HAS HE SKIPPED?

C. M. Wickersham has as Yet Failed to put in an Appearance.

Three weeks ago today H. M. Gault took charge of the jewelry store run by C. M. Wickersham, in the name of his wife, S. L. Wickersham. Since then Mr. Wickersham said he was going to settle up and remove the stock to Blair. He left his wife a week ago last Friday to come here and settle up the business, but he failed to put in appearance, however, and last Monday morning a week ago today he arrived on the R. C. came up as far as Richey street and turned south going towards the shops. But nothing was seen of him during the day. That night he was seen going to his home, but since then he has failed to show up or even send a word to let his friends know his whereabouts. His wife telephoned from Blair last Tuesday but he could not be found. The door to his house was found open last Tuesday and the chief of police was notified and he went up to the house and found a basket of jewelry which he brought down town. While up there he found that two bedroom doors were locked and it was thought that he might be in one of the rooms. His brother-in-law, came down the next day and the doors were opened, but he was not found. At the request of his brother-in-law nothing was said in any of the city papers but THE HERALD has waited over a week for him to put in appearance and explain where he has been, as his wife does not know anything about where he is. THE HERALD like most of his friends believed last week that he would show up and make things all right, but we have now come to the conclusion that he has skipped. It is reported that he was keeping company with a young lady in Omaha. He drew the warrant from the county in pay for the court house clock and has failed as yet to pay for it.

Saturday there was a representative from an eastern jewelry firm here looking for him, claiming that they had let him have some jewelry and that he had sold it and was now in the house. A brother-in-law, says that he thinks he has committed suicide, but that is all bosh. Just imagine a man of C. M. Wickersham's disposition, with something over a $1,000 in his pocket, committing suicide.

THE HERALD has given Mr. Wickersham plenty of time to show up and make things right but does not think he has met with foul play. The only thing he has done is to skip the country, and he will not show up again very soon either.

Besides leaving several eastern firms "holding the bag," there are a number of merchants in Plattsmouth who have been deceived. If Mr. Wickersham had come around last week THE HERALD would have had nothing to say, but as it is it is only a painful duty we have to perform.

Mr. Gault has informed Mr. Wickersham's father-in-law that if matters are not settled by Wednesday, he will foreclose the mortgage on the stock.

BORN.—To Mr. Mrs. T. Kildow a son.

Farewell Party.
A farewell party was given Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson in honor of Mr. A. V. Burke, who will leave Plattsmouth for Illinois. A number of friends were invited and a very pleasant time had. Refreshments were served and the party departed at a late hour for their respective homes. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Will Schmidtman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Barker, Maggie and George Oliver, Nettie Moore, Frankie Siles, Nannie Moore, Mae Patterson, Mamie Stiles, Edith Patterson, Will Siadelaan, Ed. Schulhoff, Al Perrine, A. V. Burke, Chas. Sherman, Fred Overlander, and Print Latham.

Thursday occurred the arrest and preliminary trial of Peter Coon on the charge of permitting diseased hogs to run at large. Attorney Halderman appeared for the defendant and Wooley of Lincoln for A. E. Hess, the prosecuting witness. Evidence was produced that a number of Mr. Coon's swine had died and some were at large part of the time. The defense practically offered no rebuttal evidence, whereupon the justice placed Coon under bond to appear at the district court.

Call for Republican Primaries and City Convention.

The republican electors of Plattsmouth City are hereby called to meet in primary convention Saturday evening, March 12, 1892, from 7 o'clock till 8, for the purpose of selecting one candidate for councilman for each ward; and for the further purpose of selecting delegates to the city convention, which is hereby called to meet in the council chamber Saturday evening, March 13th, for the purpose of nominating a city ticket as follows: mayor, two members of the school board, police judge, city clerk and treasurer.

The representation for city convention is based on the vote cast for the Hon. A. G. Hastings for attorney general Nov. 1890, allowing one delegate for each ten votes and major fraction thereof, which entitles the several wards to representation as follows:

First ward, 10 delegates, to be held at Council chamber.

Second ward, 10 delegates, to be held at Second ward school house.

Third ward, 14 delegates, to be held at Richey's lumber office.

Fourth ward, 12 delegates, to be held at county clerk's office.

Fifth ward, 5 delegates, to be held at fifth ward school house.

No proxies admitted but delegates present will cast the full vote of their respective wards.

By order of the city central committee. A. N. SULLIVAN, Ch'm'n.

The Eva Vincent Co.

Felix and Eva Vincent will commence an engagement of six nights and one matinee at the opera house this evening in two plays. The two acts are by Tom Taylor, entitled "The Son and Son," and the one act operetta, "The Bonnie Fishwife." Prices of admission, gallery 20 cents, lower floor 30 cents, children 10 cents. In speaking of them the Sioux City Journal says: Eva Vincent and her company will grace the Academy of Music next week by a first class dramatic company playing at popular prices. We have heard good reports of the Vincent combination; not only at home here by people who have seen them, but our exchanges from the neighboring cities speak of them in the highest praise. They have lately finished an engagement at Waterloo, and in speaking of them the Courier says: "The Vincent combination opened a season of one week at the opera house and gave complete satisfaction. In fact judging by their appearance so far they are the best company playing to popular prices that has ever appeared in this city. They will appear nightly with change of bill for each performance, and they deserve crowded houses every night. Unlike too many of the popular priced shows, the people are not pelted up on the streets of Chicago and given an engagement to keep them from starving, but are each first class actors, and thorough ladies and gentlemen, and our people need not hesitate to patronize them. Lovers of fine dresses and diamonds should not fail to see them."

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to the many kind friends who responded so readily in our hour of need. Especially do we thank the Masons, both as a body and individually, and the members of the G. A. R. (Though in the loss of our father we have lost our best friend, still the many acts of sympathy and respect shown us and him by those other friends can never be forgotten.
