The O. D. C. Give a Farewell to Dora Fricke.

NEWSY LETTER FROM NEHAWKA.

The O. D. C. gave another one of their pleasant parties last night at Rockwood hall. The party being in honor of Miss Dora Fricke, who leaves to-night for a visit in Germany. On account of the weather there was not as large a crowd present as usual, although everything passed off in a pleasant manner. Following are those in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coursey, Maggie Oliver, Janet Livingston, Bertha Wise, Dora Fricke, Nannie Moore, Ella Wright, Maud Vivian, Mamie Gibson, Delia Tartsch, Mary Stiles, Amelia Vallery, Georgia Oliver, Kattie Wharton, Dollie Walker, Nettie Ballance, Mae Dutton, Ella Clark, Clara Green, Lucile Simpson; Miss Putnam, Will Stadelman, Will Clements, Chas. Murphy, Chas. Sherman, Frank Johnson, Logan Brown, John Schulhoff, Robt. Crozier, Chas. Vallery, Ed Schulhoff, Arch Coleman, Al Perrine, Chas. Richey, John Langston, Emil Wurl, Harry Green, Tot Hartigan, of Hastings, and Bert Wheller, of Omaha.

World's Fair Commissioners.
The world's fair commissioners held a meeting in Omaha yesterday, during which plans were accepted for the Nebraska building at Chicago.

A resolution was presented and adopted requiring the successful architect to furnish an acceptable bond that the building would not cost over $15,000, the amount which the commissioners had appropriated for building purposes.

The plans, as submitted by Henry Voss, provide for a two-story building, built in the old colonial style, with porticos front and rear, the front portico to be supported by four Corinthian columns, surmounted by a gable bearing in ornamental scroll the name "Nebraska."

The first story provides for an exhibition hall 60x90 feet, postoffice, check room, commissioners' office, commissioner general's private office and reception and toilet rooms.

The second story provides for an exhibition space of the same dimensions as on the lower floor, together with smoking and reading rooms for gentlemen and sitting and toilet rooms for ladies.

The building, in conformity with other world's fair buildings, will be finished on the outside in stoff or artificial stone, this being the cheapest and at the same time the most effective finish.

Yesterday the two new men appointed by Governor Boyd took their seats. The commission proceeded to the election of a president and a secretary. A. J. Sawyer and Charles A. Coe were placed in nomination and on the second ballot Coe was elected. A. H. Gale of Bassett was elected secretary.

The by-laws governing the action of the commission were taken up and given a thorough revision.

The following committees were then appointed:

Auditing—A. J. Sawyer.
Printing and advertising—Seth Mobley.
Building—Weiss, Stewart and Garneau.

Commissioner Garneau brought a few communications before the commission which he had received. One asked that the recommended appropriation for the horticultural department be increased from $5,000 to $6,000. The commission concurred in the request.

Commissioner Garneau also presented a communication from several ladies, asking that a ladies' board be created to look after the interests of the women's exhibit. The whole matter was left in the hands of the commissioner general.

The discussion of plans for the Nebraska building was then taken up. Architects Brogge of Grand Island, Brookob of Kearney, Woods of Lincoln and Henry Voss of Omaha were present and exhibited the designs which they had prepared. Each architect was given fifteen minutes to explain his plans. The cost of the different designs averaged $5,000. After the architects finished, the commissioners delayed their decision for an evening session.

Geo. Houseworth and W. L. Wells left this morning for Falls City, as delegates to attend the district convention, which meets there this evening.

Nehawka News Notes.
Mr. Eli Pitman is in Omaha today with a load of fat cattle.

McBride and Parmer have shipped 125 car loads of hogs from this point since last December.

Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick has returned from St. Joe where she has been visiting her son.

A heavy rain and hail storm to the north and west last evening is reported here, causing a rise in the Weeping Water today.

The new stone crusher at the quarries started up Saturday and has been rattling away day and night ever since. It is said to work like a charm.

Rev. Williams the Methodist minister has resigned his charge here and is moving to Lincoln having accepted a position as clerk in one of the large manufacturing establishments of the capitol city.

The business of laying down side walks and planting of trees around our city goes grandly and gloriously on. Thanks are particularly due Messrs McBride and Sturm for the former and Hon. Lawson Sheldon for the second.

The band boys have received their new instruments and are taking regular lessons semi-weekly. Moreover every fellow essays to toot his horn at all opportune as well as in inopportune hours in the day and the night. Practice makes perfect.

The special train from Plattsmouth to Weeping Water on Saturday was emphatically the right thing at the right time. Delegates and others visiting the convention report a good time and eloquent speaking. Hurrah for Harrison.

Mr. Sitzman, in conversation with a Hub reporter, spoke in very complimentary terms of the good management of the school. He was glad to see that his sons were being so well cared for, and he could notice a great change in their manners and conduct. He was greatly impressed with the religious services that were held yesterday in the institution. Every inmate seemed to be greatly interested in the services and much enthusiasm was manifested throughout the entire meeting.—Kearney Hub.

Our three home insurance companies located in Nebraska wrote last year 25 per cent of the total fire insurance for the state as against 75 per cent written by over one hundred eastern companies doing business in Nebraska. This shows that the people have confidence in home companies and are disposed to keep their money at home, instead of sending it east and continually draining the money from the west, and making it scarce and hard to get, even at a high rate of interest.

Insure in the home fire of Omaha the leading state company.

THE CHEYENNE PRAIRIE.

Guthrie the Scene of the Only Marked Disturbance.

MAD RUSH FOR THE LAND.

What Was Lately a Wilderness is Now a Place of Much Bustle and Activity—Description of the Lands.

The Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservations were opened, according to President Harrison's proclamation, for settlement yesterday. Following is a partial account:

Promptly at high noon Governor Seay, stationed in the watch tower of El Reno, dropped the signal flag and the battery belched forth a peal of thunder, glorious news to the waiting throngs, and the wild race began. How they did go through the pouring rain, up hill and down hill, through the little rivulets that threatened to be torrents before night. No trouble of any sort, no disturbances, occurred on the line of the opening. About 6,000 people made the race from west of El Reno, as many from Kingfisher, 7,000 from the line of the Wichita reservation west of Minco, 3,000 from Rover, as many from Hennessy and about as many as all of these in small squads all along the line from the Cherokee strip, on the north, the Pan Handle of Texas on the west, and the Kiowa Indian reservation on the south.

A special train over the Choctaw road from Oklahoma dumped a load at the Rock Island crossing a few moments after noon. The crowd from El Reno, which had a town organization completed, reached the land at the same time. The site was black with men within half an hour after the opening.

It was a lucky thing for many boomers that the wait on the border ended to-day. They had gone to the front with scant supplies and stood it as long as they could. Around the border of county H yesterday, men went, gun in hand, demanding that those who had provisions should sell them. A light rain falling when the start was made deprived the scene of a picturesque character, but it did not dampen enthusiasm.

A riot occurred in front of the Oklahoma City land office at the hour of opening to-day, and a number of people were injured. At 12 o'clock Register Leach announced that no lines would be recognized, and the first person to get in the door would have the first filing and others in succession as they arrived. This precipitated a wild rush and in a few moments hundreds of men and women were engaged in a disgraceful scramble, fighting, pulling and trampling on each other, and for a time it seemed as though many would be killed. One man was struck on the head with a revolver and badly injured, but he remained in the ring and got the eleventh filing. He had been third in the line, but sold his place for $250 this morning.

Miss Carrie Sorenson, a clerk in the United States land office here was in the crush and by the aid of a couple of friends succeeded in getting a filing on the quarter section of land adjoining Arapahoe, the county seat of G county, on the north. She says her experience in the crush was a terrible one, and will be long remembered. On every side men were pulling, hauling, swearing, striking and nobody was respected. She was pulled and pushed and crowded until almost ready to faint, but escaped without injury. A woman near her had her clothes torn to pieces. One man had his head cut open with a blow from a revolver and blood spurted over everybody near him. The windows of the land office were smashed in and other damage done.

The area of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation, opened to-day, is much larger than is generally supposed. It would make two Oklahomas or five Rhode Islands. It contains 4,000,000 acres. After the Indian allotments are taken out, there will remain 3,500,000 acres, or enough to give 300 acres each to 22,000 settlers outside the townsites. The best lands have been taken by the Indians and many of the boomers will be sorely disappointed in the character of their lands when they attempt to cultivate it.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's cough remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. 50 cents bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke.

Wanted—An energetic man to manage branch office. Only a few dollars needed. Salary to start $75 per month and interest in business. The Western Co., Kansas City, Mo.
