The Hon. John M. Thurston is in the hands of his friends for the Vice Presidential nomination, but he will not seek it himself. That is unfortunate. Mr. Thurston is one of the most eloquent speakers in the country, and if he could only talk for himself he might make a most favorable impression.—Inter-Ocean

ADVANCE IN PRICE OF PIG IRON
UNDER BRITISH FREE-TRADE.

When the domestic producer of pig iron had been blotted out, he and his wife and children reduced to want and beggary, a railroad-building period came, and with it a demand for iron, which could not be supplied by American production; the price of pig iron, which had throughout 1843, '44, '45 and '46 averaged $28.19 per ton, advanced throughout 1853, '54, '55 and '56 to an average of $34.28 per ton, or an average of $60.09 per ton more under four years of British Free-Trade than for the same period under Protection. Here is statesmanship of the Cleveland-Mills-Vance variety!—Henry Carey Baird.

COSTS OF MAKING PIG IRON.

The following statement concerning the costs of making pig iron in England and the United States is given by The Engineer, London.

U S	England
Coke used per ton pig..... 2.50 lb	2,500 lb
Cost of same at oven..... $2.25	$4.00
Selling price pig No. 2..... 13.25	9.75
Percentage cost of coke to ton pig 16 1/2	41

Assuming 1 1/4 tons as the equivalent to the 22 cwt. of the English practice, $13.50 as the price of pig iron at Pittsburg as against 39s. in England, Connellys coke $1.75 f. o. b. cars and Durhams 14s., the figures stand as in the preceding table. These figures are of course approximation.

AMERICAN WAGES.

Our import duties are laid with a view to covering the difference in cost of production here and abroad.

Labor costs, or wages, constitute fully 90 per cent. of this cost of production.

Consequently our workmen receive nearly all the benefit derived from protection.

It is conceded by all that the American wages are from 60 to 150 per cent. higher than in England from 100 to 1,000 per cent. greater than in other countries.

The American farm laborer gets on an average $20.00 a month and bound, while the English farm laborer gets but $8.00.

The American iron workers get $5.50 per ton for puddling, while the Englishman gets but $2.00.

The American potter gets three times as much for the same work as the English workman.

Our textile workers earn from two to three times as much as the textile workers in England.

And so we might go through every trade and occupation, skilled and unskilled, and we would find that a day's labor in the United States is worth double, and more, the same work in England. This is equally true whether paid by time or piece.

Not only do our workmen receive much better wages than the laborers abroad, but they receive than our own laborers did half a century ago, when we had a free-trade tariff.

In fact, as Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright has just said: "The condition of the wage workers of the United States, viewed in all respects, is better now than at any previous period in our history."

Not only are wages higher, but the cost of living has not increased. There has, moreover, been a general decrease in the hours of labor all of which tends to better the condition of the American wage earner in every way.

Will you vote next November to sustain this condition?—American Economist.

Again have the amusement loving people had a treat in the presentation of that nonsensical comedy "20 Below Zero" by Rentfrows merry comedians. Some time before the orchestra (carried by this company) made its appearance the house was filled with a large and appreciative audience, which had gone to laugh. That they laughed there is no mistake. Like all comedies of its kind it has little plot but a bundle of nonsense and funny sayings, neatly woven together by songs, dances and specialties of the very best. The company is strong and well worthy success. The management should congratulate himself in securing an engagement with this company. Should they return they can rest assured of a warm reception.—Ft. Smith, Ark., Daily Times. At the Waterman opera house Saturday February 6th.

Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the residence of Mrs. S. A. Davis on Pearl street, Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. A full attendance is desired or the meetings will be discontinued for a time. We cannot go on without a better attendance and more interest shown. SEC.

Mrs. Kate Oliver went up to La Platte last night to visit with her friend, Mrs. Colvin.

A Great Sufferer

Is in store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute and chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam. Large Bottles 50c and $1.

La Grippe.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. This remedy also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years we have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

A Slight Mistake.

The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle tells a good story at the expense of a society bid in that city. She was at her first dinner party. She was naturally a little nervous, but everything went off well, and she soon became more at her ease and talked rather brilliantly to those around her. The dessert was being served, and the stately colored waiters were engaged in passing those funny little frosted cakes which seem indispensable to the proper service and deglutition of ices. They were cakes with pink frosting. The waiter came to where the bid sat and presented them. She looked them over and said: "I don't care for any." The waiter was about to pass on, when she saw what she thought was an éclair on the dish farthest from her. "Yes, I will, too," she said, reaching over for the éclair. "There is one with chocolate on it." "Beg pardon, miss," said the waiter, as she tried to pick the chocolate-covered cake up—"beg pardon, but that's my thumb." And every body laughed, and the young lady spoke in monosyllables all the rest of the evening.

A Centennial Growing Young.

A Central American newspaper tells of a man living in San Paulo, Brazil, who is growing young again. He has recently grown a new set of teeth, and his hair, which had turned gray, is now almost black again. He is in active business as a horse trader and occasionally he rides over ten leagues a day. He has been married three times, is now a widower and is quite wealthy. The paper casually remarks that the old man suffered greatly at one time with a tumor, "but this was cured by being gored by an ox."
