THE PENSION INVESTIGATION.

The testimony in the Raum investigation presents some curious and suggestive facts as to the manner in which the business of the pension office is conducted. Generally speaking, the claims seem to be adjusted as carefully and expeditiously as the circumstances will permit; but there is a great deal of delay, nevertheless, and many devices are resorted to by interested parties for the purpose of hastening the proceedings. Every congressman has hundreds of such claims to look after for his constituents, and millions of dollars are annually paid to attorneys for like services. It seems to be practically impossible to get a claim passed upon in a reasonable time unless it is urged by some outside influence. This does not necessarily imply that there is intentional discrimination in favor of any particular class of claimants, but it does signify that discrimination ensues by reason of such pressure. A skillful attorney or a zealous congressman can cause final action to be taken in many cases before other cases of equal merit have passed the preliminary stages. It is a matter of tact and perseverance. The officials of the pension office are not consciously partial, perhaps, but partiality is shown all the same, and it affords cause of criticism and complaint.

There should be a system of adjusting pension claims under which even the appearance of favoritism would be impossible. The present force of the pension office is not large enough to insure rapid investigation and settlement, but it can be increased. Such claims are of a peculiarly sacred and urgent character. The claimants are poor for the most part, and they need the money to meet ordinary living expenses. In a majority of the cases the facts are not at all doubtful or complicated. They can be adjusted without the interposition of attorneys, and it is wrong to require the veterans pay for legal aid in the matter. The government should bear all the cost of preparing evidence and putting claims in shape to be definitely passed upon. It is due to the pensioners that they be not compelled to discount their pension in order to secure the money as soon as it should be given them. One of the grave faults of the present system is that the most deserving applicants are often neglected because they are the least able to employ outside help. The business ought to be so transacted that all claims shall stand upon an equal footing, and be disposed of in regular order. It is clear that more or less distinction is now made, and there is no good reason why it should be continued. If the existing methods are not equal to the work of correction, then new ones should be adopted, and congress should authorize such additional expenditure as may be necessary for the purpose.—Globe Democrat.

TARIFF PICTURES.

Here is a result of republican reciprocity which free trade papers will carefully abstain from discussing. The imports of American flour into Havana for the months of January and February, 1891, were 5,758 sacks.

For the same months in 1892 they were 83,643 sacks.

The McKinley law is the best tariff measure the American farmer ever had.—New York Press.

DEMOCRATIC HARMONY EVER PREVAILS IN ILLINOIS. It was so strong in Stevenson county that the police had to be called in so that business could be transacted and two sets of delegates were chosen.

In the latter part of 1893, when the war vessels now in course of construction are completed, the United States will stand seventh in the list of naval powers according to the estimate of the House Naval Committee. Great Britain, France, Italy, Russia, Germany and Spain, in this order, will be ahead of us at that time, and only these. Half a dozen other nations as well as these are ahead of us now, as seen by the committee's figures. We must not remain behind Germany and Spain, however. Nor should we allow Italy to lead us. We have greater resources and a far longer coast line than any of these three nations, and we need a stronger navy.

SECRETARY ELKINS has accepted the invitation to deliver the address at the annual Grant banquet in New York, April 27. The present secretary of war was one of General Grant's most intimate friends in the later years of his life, and it was upon the judgment of Secretary Elkins Grant relied when overtaken by financial disaster. Elkins assured the old commander that his integrity could not be impeached, and was a great comfort to him. It is very appropriate that Secretary Elkins should deliver the address in New York when they propose to begin the building of the monument to Grant's memory.

MR. BRYAN is helping harmony along in the democratic ranks by coming out strong for free silver at their state convention last evening. All yesterday afternoon and last night until midnight the democrats fought over the double delegation and then adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning without settlement, and Congressman Bryan promises to make it more lively on free silver as soon as the convention gets into working order, so we can safely say they won't get through till tonight.

THE Great Northern is rapidly pushing its way to the Pacific. The Kalispel (Montana) Graphic says: "The track layers are working 100 miles west, and are expected to meet the force working eastward from Spokane by May 20. Trains will run through from St. Paul to the Pacific by June."

"I HAVE frequent misgivings as to the wisdom of again putting me in nomination," is what Grover Cleveland wrote to a friend on the day after the Rhode Island election. Democratic booms are having a hard time of it this year.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's cough remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs; colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. 50 cents bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke.

Beware of the doctors and undertakers; "they want you." Spring time is here and with it a Contaminated Blood, Torpid Liver, Kidney Complaints and Indigestion Take "Rahena for the Blood" and stimulate the organs to force the foul secretions from your system. $1 at Brown & Barrett and O. H. Snyder Rail-Road Pain Cure never fails.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago Ill.

Rena for the Complexion" removes Pimples, Blackheads, and all Facial Blemishes. Warranted by Brown & Barrett and O. H. Snyder.

The wisdom of him who journeyeth is known by the line he selects; the judgment of the man who takes the "Burlington Route" to the cities of the east, the south, and the west, is never impeached. The inference is plain. Magnificent Pullman sleepers, elegant reclining chair cars and world-famous dining cars on all through trains. For information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha.

Rail-Road Pain Cure has no equal as a Pain Killer. Use for all bodily pains and soreness. Guaranteed by Brown & Barrett and O. H. Snyder.

The W. C. T. U. concert, which was to take place in the M. E. church tomorrow evening, has been postponed till April 22.

According to the census of 1890, Chicago takes rank, by virtue of her population of 1,068,576 people, as the eighth largest city on the globe. Most of us desire, at one time or another, to visit a city in which so many persons find homes, and when we do, we can find no better line than the "Burlington Route." Three fast and comfortable trains daily. For further information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Nebraska.

Itch on human and horses animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's sanitary lotion. This never fails. Sold F. G. Fricke & Co. druggist, Plattsmouth.

Some Foolish People allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

New Washington Penn. People are not slow about taking hold of a new thing, if the article has merit. A few months ago David Byers, of that place, bought his first stock of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has sold it all and ordered more. He says: "It has given the best of satisfaction. I have warranted every bottle and have not had one come back." 25 cent, 50 cent, and $1.00 bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.
