PATRICK EGAN has been granted leave of absence. He will leave the embassy at Santiago in charge of a consul.

EVERYBODY in the world except the democratic party and Great Britain believe in protection.—Thomas B. Reed.

THE Hub of Kearney now issues a semi-weekly instead of a weekly as heretofore, which gives evidence of prosperity in that live town.

A SCHOOL teacher in the East End, London, says: "I have an average of 1,700 children in the school room, and 700 come without having any breakfast and with small prospect of any dinner or tea, either." The poor of America know of no such want as that.

TRUTH is not forever on the scaffold and Wrong is not forever on the throne. The democrats could successfully lie about the McKinley bill only during one political campaign. It will never rebound to their political advantage again. The truth of the McKinley bill has already pulled Wrong from its throne and smashed it one full and fair in the face.—Fremont Tribune.

THE HERALD is pleased to notice that red is again becoming fashionable. It is pleased because red is a beautiful and attractive color and because Col. Milton D. Polk, of the News, purchased a necktie of that hue two weeks ago and will therefore be thoroughly fashionable and en regle through the coming season. For a few days it seemed as though red would be dropped by the elite, and the grief and anguish of the colonel were fearful to behold.

THE president's backbone in the matter of the Behring sea controversy stood the country well in hand, and the British government had to change its tone and concede that it was mistaken. Nevertheless the British press is taking it out in abusing the president. They call his policy an electioneering dodge and make out to their own satisfaction that he would never trouble himself about those seals if a presidential contest was not close at hand. But that is immaterial. Johnny Bull over the water may say what he likes so long as he does what we tell him.—Lincoln Journal.

THE Methodist conference in New York last week again voted against the admission of women delegates to the general conference. The votes stood 168 opposed to 69 in favor of the new departure. The New York conference stands just where it did a year ago in relation to this question. The promise is for a very likely convention at Omaha when the general conference meets in May, with the east and the west arrayed against each other regarding the right of women to occupy seats as delegates in that body.—Inter Ocean.

FERNANDEZ Y GONZALEZ, the Spanish novelist, who is said to have ranked in his own country as the elder Dumas did in France, made nearly half a million dollars by his writings, and yet died practically penniless, and now his widow has ended her days in a Madrid hospital, being buried in a pauper's grave. The incident recalls to notice Gonzales himself and his method of work. Says the Pall Mall Gazette: "About twenty years ago, when he was at the zenith of his fame, he was under contract to a Madrid publisher, who paid him £15 a day for anything he might write in the way of stories of military life. At six p. m.

he invariably turned into the publisher's sanctum, promising to provide a certain amount of 'copy' by six o'clock the next morning."

FREE TRADE LABORERS.

Edifying reading, these extracts from a London paper's reports of the proceedings of the labor commission now sitting in that city:

"The first witness called was Mr. E. Gately, general secretary of the Upper Mersey Watermen's & Porters' association, who said that his society was established in 1889 and contained about 1,035 members. The weekly wages paid to the men was eleven shillings ($2.68) and sixteen shillings ($3.89) in some districts, and the captain was paid five shillings more weekly wage than the men. The hours of work on an average for the year round were 160 hours per week. The men asked some time ago for a six hours' rest after twenty-four hours' work, but the masters could not see their way to concede that. The nature of the work was very dangerous, and they had to work in all kinds of weather.

"Mr. J. Billam said that sometimes the women had to handle pig iron of half a hundredweight.

"Mr. W. Turner said that on one class of boats—the steamers and ply boats—the hours worked were 120 per week. That was the number of hours actually worked in loading, manning and discharging the boats. The wages for mates was 3 pence an hour, and for captains 3 1/4 pence. The best paid men were those on the trip boats, who got 3 1/2 pence an hour. With regard to the conditions of female labor, women had often to clamber up the lock gates from the boat down below, in order to close the gate and raise the lock again, and he had seen a woman with a child at her breast thrown into the canal by the force of the tiller.—American Economist.

THE CARD TO PLAY.

A "tip" to the Cleveland democrat in New York: Back up Dr. Parkhurst with brains and money (he needs both) in his crusade against the Sunday saloons. If he can shut the saloons the saloonkeepers will stop paying blackmail to Tammy. Without blackmail Tammy must languish and cease to be the "controlling voice" in the democratic party. Then what would become of the Hill boom? Choked to death for want of Sunday licker. A sight for gods and men!—Chicago Post.

You? You? Yes, you. We want you to come up and have your eyes tested by Mr. H. P. Spencer of Detroit, Michigan, who will be with us next Wednesday and Thursday, April 6 and 7. He is one of America's best opticians. It will cost you nothing. Come, one and all. Yours, GERING & Co.

The wisdom of him who journeyeth is known by the line he selects; the judgment of the man who takes the "Burlington Route" to the cities of the east, the south, and the west, is never impeached. The inference is plain. Magnificent Pullman sleepers, elegant reclining chair cars and world-famous dining cars on all through trains. For information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha.

IF YOU WANT to see the largest stock of Wallpaper in Plattsmouth, call at Snyder's store. Most and prettiest designs.

According to the census of 1890, Chicago takes rank, by virtue of her population of 1,098,576 people, as the eighth largest city on the globe. Most of us desire, at one time or another, to visit a city in which so many persons find homes, and when we do, we can find no better line than the "Burlington Route." Three fast and comfortable trains daily. For further information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Nebraska.

Rail-Road Pain Cure has no equal as a Pain Killer. Use for all bodily pains and soreness. Guaranteed by Brown & Barrett and O. H. Snyder.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Railroad Cough Cure is the true Antidote for Throat and Lung Troubles. Fully warranted at Brown & Barrett's and O. H. Snyder's.

Ex-Governor Furnas writes: Send me one dozen Rail Road Pain Cure with bill. It cures more aching ills than any other preparation I have used or known. 25c and 50c at O. H. Snyder and Brown & Barrett.

Beware of the doctors and undertakers; "they want you." Spring time is here and with it a Contaminated Blood, Torpid Liver, Kidney Complainants and Indigestion Take "Rafrena for the Blood" and stimulate the organs to force the foul secretions from your system. $1 at Brown & Barrett and O. H. Snyder. Rail-Road Pain Cure never fails.

Do not miss the opportunity of your life, but come to our store Wednesday of Thursday and have your eyes tested for glasses free of cost, by America's great optician, H. P. Spencer, at Gering & Co.
