I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Hair. and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Hair seems to do even that.
Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.

MATRIMONIAL WAYS IN WYOMING.
How the Knot Was Tied by a Frontier Justice of the Peace.

Camping near a town in Wyoming we secured our stock and went in.
Entering the leading store of the town I introduced myself to Mr. Stiles one of the proprietors, and the Postmaster.
Stiles said: "It's now half-past 2 and at 3 there's a wedding at Jonas Burton's. Old Jonas is a rough old conthat we elected a Justice of the Peace about a month ago, and as this will be his first attempt at a marriage I think we will see some fun; come, go with me." We went into the old Squire's cabin and found him poring over a large volume of the Statutes of Wyoming, sweating like a horse and looking terribly anxious. After greeting us he said:
"Stiles, them galoots that got up these yer laws had'n't gumption enough to last 'em over night. I've run through the blamed books a half doz-times, an' can't find a word about matrimony or how the hitchin' process is preceded with. I've just got to put the clamps on this ere couple hit 'er miss, ef I don't yoke 'em up legal I can't help it."
Stiles explained to him about how to proceed, and the old man finally thought he could worry through in tolerable shape.
Ere long the couple appeared, followed by a crowd of citizens of the camp. The candidates stood before the Squire, who began:
"Feller-citizens, this yer man and this yer woman have appeared before the court to be hitched in the legal bands of wedlock! If any galoot in the mob knows of anything that might block the game if tuck to a higher court let him tot his bazoo or else keep his jaw to himself now and forever more. All in favor of my proceeding as authorized by law say 'I.'" Everybody said "I."
"Contrary, 'No."
"Nobody said 'No.'"
"The motion's carried unanimously, an' the court rules that there ain't nothing to prevent the tryin' of the case."
"Now," said the Squire, "grip your fins."
"The candidates joined hands."
"Amos Peabody, do you solemnly swaar that ye'll freeze to Mandy forever, and pervide for her, and treat her squar, and white, accordin' to the rules and regulations sot down to govern such cases in the laws of the United States, so help you God?"
"Yes sir, I do sir."
"That fixes your end of the bargain."
"Mandy Thomas, do you solemnly swaar that you'll hang on to Amos for all comin' time; that you'll nuss him in sickness, and be square to him in wellness; that ye'll always be to him a good, true, honest up and up wife, under the penalties prescribed by the laws for the punishment of such offences? Do you swar this, so help yer God?"
"I swaar I will."
"Then, by the power in me vested as Justice of the Peace in and for this precinct, I pronounce you, Amos Peabody, husband, and you, Mandy Thomas, wife, and legalize ye to remain sich now and forevermore; an' ye'll stand committed till the fees and costs in the case are paid in full, an' may God have mercy on your souls an' bless this union with his heftiest blessin's."
The fees and costs were adjusted, and the newly-made husband and wife, after receiving the congratulations of the assembly, departed for their cabin up the creek.

Queer Transpositions.
Ludicrous mistakes are often made by the transposition of words, syllables, or letters by speakers, and many a fine bit of oratory is utterly ruined by a mistake of this kind. How could the guests at the table be expected to "keep the faces straight" when an after-dinner speaker said, in his carefully prepared little speech: "Dickery is the humorist and Thackens is the satirist," and then, trying to correct the blunder, said: "Er—er—Thickery is the satirist and Dackens is the humorist." Or imagine, if one can, the feelings of the chagrined minister who said "not and jittle" in the pulpit, and in trying to correct himself said "it and jittle." Imagine, also, the feelings of those who did not dare "laugh in meetin'." And it is said that a Baltimore minister said most impressively: "He turned his eyeless sightballs up to heaven." No one could imagine what a certain speaker meant when he said "Biddy diddy," and then stopped, and after a moment of confusion said "Diddy biddy," and then, with scarlet face and coldly perspiring brow, gasped out, "Diddy biddy diddy doo." Then he had to sit down and rest awhile before he could say, "Did he bid adieu." "How is your wife today?" asked a lady of a gentleman she met on the horse-car. "She is some better, thank you." "And has her inflammatory torism left her yet?"
"Her inflammatory rheumatism has left her," replied the gentleman. "I would like some nins and peedles," said a lady at the small-wares counter of a Boston dry-goods store. "Beg pardon," said the clerk, "nins and peedles?" "Oh, pins and needles, I mean."—Wide Awake.

What a Baby Did in One Hour.
1. Yelled fifteen minutes without taking breath. (Uncle Will declares solemnly that this is a true statement.) 2. Pulled out enough hair from his uncle's head and whiskers to stuff a sack pillow.
3. Cracked the wall paper as high as he could reach with the poker.
4. Broke a stereoscope by sitting down on it.
5. Swallowed six buttons and a good part of a spoon of thread.
6. Emptied the contents of his mother's work basket down the furnace register.
7. Tried to squeeze the head of a cat into a tin cup and was scratched badly in the attempt.
8. Knocked the head off a fine wax doll belonging to his older sister by trying to drive a tack into a toy wagon with it.
9. Fell off the edge of the whatnot, and brought down with him two costly vases, which were ruined.
10. Broke two panes of window-glass with a cane which uncle let him have.
11. Fell into a coal hod and spoiled his new white dress.
12. Set fire to the carpet while uncle was out of the room hunting up something to amuse him.
13. Crawled under the bed and refused to come out unless uncle would give him the molasses jug.
14. Got twisted into the rungs of a chair, which had to be broken to get him out.
15. Poured a pitcher of water into his mother's best shoes.
16. Finally, when he saw his mother coming, he ran out to the porch and tumbled off the steps, making his nose bleed and tearing a hole a foot square in his dress.—St. Louis Republic.

Divorce in Kafirland.
The divorce contagion has reached Kafirland. Not long ago a chief invoked the assistance of the law to enable him to dispense with a wife on the following grounds of complaint:
"Wife talk too much with neighbors; too much paint face and eyebrows; too much snore in sleep; too much loss, and too much no good." And yet the Kafir cannot acquire the graces of civilization.

SLIGHTLY EMBARRASSING.
The Little Brother Gets in His Work Through a Speaking Tube.

They stood in the darkened vestibule of a double flat house up town. It was a late hour and a cold night, but these were nothing—for it was he and she, and they were young and stood very closely together. Time stood no show alongside of opportunity, remarks the N. Y. Herald.
"You don't love me a bit?" she said.
"Love you! I worship you, sweetheart—darling!" The blonde head was brought against the manly breast for the fifteenth time and a soft, clinging kiss was planted where it would do the most good.
"Break away," came hoarsely from amid the feminine debris.
"What did you say, dearest?"
"Come off!" in a half smothered whisper.
"Why, darling, I never heard you use slang before. Don't—"
"I never said a word," she declared.
"It must have been—" and a terrible dread overcame her.
"I never thought—" he began regretfully.
"You did—yes, you did!"
"Why, who's that?"
Both young people suddenly started away from the wall against which they had been leaning and stared at the two ranges of bright letter boxes and owl speaking tubes.
"Will you never come off down there?"
"Oh, plague on it! That's Johnny," said she with deep disgust. "Our speaking tube's out of order—I forgot."

Photography of Criminals' Hair.
Dr. Jeserich has been making a special study of the photography of the hair of criminals, and in the case of the recent arrest of a Bertensense accused of murder the doctor promptly satisfied the police that the prisoner was not the man by the comparison of two hair photographs. Dr. Jeserich's ink photographs are said now to be among the most valued instruments for the detection of forgeries. Clever as criminals are, science seems to keep pace with them.

A Fatal Mistake.
Physicians make no more fatal mistake than when they inform patients that nervous heart troubles come from the stomach, and are of little consequence. Dr. Franklin Miles, the noted Indiana specialist, has proven the contrary in his new book on "Heart Disease" which may be had free of F. G. Fricke & Co., who guarantee and recommend Dr.
Miles' unequalled new Heart Cure, which has the largest sale of any heart remedy in the world. It cures nervous and organic heart disease, short breath, fluttering, pain or tenderness in the side, arm or shoulder, irregular pulse, fainting, smothering, dropsy, etc. His Restorative Nervine cures headache, fits, etc.

It Should be in Every House.
J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharps-burg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe" when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good.
Robert Barber, of Cocksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it

A Mystery Explained.
The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced, usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak, nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at F. G. Fricke & Co's., who also sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics, cures

Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. L.
Miller of Valparaiso and J. D. Taulor, pounds if an taking it. Mrs. H. A.

much headach, dizziness, backach
