Reduced to Ashes.

The fine residence of Senator S. I. Thomas burned to the ground yesterday forenoon. Mrs. Thomas and her son left home in the morning for the purpose of attending church, and the only fire in the house was the one in the cook stove, but it had died out before they left for church. The house and all their household goods and clothing were burned. The origin of the fire is unknown, as there was no one at home when it happened. No one knew of the fire until it had burned the building to the ground. The first any of the family knew of the fire was when they arrived home at 5 o'clock yesterday evening. Mr. Thomas was in Omaha yesterday southeastern part has exceeded The man that broke open the safe but did not go home last night on three inches, averaging about three was a professional from the appearaccount of the rain. A couple of strangers secured a bed at the Cottage House last night but they failed to put in an appearance for breakfast. This morning when the chambermaid was making the beds she found several queer looking tools in the bed that the strangers had left and which Mr. Woodson has now in his possession. Mr. Woodson also stated that a person could go in and out of the house without attracting any attention.
