THE steamship Indiana, which sailed from Philadelphia on Washington's birthday with provisions for starving Russians, sailed into a Russian harbor Wednesday. The Indiana went in with the American flag flying, to be welcomed with salutes by Russian war vessels, by Russian bands playing "The Star Spangled Banner," and by crowds of enthusiastic people. This was a spectacle to stir the hearts of people the world over, and this free gift of generous Americans to needy Russians may become a landmark in a new order of national comity. The Missouri, with another ship load of provisions, will give impetus to the sentiment created in Russia by the arrival of the Indiana, and the United States will have achieved one of the great victories of peace.

TO STRIKE BACK AT CANADA.

It is undeniable that there is considerable provocation for the measure of retaliation against Canada which Senator Morgan of Alabama proposes. The senator has introduced a bill giving the president power, by proclamation, to suspend the operation of the laws which permit the transit, free of duty, of merchandise in bond to and from Canada over United States territory. This bill, if passed, would deal a severe blow to the Canadian Pacific railroad primarily, and ultimately it would seriously injure every interest in the Dominion. About four years ago the senator presented a measure of this sort, inspired, as it is now, by Canada's action in the Behring Sea matter, but it did not command the popular favor. At the present time, however, the bill is sure to receive stronger support from all parties than it did then.

It is tolerably well known to the United States by this time that Canada is the chief cause of the hitch in the peaceful and satisfactory disposition of the seal fishery question. Premier Salisbury's refusal to agree to an extension of the modus vivendi in the waters of Behring Sea is undoubtedly due to Canada's hostility to the scheme. All along the Canadians have been opposed to the joint protection to the seals which the United States and England afforded. Most of the poaching had been done by the Canadians, and they protested against the regulations which curtailed their liberties in this direction. The world is interested in the preservation of the seal life which the Dominion pirates would destroy utterly and permanently within the next two or three years were they permitted to gratify their greed in killing these animals indiscriminately and at wholesale.

Of course it is well known that the United States feels a warm interest in its northern neighbor. We are bound to her by intimate trade and social ties, which we are desirous of rendering closer and permanent. Her course in this matter, however, has been decidedly hostile to our interests, and indirectly to the interests of the rest of the world, from the start. The seal question would have been settled several years ago had she exhibited a fair amount of reason and decency. Two or three times the controversy between Great Britain and the United States seemed to be on the point of satisfactory adjustment when she stepped in and brought the negotiations to naught. The point in the affair has now been almost reached when further forbearance on our side will be neither dignified nor wise. It is true the retaliation which the Alabama senator proposes is somewhat drastic, but it is doubtful if any course less radical and heroic would bring the Dominion to a realizing sense of the proprieties of the situation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A FEW evenings ago the Journal published an article which reflected on the way Mr. Bird Critchfield kept the county clerk's office and stating that he had kept the office in a very loose manner, and intimating that the ballots of the last election had been tampered with. We have investigated the matter and have found that the county clerk's office and its records had been kept in a much better shape than any of his predecessors had ever kept them and that the ballots had been kept as safe as possible with the means the county provides, and if the ballots should be kept any different than they have been, it is the fault of the county and not of Mr. Critchfield. A safe was rented to keep the records of the clerk's office in, and they have also had to keep a part of the county judge's records in the office. As soon as it was known that there was to be a contest the ballots were taken out of the box where they had been put and were placed in the safe. If the ballots should have been kept any different than they were, it was the fault of the commissioners for not providing such a place.

THE HERALD reporter today interviewed Judge Ramsey in regard to the testimony introduced on the subject of the case of the ballots in the Salisbury-Dearing contest. Judge Ramsey states, substantially that while the testimony, to one unacquainted with the situation of the clerks office might lead to the belief that proper and legal care had not been taken of the ballots, yet it was very apparent that Mr. Critchfield and Mr. Dickson had used all facilities at their command to care for the ballots; that the envelopes containing the ballots from center precinct, as the same was brought into court was open and for that reason objectionable; that Mr. Dickson had testified that when this package was placed in the safe the seals were intact; and that when the vote of this precinct was counted and the tally the same as the official count, the idea of tampering with the ballots from this precinct was erroneous.

IF the strike of the miners in England continues much longer the United States will be shipping coal to that country in large quantities, which we can easily do as we have enough coal to supply half of Europe.

The population of Plattsmouth is about 10,000, and we would say at least neo-half are troubled with some affection on the throat and lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. Trial size free. Large bottle 50c. and $1. Sold by all druggists.

New Washington Fenn, People Are not slow about taking hold of a new thing, if the article has merit. A few months ago David Byers, of that place, bought his first stock of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has sold it all and ordered more. He says: "It has given the best of satisfaction. I have warranted every bottle and have not had one come back." 25 cent, 50 cent, and $1.00 bottles for sale by F. G. Gricke & Co., druggists.

A Russian's Prophecy of War.

A Russian veteran having been asked by an English tourist at Warsaw if he thought there would be war replied, "My dear sir, do you suppose that Grand Dukes Alexis and Vladimir have gone to France at this time of famine, when they can be so little spared, without a purpose? Do you suppose that M. de Bismarck went there for pleasure? Do you know, sir, that we have our entire available force in the vicinity of the German and Austrian frontiers? We have 333,000 men, including 92,000 cavalry, posted on our western frontiers. In St. Petersburg we have 50,000 men, in Moscow 50,000. The Caucasus and central Asia, including Siberia, have only 200,000 men between them. Besides, we have no recruits on our western frontier, only men who have served at least a year with the colors. Do you think that all these precautions have been taken for no purpose whatever? We have a strong fleet in the Black sea, and 100,000 men ready for embarkation the moment a favorable opportunity presents itself; and when we do declare war do not think we shall make it with rosewater. We have about half a million of Cossacks. These Cossacks we will let loose upon the Germans. They will burn and kill everything that comes in their way. The land that they will have passed over will be black and desolate. Not a tree, not a house will be left standing, not a blade of grass; not a child shall survive to tell the tale."

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the leader, Mexico Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack, I am satisfied, would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being struck with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting down. 59 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Rheumatism cured in a day.—"Mystic Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia radically in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

La Grippe.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. This remedy also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it during the epidemics of the past two years we have yet to learn of a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago Ill.

Some Foolish People allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.
