"Our Irish Visitors."

"Our Irish Visitors," with Thomas E. Murray as the star, comes to the Waterman in many ways improved and strengthened. Frank Davis, who has taken the place of Mark Murphy, is a clever fun-maker, and an able second to Murray. The specialty people are about the best in the business. Katie Rooney, the bright young daughter of the famous "Pat," heads the list, and made a big hit in her songs and dances. Hattie Deloro Barnes, Maggie Elise, Helena Coe, Will Petrie, and Edward Sanford all have something interesting to do. "Our Irish Visitors" is a rollicking farce-comedy of much more merit than many more pretentious pieces, and a large audience should greet them at the Waterman to-morrow night.

One of the most enjoyable social gatherings of the season took place at the residence of B. O. Marquardt, at Avoca Saturday evening, in honor of the graduation and return home of their popular and highly esteemed townsman, J. F. Brendel M. D., who has been attending the Physio-Medical college of Indiana, at Indianapolis, and graduated March 16, '92, with high honors. At 8 o'clock about seventy-five of his friends gathered at the above named residence, and the doctor was sent for post-haste and on entering the gate was greeted with a serenade by the Avoca band. He tried to look as if he was not at all surprised but made a signal failure of it and on entering the parlor was further surprised by the greeting and congratulations of his many friends. After quiet had been restored, Mr. C. A. Kaufman in a neat little speech, presented him with a beautiful and comfortable rocker, a present from the merchants of Avoca. The evening was spent in cards and other games and at about 11 o'clock refreshments were served which would have done honor to Delmonico's, after which the guests departed with highly flattering expressions of their evening's enjoyment. —Weeping Water Republican.

World's Fair Notes.

Austria will make a fine exhibit of glass, porcelain, bronze, leather, artistic iron and cabinet work.

The Bethlehem Iron Company, of South Bethlehem, Pa., will make an extensive exhibit, including steel rails, a battle-ship shafting 125 feet in length, guns, projectiles, an armor-plate ingot weighing 100 tons, and various naval appliances. The company will also erect a full-size model of its famous 125-ton steam hammer, said to be the largest in the world. It will be to all appearances a perfect duplicate in every respect. It will span the main avenue of Machinery Hall, and will rise to height of ninety feet. At the last Paris exhibition great attention was attracted by a similar model shown by the Creusot works, but representing only a 100-ton hammer.

E. Seyderheim, horticulturist to the emperor of Austria, has written from Buda-Pesth that he will contribute to the Exposition's floral display a collection of the rarest roses, embracing 200 standard, 200 half-standard tree roses and 400 rose bushes.

Mrs. Frana Wait, one of the lady managers of California, has offered to finish in redwood one of the large reception rooms in the Woman's Building.

The French government, through the efforts of Minister Whitelaw Reid, has agreed to permit the Exposition authorities to send into France, free of duty, electrotypes of buildings and other Exposition matter intended for use in French papers, to stimulate interest in the Fair.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago Ill.

Explosive Power of Benzine.

An explosion of benzine vapor at the Baldwin Locomotive Works, February 16, killed two men and seriously injured a third. The dome of a boiler had been removed, and just before the noon hour the men applied a considerable quantity of benzine to bolt and rivet heads inside the boiler to soften the rust and scale. On resuming work one of the men got inside the boiler, and a boiler maker's lamp was lowered to him. A considerable quantity of benzine vapor had probably accumulated in the boiler and mixed with air, for an explosion took place, and the body of the man inside the boiler was fired like a projectile straight upward through the dome opening and lodged in the roof trusses overhead. The overhead electric crane had to be run underneath in order to reach him. Notwithstanding severe burns and other injuries, he lived after the accident for several hours. The workman who lowered the lamp into the boiler, and who was standing directly over the dome opening, is supposed to have been struck by the body of the man inside. He was also blown upward, struck one of the roof braces, and fell on a pile of iron plates. He died in a few minutes. The third workman was standing on top of the boiler between the cab and the dome. He was thrown to the ground and badly burned and bruised.—Ex.
