

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Of G. Longenhangen and Wife Celebrated Last Night.

EX-SENATOR POLK IN TROUBLE.

J. F. Polk Loses $18,640 Through Too Much Confidence in an Ungrateful Son--A Gold Crusade Reaches Plattsmouth--Notes.

Twenty-fifth Anniversary.
Last evening was the twenty-fifth or silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. Longenhangen, and although it rained all day yesterday and turned to snow last evening, which made it very disagreeable to be out, about one hundred guests responded to the invitations and assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Longenhangen on North Sixth street, where everything had been made ready for their entertainment. Flowers in bloom were placed around in the different rooms, which gave them a very cheerful appearance and made one forget all about the storm outside. The evening was passed away by social chat and card playing, while vocal and instrumental music was indulged in by some one nearly all the evening.

At 10:30 o'clock dinner was announced and the guests went up stairs, where the tables were loaded down with vegetables, meats, cakes and fruits of all kinds, prepared in every conceivable style to please the palate or cravings of the inner man.

They received a beautiful silver tea set of the very latest design, which consisted of a tea pot, sugar bowl, cream pitcher, spoon holder and butter dish and knife, which were donated by the following persons: Messrs. and Mesdames William Ballance, Wash Smith, D. B.
Ebersole, F. H. Steimker, L. C. Stiles, Levi Golding, A. Adams, — Hutchinson, A. H. Dray, I. Pearlman, J. P.
Young, J. C. Petersen, William Herold, P. J. Hansen, Henry Weck-bach, H. T. Davis, C. Ayre, R. Mole, R. Green, E. S. Greusel, J. V. Eggenberger, O. Herold, I. Adams, A.
Adams; Messrs. Henry Herold, Dr.
Dan Golding, P. J. Hansen, Jr., Dr.
Shipman and Mesdames Blake and Shagle.

A beautiful water set was given them by Mr. and Mrs. Reuther, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Messersmith, Mr. and Mrs. Lindman, Mr. and Mrs. Geiser, Mr. and Mrs. Howland, Mr. and Mrs.
Schaldice, Mr. and Mrs. Slicker, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Knotts, Mr. and Mrs.
J. I. Unruh, B. A. McElwain, Mrs.
McElwain, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Len-nard, Mr. and Mrs. F. Latham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter White, Mr. and Mrs.
T. L. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. F.
Grove, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Curtise, Mrs. Rockwood, Mrs. Isham, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Polk, Dr. and Mrs. A.
Salisbury and Sig Polk.

Mr. and Mrs. Grassmick, of Enterprise, Kansas, sent sugar spoon and case; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Finy a set of tea and table spoons; Mr. and Mrs. Escher, a pickle caster; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McVey, a pair of napkin rings; Mr. and Mrs. John Waterman and Mrs. Ida Wagner, a beautiful silver card receiver; Mr. and Mrs.
W. M'Kerman, of McCook, Neb., a silver spoon; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herrmann, a set of knives; Mr. and Mrs.
Lehnoff, a celluloid slipper case with the words, "Golden Slippers," on it; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jones, a salid dish. A beautiful silver carbon lamp was given Mr. Logenhangen by his old comrades, Geo Niles, A. C.
Fry, H. J. Streight, T. Leech, M. A.
Dixon, J. W. Johnson and R. W.
Hyers and their wives. There were two or three other presents but we failed to get the names of the donors. There were a large number of regrets received from those who were unable to attend. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Fry, of Omaha, were there from abroad.

An Important Case.
The case of M. O'Donohoe vs. M.
D. Polk, et al., tried in the district court yesterday furnishes a remarkable instance of misplaced confidence and wholesale robbery of a father by a trusted son.

The case occupied a great portion of the day and consisted mainly in the evidence of Mr. John F. Polk relative to his dealings with his son, Milton D., editor of the Evening News, showing that he had let Milton D. have $18,640. It appears that M. O'Donohoe brings the case to set aside certain deeds executed by Milton D. Polk to his father, John F., and by John F. to one Leason, a brother-in-law in Indiana. The action is in the nature of a creditor's bill—O'Donohoe having a judgment against M. D. Polk for some $500, and claiming that the transfers of certain real estate from son to father and from father to brother-in-law, was made for the purpose of preventing the creditors of M. D.

Polk from realizing on their claims against the said M. D. Polk. The evidence of John F. Polk was remarkable in that it went to show that he had trusted his son with various sums of money since the year 1884, always to realize that he had been victimized and deceived; that money he had intrusted him with had been misappropriated and lost; that he had paid notes which had appeared against him that he had never executed and that every trust reposed in his son had been abused and betrayed, so that finally he had taken a conveyance of the property in controversy which was heavily incumbered, as the only resort he had to recover any of his lost funds and it is this property the creditors now seek to uncover and appropriate to their own use.

As a sensational and remarkable suit the records of our Cass county court fails to show its equal. The universal expression of spectators and lawyers was that of sympathy for the old father and condemnation for the unworthy son.

Gold Found in Livingston Heights.
For the past week a number of miners have been around town.
They have kept very quiet; nothing could be gotten out of them, but a rumor was put afloat the other day that they were prospecting for coal in Livingston Heights, but as signs of digging for coal could not be seen anywhere and the miners kept so close-mouthed, it raised a suspicion in the minds of some of our visionary citizens, who got up early this morning and watched the supposed coal diggers. They were seen making their way up the railroad track till they came to Livingston Heights, where they began to examine the numerous springs along the foot of the bluffs. The citizens came up and asked what they had found and were told "Gold." The miners said that there was gold in the hills and that the water washed it out at the springs and that 500 miners from California would be here soon to dig into the hills, beginning at one of the springs, and that they expected to find gold in large quantities. This was given to a reporter of THE HERALD as a fact, but it is a fake.
So pay your money and take your choice.

Base Ball Notes.
Kennedy, Plattsmouth's third baseman, arrived in the city last night.

Manager Patterson has made arrangements for an exhibition game with the Hayden Bros.' team next week.

Most of the players are expected to report for duty to-morrow, except Maupin and Johnson, who will be on hand Monday.

Manager Gatewood of the Beatrice team gets his men up at 7 o'clock and they walk from five to eight miles and then take a half hour's practice with the Indian clubs.

Lincoln will be represented in the league this summer. During yesterday afternoon a meeting was held between Manager Houseworth of the Lincoln team and President Hickey of the state league which resulted later in the afternoon by Mr.
Hickey presenting Manager House-worth a slip of paper upon which were inscribed the names of the Lincoln Street Railway Co. And the Lincoln Park Co. for $100 each, and Mr. Hickey for $25. Mr. Hickey has consented to assist in soliciting subscriptions. Once more the base ball cranks are jubilant.

Go to Joseph Fetzer's for men's and boys' shoes; he keeps the best stock that can be had.

OUR BOLD BILLY BRYAN

Stirs Up the Unwashed at the State Convention.

FREE SILVER IN THE SPANISH

And the One Price Clothier in Cass County Will Carry the Spanish Int the One Price Clothier in Cass County.

The democratic national convention met yesterday evening to propose of electing a slate of delegates to the national convention, and journed a little time ago, publishing another turboing speech was the Boyd-Martin fight, and Billy Bryan made his appearance and commenced to argue at the first plank in the platform, which stirred up a worse fight than the Boyd-Martin case ever thought of being.

It was reported that Billy had his war paint on and was going to stand or fall in the convention as an advocate of a free silver plank.
Cool headed men like Sawyer and Watkins and Harwood realized what a firebrand the young man would be in the meeting with his limitless tongue swinging for ever, and did their best to attract his attention to something else. But the news that Bryan was to lead the silver forces spread through the crowds like wildfire and every slumbering advocate of the white metal awoke with a start and began claiming that the free silver forces were certain to capture the universe. There were so many of them, too, that the hard money men saw that they had a tremendous job on their hands if the question ever came up and so they started out to club the new cause of turmoil into subjection. The more they clubbed the more pronounced was the desire of the free silver crowd to force the issue, and the contest which waged all the afternoon was something bewildering to behold.

So hot did the skirmish become that the opposing Douglas county delegations received comparatively little attention and suggestions that the row could be speedily terminated were heard on all sides. It was realized that a contesting delegation would not be a marker to a silver fight as a party disorganizer and so everybody braced himself for the shock that it seemed certain would be given by the introduction of the money question into the convention.

The Lancaster delegation spent several bad quarter hours in parlor 2 of the Paxton this afternoon. Silver was the great bone of contention, and many earnest speeches floated through the key hole for the edification of the knot of interested listeners on the outside. The delegation seemed bound to sit down on Mr. Bryan and sit down on him hard, but he held his ground valiantly. He was for free silver and didn't care who knew it, and said that he would take the question in to the convention regardless of consequences or expense. At 6 o'clock the watchers retired from the door.
Mr. Sawyer still held the floor, talking hard money for the obstinate and utterly unreasonable majority.

When the delegation finally emerged it was to announce that Sawyer was named for member of the committee on resolutions, receiving eleven votes against seven for Bryan. Bryan was bound by the unit rule, but declared that it would not prevent him from talking for free coinage in the convention.

CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT.

The Bond-holders Have Taken Charge of the Plattsmouth Water Works.

The bond-holders of the Plattsmouth Water company have taken possession of the plant in this city.

The old management had not been running things to suit the bondholders and they patiently waited until the law would allow them to take possession, which they done yesterday.

The plant will be run in the old name—the only change is the old stockholders drop out and the bondholders will now be the stockholders.

In conversation with Mr. Cobb, that gentleman stated that the stand pipe would be painted and that the concrete around the bottom of the stand pipe would be repaired also.
Mr. Cobb also stated that Superintendent Coursey would be retained to look after the interests of the company; he also complimented Mr. Coursey on the management of the plant.

Taxes had not been paid on the plant for the last three years, amounting in all to $2,500 which were paid yesterday.

An office room was secured in the Martin block and all patrons of the Water company are expected to go to the office to pay for water, if they do not the water will be turned off.

WANTED—Some good cotton rags at this office.

J. P. Young completed arrangements, whereby he has secured one of T. H. Winnett's New York companies of comedians in the latest of farce comedies, "His Nibs, the Baron," for Saturday, April 30. The company consists of twenty people.

Ten comedians, eight beautiful girls and a double quartette. Many new features and novel specialties including the latest, craze the mirror dance. Don't forget the date, but paste it in your hat so you will not make another engagement for Saturday, April 30.

Messrs. Lee Applegate, D. C. West, H. G. Strong and Andrew Sturm, of Nebraska, are in the city attending district court. While here they took a look through our new court house and all expressed themselves as greatly pleased with its construction, beauty and arrangement.
