

A BIG CROWD EXPECTED.

Everything in Readiness For the Court House Dedication.

LEGAL LIGHTS FROM ABROAD.

The Cass County Bar will Entertain the Most Eminent Jurists in the State Monday--Everything Moving Smoothly Along.

The committees having in charge the dedication ceremonies of the court house, besides a large number of citizens, assembled at Judge Ramsey's office last night for the purpose of making final arrangements.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman R. B. Windham. Secretary Root stated that word had been received from nearly all those invited, although a few letters of regrets had been received.

The finance committee reported that they had met with good luck and had enough funds subscribed to meet all demands.

Chairman Windham then announced the general reception committee of ten whose duty it was to entertain the visitors at the court house. The committee was as follows: Fred Herrmann, M. D. Polk, L. D. Bennett, Julius Pepperberg, P. E. Kuffner, John Waterman, F. M. Richey, Jas. Mathews, A. B. Knottis and F. R. Guthman.

On motion the committee was enlarged and the names of Wm. Herold and A. Clark was added.

On motion Vet Draper was appointed sergeant at arms and he was instructed to appoint the necessary ushers.

A. C. Fry was appointed as a committee of one to properly decorate the court house with flags.

The committee on program handed in the following:

DURING THE DAY.

The exercises will be as follows: Court will be opened in ancient style by Brad Slaughter, at 11 o'clock sharp. Judge Chapman presiding assisted by visiting judges and those who have acted as judge of the district court in Cass county.

The program from that time on during the day with an intermission for lunch will consist of short addresses from old residents and invited guests, among whom will be Hon. J. Sterling Morton, Hon. M. L. Hayward, Hon. T. M. Marquette, Hon. Allen Field, Hon. M. B. Reese, Hon. S. B. Pound, Gen. J. C. Cowin, Hon. Geo. B. Lake, Hon. D. H. Wheeler and Hon. G. W. Covell.

It is expected that Hon. Samuel Maxwell will be present, although the committee cannot state definitely as to him. There will be many other old settlers present who reside in other cities and other states.

Instrumental music will be furnished by the B. & M. band and Beck's orchestra, and vocal music by local talent of celebrity.

Willis Cory captured a nest of eight young wolves on his place a few weeks ago, brought them to town and sent their scalps to Plattsmouth claiming the bounty of three dollars each. Judge Smith of this place wanted a little fun out of the transaction so he fixed up a letter purporting to have come from the county commissioners, stating that the scalps had been examined and were found to be cat scalps, consequently the claim was refused. This letter was shown to Mr. Cory and he was worked up to a high pitch of indignation. After four days of such suspense he received a check of $24 dollars from the county clerk as bounty. The game was then up and Mr. Cory set up the cigars if the boys would say no more about it--Echo.

Payton Company at the Lansing.
The Payton Comedy Company filled the Lansing to the doors last night and then turned people away Tillitson's comedy drama "A Planters Wife" was presented and gave general satisfaction. The company carries its own orchestra which furnished the music for the performance instead of the regular Lansing orchestra. Boxes and everything were filled and everyone seemed to enjoy the privilege of the new theater's advantages on such reasonable terms. The play presented is well known. The company is evenly balanced and effective. The costumes used last night were rich and tasty. Miss Keen made an impression as Edith Gray which will grow during the engagement. One of the cleverest bits of work of the evening was Mr. Thompson's interpretation of Simeon Simcoe the embryo author. Miss Ellsworth's Angie Gordon was also received with great favor. Mr. Payton is better than the conventional villain. In short everything seemed to indicate the beginning of a successful and satisfactory engagement.--State Journal. This company will open at the opera house for one week on Monday May 23.

ANOTHER WISE BEATER.

ohn Zetka Amuses Himself by Beating His Wife.

LIVELY TIMES WITH THE POLICE.

Jake Coffman Starts Out to See the Town and Meets With a Serious Accident--The Sewing Machine Man Gets Ten Years.

The police were called over into Bohemian town this afternoon to quiet a family row. Marshal Fry went over and John Zetka was engaged in paralyzing his wife a la Sullivan. He had her down in the corner of the house chastizing her with his fist. During the melee the woman had succeeded in blacking one of his eyes. Zetka was brought down town and placed in the cooler to sober up. He will have his hearing Monday morning.

Got Two Years.

Word comes from Seward that C. E. Wiley, the festive sewing machine agent, who was arrested on the charge of bigamy plead guilty to the charge and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at hard labor.

Yesterday afternoon Jake Coffman hired a horse and buggy from C. W. Holmes to go out in the country to see his wife. He returned and about 11 o'clock he was pretty drunk. Officers Fitzpatrick and Black attempted to arrest him when Al Burris jumped in and said that the officers should not arrest him as he would take care of him. The officers had a tussle but failed to get their man.

Coffman started off in his buggy out Lincoln Avenue and in some way caught his foot in the front wheel of the buggy winding him around the axle of the buggy. Burris was either with him at the time or found him and instead of trying to extract him from his perilous position went off and left him and also left the horse hitched to the buggy.

In the meantime some body went to C. W. Holmes' house got him out of bed and told him he had better go and get his horse and buggy, which he supposed was in the barn, out on Lincoln avenue.

During all this time Coffman was lying in the mud under the buggy suffering intense pain, having his ankle broken and his leg severely bruised.

This morning warrants were sworn out against Jake Coffman for being drunk and discharging firearms on the street and also for Al Burris and Geo. Billings for refusing to help arrest him when called upon by the officers.

It is understood that Coffman will have a warrant sworn out against Burris as soon as he is able to be out.

Coffman was taken to the doctor's office and had his ankle dressed, when he was taken to the Cottage house where he is resting as easy as could be expected.

Geo. Billings plead guilty to the charge and was fined $5 and costs and Burris was lodged in jail.

Hastings Revenge

After having suffered defeat at the hands of the Plattsmouth team two games Hastings secured her revenge yesterday. The Kearney team being her victim. The two teams played with their overcoats on. Johnsons curves were too much for the Kearney team and the victims narrowly escaped a shut out. The terrific slugging of the Hastings team was the only feature. The score.
