BUTLER, MORGAN AND BONS

Secure the Delegations—Two Tickets Were in the Field in Each Ward Last Night.

The democrats held their primaries last evening in the several wards in the city and elected delegates to the city convention and also nominated a councilman from each ward. The only spirited contest for the nomination for councilman was in the Third ward. L. G. Larson and William Holly were the candidates. Holly received the nomination, but in the other wards they were nominated by acclamation.

The biggest fight was on delegates to the city convention. The fight was centered on the treasurer-ship, the candidates being Frank Morgan, the present incumbent, and Henry R. Gering. The result was that Morgan received the delegations.

In this ward there were two candidates for the council. Wm. Holly received the nomination over L. G. Larsen.

Teachers Annual Institute
County Superintendent Noble has sent out the following letter calling notice to the teachers' annual institute to be held at Weeping Water from March 28th to April 8th.

WEeping WATER, Neb., March 14, 1892. Will you kindly give notice of the teachers' annual institute to be held in Weeping Water, March 28th to April 8. I have sent notices to the teachers but there are many who have not taught but will be interested to know the date. All persons who expect to teach should attend. Every effort will be made to have the instruction entertaining as well as helpful.

There will be no examinations during the institute. The two weeks will be entirely given to work of vital importance to teachers. This ought to be the best institute ever held in the county. It is time to give an impetus to the educational work of our county. In that important work every teacher should have a part. School officers are cordially invited to visit the institute. They ought to know who the best teachers of the county are, and there is no better way to find out. Hoping to welcome a very large number, especially of those who could not attend a mid-summer institute. Yours very truly,
G. W. NOBLE,
County Superintendent.

Sailed for Russia.
Nebraska's donation of food products to famine stricken Russians was heard from yesterday, the welcome intelligence having been flashed over the wires that the steamship had sailed for Europe.

Rev. Ludden of Lincoln had just forwarded a draft for $570, which was added to the cargo in the form of corn meal. He still has one car of corn on hand which he will turn over to the Clara Barton fund. The Nebraska donation amounts to over 1,500,000 pounds of corn meal. Governor Boyd yesterday received the following telegram from W. C. Edgar, appointed by the governors of Minnesota and Nebraska to accompany the cargo to Russia:

NEW YORK, March 15, 1892.—Hon. James E. Boyd, Governor of Nebraska: Steamship Missouri left for Russia at 1 o'clock to-day with full cargo, including Nebraska corn meal. I sail to-morrow on Teutonic.
W. C. EDGAR,
Commissioner.

Rev. Ludden received the following telegram:

NEW YORK, March 15, 1892.—Hon. Luther P. Ludden, Commissioner: Missouri sailed at 1 o'clock to-day; full cargo. I leave on Teutonic to-morrow.
W. C. EDGAR.

"Two Old Cronies."

When you visit the Grand this week go with your senses strained for a runaway pace. The "Two Old Cronies" and their company of chums are doing everything on a gallop, and if you happen to get lost in the swirl of their "musical farce-comedy extravaganza in three acts of high-class comedy and music," do not lay the blame to them. They are on a fast go from start to finish, and give a vivid idea of a band of hopefuls fleeing a jay town with only thirty seconds to catch the limited for the great and good city of Brooklyn. The jingle and drive and rapid everything is next to brain twisting.

But these lightning mirth-makers played to a house full of sharp wits last night, and the response to every "zip" of song, dance, joke and melody was surprising to only those on the stage. The result, therefore, was satisfactory all around.

"Two Old Cronies" has been touched up a bit, and any changes made were desirable improvements. Al Wilson and Edwin J. Heffernan are still droll, decidedly droll, and good leaders of a jolly company. While nothing that Ada Deaves did was rational, yet it was all very funny. It was designed to be unique, and Ada Deaves presents as odd a bit of character work of the extremely eccentric order as could well be conceived. Fannie Bloodgood is a wing dancer who dances well and turns a "cartwheel" to perfection. The three Don sisters are pretty, "full of laughter, full of yawns and full of fun." And they do the light fantastic after the skirt make and can kick just a little bit. Florence Myatt, Harry C. Dietz and Lindsay Morrison are the singers of the company, and all do well, while Fanny Osgood, Max Million and J. Henry Macke do their share in a creditable manner.

The singing and dancing were all up to the mark, and the fun on the line of furious.—New York Daily World.

A rare treat is in store for amusement lovers next Tuesday night, March 22.

The Assessors.

The assessors of Cass county held a meeting with County Clerk Frank Dickson yesterday afternoon and organized by electing John Hart, of Stove Creek precinct, chairman and P. E. Ruffner, of the Second ward, secretary. The scale of values adopted is as follows: Average horses, $75; cows, $15; mules and asses, $75; sheep, $25; and everything else at one-third its real value. The assessors could not agree on a basis to assess real estate and personal, and it was left with the assessors to use their own judgment.
