If the democracy will continue to hug Boies, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press, and the other delusion that they can carry Iowa in a presidential contest, republicans will encourage the foolishness up to election day.—Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

BONES recently found in New Zealand are estimated to represent 500 specimens of the moa. This immense wingless bird, now extinct, seems to have been hunted and eaten by the early inhabitants of New Zealand, and is believed to have stood at least ten feet high.

AND now comes a French officer with the startling report that he has invented a machine that will throw vitrol 200 feet in a steady stream, and an exchange says that it is almost equal to the mouth of an American politician, who can project campaign lye fully as far as that.

CONTRARY to democratic expectation and hope the supreme court has pronounced the McKinley bill constitutional. Equally to democratic disappointment and dismay the people will pronounce it a well devised plan to broaden and strengthen the system of protection to home industry.

JUDGE SAMUEL M. CHAPMAN of Plattsmouth is mentioned as a probable candidate for congress from the First district. The citizens of Cass and Otoe counties, regardless of political affiliations, will insist that he remain upon the bench, but in the event the republicans wisely choose him to enter the ring for congressional honors he will receive a warm endorsement at their hands.—Beatrice Republican.

MAGNESIUM LIGHTING.

A new magnesium lamp, devised by M. Dronier, burns without attention for regular periods of 24 hours. A pound of magnesium is consumed in about 100 hours, giving a light equal to that of 130 pounds of candles, 80 pounds of petroleum, or somewhat more than 100 cubic yards of gas. The advantage is offered of freedom from risk of fire. The present running expense of the lamp exceeds 30 cents an hour but with the anticipated great reduction in the cost of the metal, lightning by magnesium may be made fairly economical.

FOR years American pork and American beef have been under the ban of some of the principal governments of Europe. Under the pretense that our hogs and cattle are unhealthy, the importation of our pork was forbidden by Germany, Austria, France, and others of the most populous nations of Europe, and our export cattle were subjected to a quarantine and inspection system in Great Britain amounting almost to an exclusion.

No sooner was the present secretary of agriculture inducted into office than, with naked hands and farmer-like directness and energy, he grappled these barriers against trade in our farming products, and by a rigid domestic inspection disproved the false charges against our cattle and swine, with the result that nothing American now stands more proudly erect in Europe in the consciousness of unimpeached and unimpeachable character than the American hog and the American steer.

GIRLS WHO HAVE PUSH.

There is an interesting group of bright girls at the New England Conservatory, in Boston, who represent the quality of push characteristic of the American girl. There are thirty-five of these girls, and they are being vocally educated by the Ladies' Home Journal of Philadelphia. Some time ago this magazine offered, as a stimulant to girls to get subscriptions for it, free educations at the Conservatory.
The American girl is quick to see a chance, and one by one these thirty-five girls have come from all parts of the country to Boston. They receive the very best of the conservatory affords, the most desirable rooms in the building are theirs, and they have all their wants carefully looked after by a wealthy periodical. Perhaps in no other country on the face of the globe could such a thing be possible.
These girls, too, the reporter was told, belong to nice families, but they preferred to earn their own musical education rather than depend on the family purse. Of course, the particular girls are unknown to the scholars at large, and to all intents and purposes are paying their own way. And they certainly are. It is said that the magazine is educating a number of other girls at Wellesley, Smith and Vassar colleges.—Boston Journal.

The population of Plattsmouth Is about 10,000, and we would say at least neo-half are troubled with some affection on the throat and lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. Trial size free. Large Bottle 50c. and $1.
Sold by all druggists.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.
"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the leader, Mexico Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack, I am satisfied, would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being struck with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting down. 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

A Great Surprise
Is in store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute and chronic coughs.
All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam.
Large Bottles 50c and $1.

La Grippe.
No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quiet at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow.
This remedy also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years we have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G.
Fricke & Co.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that.
Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.— Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago Ill.

The Handsomest Lady in Plattsmouth Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit, any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50c and $1.

cated and perfumed. Removes reter and O. H. Snyder.

The Snow-House.

All yesterday it snowed and snowed,
And all last night, until the road Was whiter than the downy spread Upon my cozy trundle-bed.
And once, before the daylight broke, When from the lands of dreams I woke,
I heard the poor wind whine and moan Like Carlo when he's left alone.
Then high above the dizzy plain The red sun sprang, and shook his mane.
And every window seemed like cake The busy city bakers make.
So I got all my warm wraps out,
And buttoned tight my roundabout,
And found my shovel in the shed,
And shouted loud and long to Ned, Until he came with answering cries, All bundled to the very eyes.
Then down the orchard path we ran,
And Ned was rear and I was van.

Its whistle shrill the wind still blew, And oh, what drifts we floundered through!
The apples clinging to the bough Were like big bursting puff-balls now:
The brook was smothered; not a note Came surging from its merry throat, And only cheery cluckadees Sang welcome from the cherry-trees.
Beside the fence was piled the snow As high as pony's back, I know;
And there we cleared a space before A hungry drift, and made a door.
And halfway wide to light the gloom,
And then a great round sitting-room, Whose roof was set with shining things That looked as bright as mamma's rings.
We had to creep along the hall, But didn't have to here at all;
And snug within our house of snow We played that we were Esquimaux.
—Clinton Scollard, in Harper's Young People.

Joseph William Richards, the only author who has produced a standard work on aluminum, which he calls the metal of the future, is only 27 years old and was born in Birmingham.

Thomas Laws, the negro who bore the message from Miss Rebecca Wright to Gen. Sheridan which induced Sheridan to attack the rebels at Winchester, has been found. He lives in Philadelphia.

One of the best known English cyclists is Montague Holbein, who was born at Twickenham in 1861, and not long ago rode from Paris to Bordeaux, 360 miles, in 27 hours, 52 minutes and 15 seconds.

Cardinal Gibbons is a very regal and imposing man in his robes of state, but beneath them he wears a very kind and gentle manner. He is especially fond of children and likes to have them about him.

The late Miss Anna Wigglesworth, of Boston, it is said, gave away more money in charity every year than any other woman of that city, although there are many ladies there who are both rich and generous.

Count de la Miranda, husband of the famous prima donna Christine Nilsson, has been appointed Spanish Ambassador to Sweden and Norway, and will, of course, reside at Stockholm, the great singer's birthplace.

The newest remedy for seasickness is the homeopathic one of drinking sea-water, and in Jacksonville, Fla., a number of fat men are getting rid of superfluous avoirdupois by imbibing copious draughts of rainwater.

Mlle Bilescu, the young Roumanian recently admitted to practice law in France, is a tall, graceful and dark-haired girl of 23. She is the only child of a banker of Bucharest, and in that city she has hung out her shingle.

The French Academy's first prize for virtue, 2,500 francs, was awarded this year to Marie Sedier, of Bayonne, who has devoted herself to placing deserted children with peasants and artisans.
In seven years she has rescued twenty-seven.

The Marquis of Hartington, formerly an adherent of Mr. Gladstone, but since 1866 a Liberal Unionist, is said to have a remarkable faculty for slumber. Even while the stormiest scenes are being enacted in the House of Commons, he peacefully sleeps on his bench in a sitting posture.

William Hooper Hopes, who recently died in Wales, was a member of the remarkable class that entered the Boston Latin School in 1824. Among his classmates were John Lothrop Motley, Fletcher Webster, the son of Daniel Webster, Henry Sumner, Turner Sargent, Professor E. E. Salisbury, and Rev. George E. Ellis, of Boston.

Mlle. Elise St. Omer has begun a journey around the world in the interest of the Geographical Society of Paris. The journey is to last three years, and the traveler is to devote special attention to the lives and customs of women in the various countries which she visits. She will publish a book upon the subject after her return.

It is no secret that Patti has for a long time been engaged in writing a book about people she has met, and last summer she had at least one-third of it completed. She has refused an offer of $20,000 outright for it. Not even Patti knows when the work will be completed, for the great songstress does not write with facility, and she is penning every line herself.

M. H. Ekroll, a Norwegian, proposes to start from the northeast coast of Spitzbergen with a few men and a large number of dogs to draw peculiar little sledges of his invention. The distinctive feature about the conveyance is that they can be put together at a few minutes' notice to form a large boat. Rapidity of movement is what he aims at. Having attained Peter-mannsland, he expects to proceed directly to the Pole.

Samuel J. Kirkwood, "War Governor" of Iowa, afterward United States Senator, and the Secretary of the Interior for President Garfield, has completed his 78th year.

The most prolific German authoress, Amely Bolte, has just died at Wiesbaden, at the age of 80. She began as a governess in London and commenced to write in German in 1831.
