The California world's fair state commissioners have authorized the formation of a woman's board. Each commissioner will appoint one member of this board. Each member is allowed $1,000 a year for traveling expenses.

The king of Italy has appointed a world's fair commissioner. Italy, it is believed, will yet formally decide to participate in the exposition. It is already assured that its participation, even if only informal, will be of no mean description. Exceptionally fine exhibits in sculpture and painting are promised.

Georgia, like Texas and South Dakota, is trying to raise a large portion of its needed world's fair fund through the instrumentality of the school pupils and teachers.

The Grand Rapids, Mich., furniture manufacturers will make a united exhibition and want half an acre of space, in which to display it.

A cablegram states that the French government is about to ask the chamber of deputies for an appropriation of 3,500,000 francs ($70,000,000) for the French exhibit at Chicago.

A bill appropriating $300,000 for the state representation at the exposition is now pending in the Iowa legislature. A preliminary appropriation of $50,000 was made at the last session. A bill for $300,000 is also pending in the New York legislature.

It is announced that the imperial band of Emperor William of Germany will attend the Exposition, having already obtained permission to do so.

The Seventeenth Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dull Appropriately Observed at Their Home near Murray.

The social event of the season was the celebration of the seventeenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dull, at their pleasant home one mile east of Murray. Seventeen years of happy married life had passed over their heads on February 3, 1892. Such a successful venture upon the uncertain sea of matrimony was felt to be worthy of commemoration by their many friends. Invitations were sent out, several days previous, to a large circle of friends, and those who held these white-winged messages were anxious for the day to come, and while the sun was shedding its shining rays on the earth, people began to fill the house, bringing with them baskets laden with food, which to the poor wayfaring man would bring to the surface that envious spirit which lurks in his bosom. There was to be seen a sight that will stamp upon the memory a lasting impression.

Mr. and Mrs. Dull are well known throughout this community and are held in high esteem by neighbors and friends. Mrs. Dull's maiden name was Miss Mary Rutherford. She is possessed of a quiet, agreeable way, which endears her to all who know her. Through the sunshine and shadow of seventeen years these two have "lived and loved."

After a social time was spent in pleasant conversation, dinner was announced. The refreshments served were of a character indicative that those who had prepared them were aware of the ingredients that compose edibles fit for the most fastidious epicurean.

As a token of esteem, the guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Dull with a handsome china tea set. Also Miss Elizabeth Holmes, who resides with them, a handsome upholstered chair, signifying that she was not forgotten by her many friends of Murray.

As the sun was preparing to take leave of the world and drop out of sight over the western horizon, the company began to realize that all pleasure is fleeting and that they were demanded elsewhere. So also, after expressing themselves as having fully enjoyed the day, said their adieux and departed for their respective homes.

We wish that Time's snowflakes may fall safely upon Mr. and Mrs. Dull, that they may be spared to live many years in the midst of their friends and neighbors whom they love, and by whom they are loved; that the "Great Giver of all Gifts," whom they trust, may cause their life bark to glide smoothly over life's sea and eventually anchor in the "Land of Pure Delight."

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames D. J. Pitman, William Morrow, J. A. Rankin, Henry Creamer, William Gilmore, William Amick, Anderson Root, F. M. Young, Jr., A. M. Holmes, F. M. Young, Sr., R. S. Root, Samuel Latta, and Mrs. James Walker, Miss Elizabeth Holmes, Thomas Holmes, Mrs. Silas Patterson, Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. E. A. Burton, Mrs. Semia Snodgrass, Mrs. William Loughridge, Mrs. H. L. Oldham and daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hesser and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Rankin, Mrs. J. B. Holmes and daughter and Osborn Latta. M. H. R.
