

WAS A DREAM OF BEAUTY

"Neta" Presents its Beauties to the Public.

THE OPERA WAS WELL RENEERED.

John Lepper, Living Near Avoca, Has His Arm Shattered by a Gun--Capt. Yocum Free Again.

Those of our people who visited the Waterman last night to witness the presentation of the beautiful little operetta "Neta," were most agreeably entertained. It is seldom that an amateur performance reaches the high state of perfection that distinguished last night's benefit, and so it is a matter of pleasure to give to it the credit it merits. Without exception it was elegantly presented. The principal characters were sustained by Miss Lucile Simpson, Miss Nannie Moore, Mrs. George Dovey and Mrs. Charles Johnson in a very capable manner. No one of these fair ladies can be rated above the other so far as ability is concerned, as all are equally at home with their parts. F. C. Cushman, the prince, disguised as a Gypsy, captured the house with his funny acting and merited deserved applause. The minor characters were well sustained, and the chorus was a dream of beauty and a poem of motion. The scenic effects were well put on, and several very beautiful tableaux added to the glory of the scene. The Misses Dovey and Kew, in their various dances, called forth loud and prolonged applause which was well deserved. Too much praise cannot be bestowed on F. C. Cushman, the manager of the entertainment, for the excellent manner of the presentation, although, if we may judge from what we understand of the financial consideration, he has been amply repaid for his labors. The operetta will be performed again to-night, and we advise those who have not seen it to go and spend an enjoyable evening.

A Serious Accident.
A painful and serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon three miles south of Avoca, this county. John Lepper, a young man 18 years of age who works on the farm for Henry Hillman, was the unlucky person. From reports the HERALD learns that young Lepper had gone out with a gun to shoot at a mark. While enjoying this pastime the accident occurred, the gun bursting, blowing part of the barrel almost through the arm just above the wrist, splintering the large bone very badly. The weapon he was shooting with was a very old pattern. The bursting of the gun filled his face full of powder, but the attending physician does not seem to think his eyes were injured. Grave fears are entertained by the physician as to saving the arm, although it may not be necessary to amputate it.

Presentation of the Pardon.
Adjutant General Viquain has returned from Hastings as the bearer of Governor Boyd's pardon to Captain A. D. Yocum, who shot and killed Myron VanFleet for traducing his daughters' good name. General Viquain was met at Hastings by General Dilworth and General Bowen, counsel for Yocum and at once sought the jail where Captain Yocum was confined. The latter was prepared for the visit having been notified by telegram hence he was prepared to receive the bearer of good news. Nevertheless he exhibited some emotion when General Viquain handed him the pardon "in behalf of our fraternity of civility and loyalty" an allusion to the G. A. R., of which all present were members. "I hand it to you as an easter morning present," said General Viquain in conclusion. Captain Yocum turned the pardon over to Sheriff Crane and the three walked to the hotel, where greetings were exchanged with many citizens of the town. Reports of a certain woman having threatened to avenge the death of Van Fleet caused Captain Yocum's friends to keep a sharp look-out to prevent its fulfillment, but nothing occurred to indicate that anything of the kind would take place, and the last chapter had been enacted of the famous Hastings manslaughter.—State Journal.

Laid at Rest.
The funeral of Mrs. Harry Howland was held this afternoon at her late residence at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. T. Baird conducted the ceremonies. The remains were followed to their last resting place by a large and sympathetic crowd of neighbors and friends.

A large sized steamboat went down the river this morning.

J. M. Carter vs. B. A. Gibson is occupying the attention of district court today.

The Journal came out last night enlarged from a six-column folio to a seven-column.

A rumor is afloat that Mathew Gering will succeed C. S. Polk as city attorney when the administration changes hands.

For millinery and pattern hats or anything in the line of ribbons, flowers of the latest styles and designs, call on the Tucker Sisters in the Sherwood block.

A vote was taken this morning in the high school room on the state tree, resulting in thirty-nine votes being cast for the Elm and six votes for the Maple tree.

The following cases were filed with the clerk of the district court yesterday: Ralph R. Robinson vs. J. R. Thompson and E. G. Dovey, an appeal from Justice Wilde of Cedar Creek; also Becker & Sangeman vs. W. J. Rakas.

Fred Walters is at last landed in jail at Lincoln charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Fred Kroehler received his money yesterday afternoon. It came as soon as Marshall Fry telegraphed to Lincoln ordering his arrest.

Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the residence of Mrs. S. A. Davis on Pearl street tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The officers and members of the Christian Endeavor society are invited to meet with them, also the members of the Y. W. C. T. U.

The men that went through the postoffice Sunday night took every thing they could get their hands on. This morning Postmaster Straight missed $125 more. It was confederate money that he secured during the war and had kept it ever since. One was a $100 bill, one a $20 and the other a $5 bill.

Myring--Calhoun.

A very pretty marriage ceremony was performed this afternoon at 4 o'clock by Judge Ramsey. The contracting parties being Mr. Chas. Myring and Miss Nettie Calhoun. The ceremony occurred at 709 South Sixth Street.

Nebraska and Iowa Indebtedness.

A special census bulletin is issued to-day on the debt, less the sinking fund, of the several states. The following is taken from the bulletin: Nebraska—County debt in 1890, $5,510,175; in 1880, $5,120,362; municipal, 1890, $7,124,506; in 1880, $1,102,172; school district debt, 1890, $3,085,928; in 1880, $1,778,508; per capita combined debt, 1890, $14.67; in 1880, $16.56.

Iowa—County debt, 1890, $3,416,889; in 1880, $2,962,573; municipal, 1890, $5,391,772; in 1880, $3,474,621; school district debt, 1890, $1,221,223; in 1880, $1,125,138; combined per capita debt, 1890, $5.90; in 1880, $5.01.

World's Fair Notes.
Kentucky has made a $100,000 world's fair appropriation.

Victoria, Australia, has made a world's fair appropriation of $100,000. In the government exhibit will appear all the relics, which are obtainable, of various Arctic exploring expeditions.

The Deadwood board of trade is arranging to make a special Black Hills exhibit at the exposition.

Arguments for and against Sunday opening of the exposition will be heard by the national commission on October 6.

Great Britain has added £35,000 to its world's fair appropriation, making it now £69,000 or approximately $300,000.

Applications for space in the exposition buildings now aggregate more than 4,000,000 square feet, a little over one-third being from foreign applicants.

The Commercial Exchange of Des Moines, Iowa, has resolved in favor of raising $20,000 for the purpose of securing a creditable representation of that city at the exposition. Brooklyn, N. Y., wants to devote a like sum to the same end.

Fifty public spirited citizens of Utah have guaranteed $50,000 for an exhibit at the fair from that territory. A like amount was similarly raised in Connecticut recently, and in both cases it is the expectation that the legislature will reimburse the donors.

According to the census of 1890, Chicago takes rank, by virtue of her population of 1,098,576 people, as the eighth largest city on the globe. Most of us desire, at one time or another, to visit a city in which so many persons find homes, and when we do, we can find no better line than the "Burlington Route." Three fast and comfortable trains daily. For further information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Nebraska.

THE WAR IN WYOMING.

Over a Thousand Rustlers and Friends Encamped.

BARBOUR WANTS THE PRISONERS.

The Depth of Hatred of the Rustlers is Marvelous--The Alternates Left Out--Other Items.

The war in Wyoming between the sheriff and Governor Barbour is still pending. The following dispatch, dated Cheyenne, Wyoming, is taken from a morning paper:

That now historic wire of the Wyoming Inland Telegraph company, that used to pulsate with news from the seat of the rustler conflict, has been shot down since Saturday. News from Johnson county is brought to Douglas by the mail carrier and sent here by wire. The dead wire has been reduced by the thieves, who hope now, emboldened by their victory at the "T A" ranch, to muster a sufficient force to take the prisoners of war from five companies of the United States army at Fort McKinney. More than a thousand rustlers and their friends, including Sheriff Angus and deputies, are encamped about the post, and only fear of heavy loss in a collision restrains them from making a rush on Fort McKinney. They are willing to pay almost any price for the half dozen unarmed men of Wolcott's command. At several ranches visited in riding from the country, men were heard advocating the skinning and burning alive of the men on the list. The depth of their hatred and vindictiveness is marvelous. It is not because Champion and Ray were killed especially, but it is based on the broad and peculiar premise that there must be no interference with rustling.

Governor Barbour says to-night that he has requested General Brooke to deliver the prisoners in this city. Colonel Van Horn will start when he feels that the overland trip to Douglas can be made with safety. It is feared now the rustlers will burn ranches and murder men who have been inactive. There is much feeling against the foremen, who are believed to have known of the movement and kept still.

The trial of Dr. Charles Bingham Penrose, the Philadelphia physician, which was to have been held to-day, was postponed until Thursday, owing to the inability of the Johnson county authorities to be present. In an interview the doctor says he left the invading party at Tisdale's ranch on the second day out on account of sickness. He strenuously denies having been with his party at the killing of Champion and Ray.

Dud Champion, brother of one of the dead men, is at Buffalo. He left Johnson county last fall because he felt this coming. Dud now says he only wants a look at each member of Wolcott's party and he will remember them all and may have a chance to get even. The fellow is a fighter, as are two other brothers of the family. One is a fugitive from justice.

There are now in Cheyenne two ranch farmers of Johnson county, two miners, Mayor Barritt of Buffalo, H. R. Mann, receiver of the land office, and Thomas Bouton, editor of the Echo, all afraid for their lives to venture to their homes and property. All have been warned. Sheriff Angus still refuses to deliver the expedition teamsters to Colonel Van Horn.

The Rocky Mountain News of Denver, has just received a bulletin from Casper, Wyo., saying that two men, badly wounded, arrived there this afternoon and relate an exciting story of the burning of Champion and Ray by cattlemen. The bulletin is meagre and every effort is being made to obtain the particulars.

The Alternate Left Out.

John H. Powers of Stratton has succeeded in having Governor Boyd accept his resignation as member of the Nebraska Columbian commission representing the independent party of his district. Mr. Powers was appointed by Governor Thayer and when the finances of the commission became in something of an unknown shape Governor Boyd refused to accept Mr. Powers' resignation as secretary until a settlement could be secured all around. As everything is now in a satisfactory condition, made so by the report of President Strang, the resignation has been accepted. The vacancy was filled yesterday by the appointment of another independent, John B. Stewart, of Benedict York county, a member of the legislature. During the session he incurred the displeasure of his radical alliance brothers and he will be as
