesses—Mrs. Potter Palmer, Mrs. George L. Dunlap, Mrs. George M. Pullman, Mrs. Nelson A. Miles, Mrs. W. W. Kimball, Mrs. A. C. McClurg, Mrs. Heaton Owsley, Mrs. Arthur Caton, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Mrs. William Armour, Mrs. Hobart C. Taylor and Mrs. Robert W. Patterson, Jr.

Managers—Mr. N. K. Fairbank, Mr. Marshall Field, Mr. Norman Williams, Mr. Franklin McVeagh, Mr. Lambert Tree, Mr. Hobart C. Taylor, Mr. T. Harvey Bradley, Mr. F. M. Whitehouse, Mr. Huntington W. Jackson, Mr. A. C. Monore, Mr. Arthur Ryerson and Mr. George Armour.

Midnight Alarm.

"The Midnight Alarm," as produced last season, and the same play as witnessed last night at the National Theatre, would hardly be identified as the same production, so numerous have been the changes. The play has been reconstructed and improved, and the new version will now rank as one of the best plays on the stage, and with the capable company now presenting it, there is no reason why it should not hold place with the leading dramatic successes of the season.

The excellent stage setting evoked much applause, especially the scene where the fast express train flies across the bridge after the attempt to wreck it had been foiled, and the one showing the interior of the engine house and the receipt of the alarm of fire, changing to the exterior of the house and showing the smoking steamer dashing through the storm to the pier.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

At the Waterman to-night. Don't fail to see it.

Three and Three.

The second trial of the Ellenbaum-Bilstein case has come and gone. It occupied two days and one night and the jury again disagreed. The jury were out all night and were discharged this morning by Judge Ramsey. The jury stood three for plaintiff and three for defendant. The case was hotly contested and the lawyers in their argument to the jury reviewed the evidence in an able manner. The case will either have to be dismissed by plaintiff at his own cost, or the plaintiff and defendant agree on some way to dispose of it, or another jury will have to be called and the case tried over again. The costs in the case now have run up to between $150 and $200. The case was tried before the following jury: S. A. Davis, J. C. Eikenbary, F. S. White, A. B. Taylor, Frank Morgan and John Hulschue. THE HERALD predicts that they can get no jury that will agree on the case.
