The difference between Harrison and Cleveland is, Harrison brought Lord Salisbury to terms and Lord Salisbury to his terms. That is one difference between a republican and a democrat.

The Chinese immigration has been attended to, and there are certain sorts of immigration from other quarters of the world that should be looked after by congress while it has its hand in.

LAST night's Journal says that the democrats have been in power for the last half century. The Journal must have been asleep for the past 30 years, for the republican party has been in power since 1860, except for four years from 1884 to 1888, when by the aid of the shot gun and ballot box stuffing the democrats succeeded in electing a man that was a disgrace to the country.

NEW YORK has a guest just arrived from Rome and acknowledges that he is "a fugitive from Rome," and has doubtless left there for Rome's good. He candidly tells a reporter of the Recorder: "I am here to make propaganda for my cause. My principle is the abolition of private property, of capitalism, and government, which are all one—namely, the enemy of true civilization." He should be shipped home by the first boat with a notice to stay there.

THE republican party will enter upon the presidential campaign undivided in creed is made evident by the unanimity of sentiment displayed in the formation of platforms by the respective state conventions. Likewise is it shown that while Blaine is a popular idol, it is generally conceded that his withdrawal as a candidate was sincere and unequivocal, and that the logic of the situation points to the renomination of President Harrison.—St. Joe Herald.

THE advance which has taken place in hard coal prices since the trust got its new grip on that product means an additional $20,000,000 in the pockets of the members of the "combine" every year. This is a toll which that big monopoly is enabled to levy on the people of the country. The tariff is not responsible for this trust, for on this kind of coal there is no duty. The anti-trust laws ought to be invoked against this iniquitous combination at once. If they prove inadequate then new legislation to deal with the evil must be had.

THE editor of the Journal must be old "Rip Van Winkle," as the Journal came out last evening and said that the only president the United States had since Lincoln was Grover Cleveland. Wake up Mr. Journal and look at things in the true light. The people will never re-elect that figure head again; he was not as good as a wooden man would have been. Why, if he had been president four years longer England would have had full control of the Behring Sea fisheries, we would have been in war with Germany over the Samoa Islands, our commerce would have been ruined, our factories would all have been compelled to close down and we would have been at the mercy of the European nations. But the people saw where he was leading us to and therefore elected a republican president that had a backbone.

"A YARD OF PANSIES." Now is your chance! "A Yard of Pansies," an exquisite oil-picture, a companion to "A Yard of Roses," which has been so universally admired, is given, free of cost, as a souvenir with every copy of Demorest's Family Magazine for June. "A Yard of Pansies" was painted by the same noted artist, V. Janus, who painted the "Roses," but competent art critics pronounce the "Pansies" to be superior to the "Roses." "A Yard of Pansies" was painted to order at a cost of $300, and the reproduction, which is given with each magazine, is in every respect equal to the original. And this is only one of the many notable features that make the June number the best one ever issued. The first article, "Mammoth Cave by Flash-Light," is the finest one ever published on the subject, and is illustrated by a score of superb pictures—pictures of places that have never before been photographed. "The Queen of Flowers" is a charming article about the rose, with illustrations of all the fashionable varieties. "A Panoramic View of Existing Religions," by Rev. Carlos Martyn, will interest everybody and explain many points of likeness and of difference between religious beliefs of the present day. Sergeant Dunn of the U. S. Weather Bureau at New York has a splendid illustrated article, "How the Weather is Forecast." Then are excellent stories, and there about 250 illustrations, including a full-page portrait of the publisher. And this June number costs only 20 cents, or $2 per year. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th street, New York.

WHO PUT DOWN THE REBELLION? THE HERALD has always believed that the republicans and the republican party put down the rebellion, but the Journal of yesterday says it was the true democrats that did it. Here is what it says:

"The democrats are and have been for half a century in the majority in this country. Yet, when in 1860 and 1864 the leaders then in control made vital mistakes, the true democrats defeated the party for the party's good."

Was the Union army composed of democrats? No. The democrats were on the other side or were skulking in the rear of the Union army, doing all the harm they could by howling "The war is a failure."

If the true democrats put down the war, as the Journal says, why do they howl so because this great and glorious country pays the Union soldiers their just dues in the way of pensions? Because, Brother Sherman, you true democrats in the Union army were few and far between.

THE HERALD desires the Journal to understand that there are too many living witnesses to that bloody war to ever make us believe that any but the Union army, which was composed mainly of the flower of the republican party, put it down.

Some of the Grand Army boys may be interested in the following from Alex. B. Pope, A. D. C., Com mander, Dep't Tenn. and Ga. For a number of years, I have been subject to violent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism which generally lasted about two months. On the first of this month I was attacked in the knee and suffered severely for two days, when I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it relieved me almost instantly. I therefore most cheerfully recommend it to those who are similarly afflicted everywhere.—R. D.
