Something entirely new in the way of entertainments will be given next Friday night, February 19 at the opera house, the best local talent in town participating. Under the management of the M. E. Ad society.

Mrs. H. D. Travis accompanied her husband to Plattsmouth last Thursday for the purpose of selecting a suitable dwelling in which to reside when they move down in the spring.—Weeping Water Republican.

The "Temple of Fame," to be given at the opera house next Friday is said to be, by those who have seen it at other places, the best thing for home talent ever written. Seats on sale at J. P. Young; popular prices, 50, 35 and 25 cents.

Among the many causes given for the Weeping Water church burning Monday the Republican gives the following: One is that the doctrines conflicted by the ministers exchanging pulpits on Sunday causing spontaneous combustion. During the fire some one accused Mr. Hindley of being the cause. He said he warned things up but did not acknowledge doing the deed.

The report was circulated in our city that some parties in other places were making arrangements to move the sewing machine factory to Kearney, for the purpose of securing a big bonus. The truth of the matter is hard to learn, but should such be the case the parties undertaking the scheme will have some costly suits on their hands that will deter them for a time at least, as well as the righteous indignation of all our citizens. When J. Chase returns from Lincoln we will hear more about what will be done.—Weeping Water Republican

State Superintendent Goudy yesterday issued a circular to county superintendents asking for statistics in regard to private schools. Nothing of the kind has ever been compiled and the report will include all institutions of learning except the state university and state normal schools which are a part of the public school system. The superintendent has also sent out circulars urging school teachers to observe in some fitting manner the twenty-fifth anniversary of the state on March 1.

FREAK OF LOVERS.

They run Away From Weeping Papa and Mamma and get Married.

How the Course of True Love Leads Over Great Mountains of Difficulties.

Reports reaches this city yesterday of a social event at Union which is shaking that quiet village to its center. It is the elopement of two cousins named John W. A. Bird of Indiana, and Miss Osta Bird of that place, before the very eyes of the girl's parents.

Young Bird has been on a visit with his uncle. For some time the young people have showed a marked attachment for one another. Yet this occasioned little comment, for both are of highly respected parents, their fathers being brothers. Time has gone on and the mutual love of the two young people has grown apace. The girl, Miss Bird, however, was still young, and the idea that any serious intentions of marriage were entertained by young Bird, never entered the minds of her parents.

Yesterday the accumulating avalanche of love bore away the two fond lovers with it. They could not resist. They must become one just at the soonest possible moment. They asked Papa and Mamma Bird, but they refused, since they were not of sufficient age. The disappointed lovers put their heads together, and upon mature consideration jointly and severally, decided to elope like people did in books and newspapers. They started for the depot. They had plenty of time to catch the train and when they arrived there they sat down to chuckle over the great "shake" they were giving the old people. But while they were sitting there in serene bliss, who should appear but the ferocious parents. They had got wind somehow—through a jealous rival of Miss Bird it is thought—and hastened at once to the depot to head off the forward children. There worst fears were realized. There sat the conscienceless ones, smirking sweetly, but with two tickets stamped for Nebraska City. It shocked the good old people; but their courage returned as soon as they recollect that these refractory ones were the same creatures whom they had spanked in former days for lesser offences. They girded themselves for the strife and set about to persuade by threats, then by tears and supplications their children from their mad course. But it availed not. The train came, and from under the very tearful noses of the parents they stepped upon the train platform and were spirited away in a trice.

They arrived at Nebraska City yesterday and proceeded to get the necessary license, and go through the perfunctory ceremony. It was a lot of fun although; and they enjoyed themselves highly all afternoon. But it was ticklish business getting the license. Yet that was finally procured from Judge Eaton, and they were married at the Central House by Justice White. The couple then took the train for Delaware county Indiana where the groom lives. There John has a farm and they will live as happy Hoosiers.—Nebraska City Press.

Skipped by the Light of the Moon. J. W. Bowman, who has been an employe of the B. & M. shops and also landlord of a boarding house in this city for some time, skipped out yesterday morning on the flyer, leaving several of our merchants with unpaid bills.

About one dozen young democrats gathered at the council chamber last evening. C. W. Sherman was made temporary chairman and Henry Herold, secretary. A committee on permanent organization was appointed consisting of Frank Morgan, C. M. Butler, C. C. Parmele, M. Archer and D. C. McEntee, a committee on constitution and one on finance was appointed. Adjournment was then taken until next Friday evening.

Epworth League. The regular monthly business meeting and social meeting of the above named society will be held this evening at the residence of Mrs. Drew, on Vine, between Fourth and Fifth streets, to which all the young people are invited. Business meeting at 7:30 sharp.

Remember the board of trade meeting to-night at the county judge's office. All members are urged to be present; also all merchants, as business of importance to the city will be brought before the board for consideration.

World's Fair Notes. The North Carolina legislature failed to make an appropriation for a world's fair exhibit. Whereupon the state board of agriculture announced that it would undertake to provide all necessary means and superintend the collection of an exhibit that will be creditable to the state. It is the intention to have the state building at the exposition a reproduction of the state capitol.

The exposition authorities have tendered to the shoe and leather manufacturers a site for their desired building in which to make a united exhibit of the leather industry. A site was selected twice before, but had to be withdrawn owing to changes in construction plans. The site now offered is near the lake here, not far from the dairy building. There is little doubt that the leather men will accept the site, and, if they do, they will put up a building 150x600 feet, costing $100,000.

A practical, working business college, which is purely an American institution, will be one of the exhibits at the fair.

New South Wales has asked for 300,000 square feet of space.

The watchmakers of Switzerland, at a recent convention in Berne, decided to make an exhibit at Chicago of their finest and costliest watches, but not to attempt any competition with American manufacturers in cheaper grades. They have applied to the Swiss council for financial and other aid to enable them to make a creditable exhibit.

In Colorado's exhibit will appear a very complete showing of the flora of the state. Miss Alida P. Lansing, who has been in charge of the matter, gathered more than 1,000 varieties last summer, including fifteen or more which had never been classified.

The social and oyster supper at E. R. Todd's last evening was a big success.

Judge S. M. Chapman returned from his trip to Chicago this morning.

John McCaig, one of Cass county's most prosperous farmers, is in the city to-day.

W. E. Brooks, of Omaha, representing the Union Life Insurance Co., is in the city to-day.

Chas. Wickersham left for Blair this morning to see his wife who is visiting there and was taken sick.

Superintendent G. W. Noble and wife are in the city to-day looking for a suitable house in which to move.

It is reported that a large sized fracas occurred at the Cottage house yesterday between the landlord and one of the boarders, in which the landlord came out best.

The case of Brantner vs. Hans Frahm is still pending in police court. Brantner and Frahm both appeared this morning and agreed to settle, Frahm paying the costs, but after he found what the costs were he refused to pay them.

A constable from Council Bluffs came down this morning and got a watch that a man had stolen and sold Frank Carruth & Son last December. The fellow also stole an overcoat. He was caught in Texas and is now in jail in Council Bluffs.

Hon. Joe Morse gave an entertaining lecture last evening at the opera house to a comparatively small audience. Mr. Morse is a pleasing and entertaining speaker and held his audience spellbound by his graphic description of battles. His description of the naval battle on Mobile Bay was immense. Also the battles of Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge and Chickamauga. The lecture was fine, and those who failed to hear it missed a great treat.

Take Notice.

There seems to be a prevailing opinion with the general public that the appropriation asked from the city by the Y. L. R. R. A. will, if received, be used for purchasing books. We desire to correct this. The appropriation was asked to enable us to establish a public reading room, and will only be used to pay the rent of a suitable room, procure the services of a librarian and defray the incidental expenses. Y. L. R. R. A. By Order of Committee.

La Grippe.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. This remedy also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years we have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

All persons indebted to the old firm of Weidmann & Brekenfeld are requested to call and settle immediately and avoid trouble.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.
