and was not in any particular a sincere project of legislation. The democrats must either admit that or that their legislators are ariant fools.

TOMORROW the Clevelandites expect to knock out the Hillites.

THE democrats are so badly tore up down in New York that the republicans will carry that state this fall by a handsome majority.

"THE writings and speeches of Grover Cleveland" in book form are announced. This is probably a pirated edition of the American Cyclopaedia.

DEMOCRATIC leaders promised a hundred million reduction by this congress, and now admit that it is spending at the rate of a billion and a quarter.

THE democrats are divided on every issue from one end of this broad land to the other, while the republicans are a unit on almost every thing.

DEMOCRATIC harmony prevails in the east, and tomorrow the 31st of May, one portion of the democratic camp expect to knock out the part of the camp that held forth on the 22nd of February last.

TALK about the protective tariff policy of the government, and the McKinley bill being a burden upon the people! In 1748 England not only prohibited the importation of cambrics and lawns from France, but the act made it a misdemeanor punishable by heavy fines to wear imported goods of that kind.

THE Scientific American of May the 28th, contains a full discription of the St. Louis tin works with cuts showing each department and processes that tin passes through.

THE silver plank of the Iowa democrats is one of the most remarkable straddles on record. To make it mean anything and to harmonize with itself, at least one-half must be rejected; but which shall it be--the silver half or the gold half? As it stands now, it declares for free coinage, subject to such conditions and qualifications as would satisfy the most extreme gold monometallists or "gold-bugs."

MR. HOLMAN has been driven to declare "an increase in the revenue is indispensable if the expenditures are to continue on the basis of the present session." As long ago as April, 1891, Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, a democrat, foretold that the expenditures of this congress must inevitably be what they have proved to be--namely, greater than those of the "billion dollar congress." And yet Mr. Holman and a horde of his fellow democrats came to Washington howling about the extravagance of the "billion dollar" congress and vociferating for "retrenchment and reform."

IMMIGRATION FROM GERMANY AND GREAT BRITAIN COMPARED.

It has been estimated by the free-trade advocates that Germany, with her protective tariff, is furnishing more immigrants to America, a protective country, than is free-trade England, and the question is asked, why?

The proposition is not correctly stated. The figures show exactly the contrary. During the year ending June 30, 1890, Germany sent to America alone 92,427 immigrants, while Great Britain, not including Wales, sent 128,340. This question was propounded by a leading advocate of "tariff reform" to a protectionist republican during the debate in congress to which no reply was given.

A comparison of the immigrants arriving in America from the two countries named above from 1815 to June 30, 1890, is as follows: Great Britain, 6,235,277 out of a population of 35,000,000; while from Germany there came 4,504,128 out of a population of 46,000,000. These figures speak for themselves.

Belvoir Castle. Belvoir castle has come in for a fair share of newspaper anecdotes. Pseudo-Gothic in style, its broad turrets and battlemented walls stand on the top of a mound which was thrown up at the end of a spur of the Leicestershire woods by Robert de Toeni, standard bearer of the Conqueror.

Nicknames for Princes. The Sailor Prince, as Prince George is often called, is reputed to be a gay and sociable young man, good natured, merry and very democratic in his tastes.

Wellington's Sense of Duty. A most interesting anecdote of Wellington, illustrating the high sense of duty in all things, is told on the authority of the duke's housekeeper at Walmer castle.

Kissing Teething Babies. A common superstition is that if a colored person will kiss a baby twice in the mouth the process will assist it in teething and make this otherwise troublesome period for children more easy to bear.

Oregon, Washington and the North West Pacific Coast.

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far west for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist sleepers.

Nothing New Under the Sun. Not even through cars to Denver, Ogden, Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Portland. This is simply written to remind you that the Union Pacific is the pioneer in running through cars to the above mentioned points and that the present through car arrangement is unexcelled.

Catarrh in New England. Ely's Cream Balm gives satisfaction to every one using it for catarrhal troubles--G. K. Mellor druggist, Worcester, Mass.

Some of the Grand Army boys may be interested in the following from Alex. B. Pope, A. D. C., Commander, Dep't. Tenn. and Ga. He says: "We have had an epidemic of whooping cough here, (Stewart, Tenn.) and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been the only medicine that has done any good."

F. G. Fricke & Co., the druggists desire us to publish the following testimonial as they handle the remedy and believe it to be reliable: "I bought a 50-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and applied it to my limbs, which have been afflicted with rheumatism at intervals for one year."

German Baptist Conference. The German Baptist Conference meets at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, June 3 to 9. One lowest first class fare for round trip over the M. P. Tickets on sale May 30 to June 6, good until June 30.

The Handsomest Lady in Plattsmouth. Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever.

Some Foolish People. allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in such cases it wears them away.
