Supreme Court Decision.

The following cases from Cass county were handed down by the supreme court yesterday:

Rakes vs. Blazer. Appeal from Cass county, Affirmed. Opinion by Justice Norval.

Under section 329 of the code a person having a direct legal interest in the result of an action in which the adverse party is the representative of a deceased person is precluded from testifying to any transaction or conversation had with such deceased person, unless the evidence of the deceased has been taken and read on the trial by the adverse party in regard to such transaction or conversation, or unless such representative has introduced a witness who has testified in regard to such a transaction or conversation.

2. On the death of an intestate his heirs immediately ascend to his heirs, subject to the right of possession by the administrator pending administration and to his power to sell the real estate to pay the debts of the estate, in case the personal property is insufficient for that purpose.

3. Where, pending an action to set aside a deed to real estate and to quiet title, the plaintiff dies intestate, the action may be revived and continued in the names of the heirs at law of such deceased person.

4. The mode provided by title 13 of the civil code for reviving action by conditional action of revivor is not exclusive. Section 45 of the code confers authority upon the court to allow the action to be presented by or against the representatives or successors in interest of a deceased party. For this purpose supplemental pleadings may be filed, and summons served in the commencement of an action. Fox vs. Abbott, 12 Neb. 333; Carter vs. Jennings, 24 O. S. 182.

5. Held that the present case was properly revived in the names of the heirs of the deceased plaintiff.

6. Evidence held to sustain the findings and decree of the district court.

Musbaum & Co. vs. Solomon. Error from Cass county. Reversed and remanded. Opinion by Justice Norval.

During the pendency of the action in the district court all the pleadings were lost and have not since been found. The action was tried and a verdict returned in favor of the plaintiffs, in the absence of the defendants and their attorney, without the substitution of copies of the lost pleadings. Held, that the verdict be set aside and a new trial granted. Grimison vs. Russell, 11 Neb., 469.

Literary Note.

The late Prof. Edward A. Freeman, the eminent English historian, wrote for The Forum an autobiographical essay wherein he reviewed the growth of his own opinions on political and literary subjects. This contribution from his pen, which is not only one of the latest that he wrote but also one of the most interesting productions of his long active career, will be published in the April number of The Forum under the title of "A Review of My Opinions."

World's Fair Notes

Hayti has appropriated $25,000 for its representation at the exposition. Fred Douglass has been appointed commissioner to represent that country.

A heroic statue of Columbus, by Louis St. Gaudens, will stand before the main entrance of the administration building.

The "Independent New York Schuetzen," considered the elite corps of German-American sharpshooters, have decided to attend the exposition in a body. The organization has in its membership many prominent business men. It has made two or more shooting tours in Europe, on one of which it was entertained by Prince Bismarck.

M. Seranno, Mexico's special world's fair commissioner, who visited Chicago a short time ago and made a thorough inspection of exposition progress and affairs, has made to his government a report exceedingly favorable to the exposition. He advocates an elaborate participation by Mexico. President Diaz has expressed himself in favor of making a fine showing of Mexico's progress and advantages rather than of her relics and antiquities.

The total amount reported appropriated by foreign nations and colonies for their representation at the exposition, so far as heard from, is $3,951,053. Quite a number of those which have decided to participate have not yet made appropriations.

Jackson Park will retain as one of its permanent attractions the building which Japan will erect for its headquarters at the exposition. The building will be modeled after one of the most famous and architecturally unique of Japan's ancient temples, and with its surrounding garden will cost $70,000. About 40,000 square feet will be occupied. The South Park commissioners have accepted the offer of S. Tegima, representative of the Mikado, to give the structure to Chicago on condition that it be kept permanent and in repair, and that one room in it be devoted to a public exhibit of Japanese works of art, which the Japanese government agrees to replenish from time to time.

A cablegram states that Switzerland will not be officially represented at the exposition, but that the government will examine the representations of citizens desirous of exhibiting and will consider the question of granting a subsidy to enable them to do so.

In the Illinois state building a room 32x64 feet has been assigned to a kindergarten exhibit, which will be made chiefly under the direction of the women.

BRYON CLARK, Chairman.

A representative of the Seth Thomas Clock Company is in the city to-day making arrangements for some one to take charge of the clock and keep it in good running order. The gentleman says that the company has never received a cent from Wickersham and that they are going to look him up and bring him to time.

Some Foolish People allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

It is town talk that Brown & Barrett's is the only place to find a new and complete stock of wall paper.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seemed to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago Ill.

"Our Irish Visitors."

That the excellent quality of the entertainment furnished by Thomas E. Murray in "Our Irish Visitors" had not been forgotten by those who had witnessed the performance in the past was manifested yesterday at Havlin's pretty theatre. At the matinee the house was nearly filled in spite of the bright, warm weather, and for three hours the audience was kept busy laughing and applauding, for the fun was almost incessant.

"Our Irish Visitors"—a favorite for years—is a lively comedy, superior to the present day farce-comedy, and is not a variety show in disguise. There is a plot, slender to be sure, and it is not lost sight of all through the play. The dialogue is bright and brisk. The troubles of Gilhooley and Alderman McGuinness occur naturally and are extremely funny. There are a number of specialties introduced that are pleasing in their way.

Mr. Murray, in his original creation of Colonel Gilhooley, the bogus lord, has lost none of his powers of making people laugh. His actions are awkward and funny; his brogue, of a quiet sort, is unapproachable and peculiarly his own, while that inimitable laugh or gurgle would move a stoic. Frank Davis, as Alderman McGuinness, makes an excellent foil for Murray, and both work together capably. Katie Rooney, "Pat's" talented daughter, was pert, pretty and piquant in the role of Dorothy, and her songs, dances and imitations were favorably received. William O. Petrie, in a dual role, was tall, limber and amusing, and used his legs in a most reckless manner.—Chicago Globe.
