ME'LEAGUE FALLS DOWN,

No One Wanted to Put Up the Cash and Manager Houseworth Releases His Men Notwithstanding the fact that Lincoln parties were the first to set on foot the movement for the organization of the state league of base ball teams and had to all appearances carried the movement to a successful issue, it has been known for the past ten days that breakers were in sight. Manager Houseupon T. J. Hickey, president of the garden and came to this city league, at whose solicitation he abroad is Fowler. Smith, Hillis and Herald. Castone are local men.

This will be stunning news to the teams in the other five towns, as some of them have incurred couin, the league will be disrupted.

There will be an opportunity af-Journal.

There is no danger but what the state league will be a go, as either Norfolk or Kearney are only too willing to be represented in the state league and at short notice will step into Lincoln's place.

Birthday Remembrance. Last evenining at 5 o'clock when Miss Hattie Brown returned home from a practice of the participants in the High School entertainment, she found that a number of her young friends had preceded her, and she was accordingly much sur prised to find the house filled with the cheerful youths and lasses, bent upon having a good time. The occasion was the celebration of the twelfth birthday of Miss Hattie. A very pleasant time was had until dark when the party broke up for another rehearsal.

RUSTLERS ARE ON TOP.

Four Stockmen Wounded in a Fight and the Sheriff and his Posse Repulsed. GILLETTE, Wyo., April 12.-The fight between the rustlers and stockmen is waging desperately. The ranch of Nate Champion, the chief of the rustlers, was surrounded and over 200 shots were fired into the building. Champion was killeds Nick Ray was the Champion at the time. The house was soon fired and Ray was burned to death. Champion is reported to have left the house and to have died in the open. The rustlers have got a large number of cattlemen corralled at the T. A. ranch, ten miles from Buffalo. Four stockmen were wounded in the fight and taken to Buffalo. A mounted messenger arrived at the rustlers camp in great haste Monday, with important news.

The report of the killing of Nat Champion and Nick Ray on Pow der river is confirmed by a stage driver reaching here this morning. He reports that Red Argus, sheriff of Johnson county, went to Powder river Saturday with a posse of twen ty men and reported upon his return to Bufialo the following details of the killing of Champion and Champion's cabin was surrounded by the stockmen and his surrender demanded. He refused to come out, and shooting then commenced. When Champion and Ray exhausted their ammunition Champion made a rush from the cabin, but when 300 yards away was shot and killed, his body being riddled with bullets. Ray remained in the cabin. The attacking party placed hay against it and fired the place. Ray's body, burned to a crisp, was found on the floor of the partially destroyed building.
