WE were asked to-day whether THE HERALD was for Harrison or Blaine. So you we will say right here that you can just bet it is.

THE best Decoration day speech this year was made by President Harrison, who always makes the best speech quite as a matter of course.

THE democrats are worried over Blaine and are howling for his nomination at Minneapolis, but the republicans are going ahead and will nominate Harrison, who is the choice of the nation.

THE democratic party in Cass county is in hard luck, as the mortgage record of the county shows a decrease in the indebtedness of the farms of nearly $10,000 for the month of May alone. They can't howl that the county is going to bank-ruptcy any longer.

IF THE Plattsmouth Journal had its way it would nominate James G. Blaine for president on the republican ticket, but as the Journal was never known to say anything good of Mr. Blaine or the republican party its wish will be disregarded and Harrison will be re-nominated.

THE PLATTSMOUTH HERALD still continues to make democratic votes by its defense of the McKinley tariff law, for which we assure it of our heartfelt thanks.—Journal, June 3.

Brother Sherman, you are welcome to all the votes the McKinley law makes. As far as the law is concerned, it needs no defense; it speaks for itself. It is doing more for the farmer and the laboring man than all of your free trade doctrines ever did.

THE Iowa democrats are powerfully impressed with the idea that Boies would make an exceptionally strong democratic candidate because he was a republican up to a few years ago. Boies' strength is alleged to be in the fact that he has been a republican twenty-five years and a democrat only five. Possibly, however, a sorehead or renegade still fresher from the republican camp could be found.—Bulletin.

ERET HARTE'S young daughter, Miss Jessamy Harte, will make her debut in the July Ladies Home Journal with a most entertaining description of "Camp Life in the Adirondacks," in which it is claimed every evidence shows itself of inherited literary tendencies not unlike those evidence in Eret Harte's earlier work. Miss Harte is a girl still in her teens, and has artistic as well as literary proclivities, as one of the illustrations accompanying her first article shows.

WAGES AND PRICES.
Free traders are fond of saying: "What rot it is for a protectionist to tell you that wages can go up and prices of products go down at the same time." Yet so eminent a free trader as Mr. Edward Atkinson figures it out from census statistics that in twenty years, while the labor cost of a barrel of flour was falling from 78 cents to 52 cents, the average wages in the wheat-milling industry rose from $1.31 per day to $2.19 per day.—New York Press.

THE question raised by the democratic house is not whether men who served in the Indian wars and afterwards in the Confederate army shall be aided by the latter service on any pension for the former. The democratic house insisted on pensioning the survivors of the southern Indian wars while leaving out those in the northwest. It may be, of course, that the demands of economy press hard on the democrats, and they do not feel able to pension northern as well as southern Indian fighters, but it looks mightily as though they had arranged their bill to pension such frontiersmen as afterwards acquired a confederate record while leaving out those who fought on the Union side.—Indianola (Ia.) Herald.

AN EPITAPH.

I dreamed that one had died in a strange place
Near an accustomed hand.
And they had nailed the boards above her face,
The remnants of that land.
And, wondering, planted by her solitude
A cypress and a yew.
I came and wrote upon a cross of wood—
"Man had no more to do—
"She was more beautiful than thy first love,
"This lady by the trees."
And gazed upon the mournful steps above
And heard the mournful breeze.
—W. B. Yeats.

A Pope with the "Evil Eye."

In the early years of his papacy, when he was adored by the Roman people, Pius IX was driving through the streets of Rome and chanced to look up to an open window, where a nurse was standing with a child. A few minutes afterward the nurse let the child drop to the pavement below and it was killed. Instead of laying the blame to the carelessness of the nurse it was laid to the malevolent influence of the evil eye and the fancy became universal among the lower classes in Italy that the pope had the evil eye, and it lasted until his death. Travelers who knew of the belief were often amused to see people kneeling to receive the pope's blessing and at the same time holding the fingers forked to break the malevolent power of his glance. When Pius IX gave up his liberal theories and fell back to the old accustomed methods of government there were an abundance of liberals who took it as proof positive that he was possessed of an evil spirit.—Chicago Times.

A Lawyer's Little Joke.

The humor of the legal mind is sometimes a trifle subtle. There is just now to be seen in the window of a famous second-hand book shop in the Strand a complete set of "Voltaire" in fifty volumes. The set is bound in what is technically known as "law calf." It has evidently belonged to a lawyer who hesitated to let his clients perceive that he was given to reading anything so unbecomingly frivolous as the philosopher of Ferney, or who could not resist his own little joke. Instead, therefore, of lettering the volume "Voltaire," which everybody would have understood, he had them inscribed "Aronet's Reports." The joke would of course be lost upon those who happened to have forgotten that the great philosopher's proper name was Aronet du Voltaire.—London Cor. Yorkshire (England) Post.

Fail to do Our Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. Herbert, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three weeks use of the Nervine for headache, nervous prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. Trial bottle free.

Oregon, Washington and the Northwest Pacific Coast.

The following item, clipped from the Ft. Madison (Iowa) Democrat, contains information well worth remembering: "Mr. John Roth of this city, who met with an accident a few days ago, spraining and bruising his leg and arm quite severely, was cured by one 75-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm." This remedy is without an equal for sprains and bruises and should have a place in every household. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Fell Dead.

These words are very familiar to our reader, as not a day passes without the report of the sudden death of some prominent citizen. The explanation is "Heart Disease." Therefore, beware if you have any of the following symptoms: Short breath, pain in side, smothering spells, swollen ankles, asthmatic breathing, weak and hungry spells, tenderness in shoulder or arm, fluttering of heart or irregular pulse. These symptoms mean heart disease. The most reliable remedy is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which has saved thousands of lives. Book of testimonials free at F. G. Fricke & Co., who also sell the New Heart Cure.

The wisdom of him who journeyeth is known by the time he takes; the judgment of the man who seeks the cities of the east, the south, and the west, is never unceasing. The inference is plain. Magnificent Pullman sleepers, elegant dining chair cars and wide-awake dining cars on all through trains. For information address the agent of the company at this place or write to J.
