A movement to abolish the "annoying anachronism" of church bell ringing is talked of in San Francisco. The Report of that city contends that the theatres have as good a right to use steam whistles as the churches have to use bells, more especially as the theaters would not, in announcing their performances, awake people before daylight in the morning.

Dr. Leo Pribyl says that the Germans and Swedes are utilizing their peat bogs in the manufacture of napthia, tar, solar oil, parafline, acetic acid and gas, and the peat yields an elastic fiber which, freed from dust is employed for weaving into carpets. Good peat also furnishes a cellulose which is valuable to papermakers. Besides serving as a wholesome litter for live stock, it is also used to preserve perishable goods. Meat and fish are now packed in peat litter for transport between Trieste and Copenhagen.

The late Ebenezer F. Bowditch, of Boston, had a large farm at Framingham and on it was the largest flock of sheep in Massachusetts. He was conspicious as a breeder and importer of horses, sheep, cattle and swine, had hounds which he used in hunting and give you a lovely complexion. 1 made many experiments with fertilizers and other things in the general interests of agriculture. He was practical in his investigations, and used to put all his improvements upon their cash basis, showing what they would be worth to the farmer who must rely upon his farm for a living.

Anything to Beat Cora.

A young couple in the west end who have been keeping company two years, became engaged with the consent of all concerned and looked forward with the customary supreme bliss to the consummation of their betrothal. Suddenly the betrothed maiden changed her mind and told her lover she would not marry him. When he recovered his breath he begged for an explanation, but could get no other than that she had decided to marry somebody else. Sorrowfully he left her and in the solitude of his chamber put on his thinking-cap. The result was that the jilt received a formal note from him terical, nervous, very impulsive, untelling her that he would call on a certelling her that he would call on a cer-tain evening for her final answer.
