

GRAND ISLAND WON IT.

A Pretty Contest in Which the Beets Won By a Scratch.

BEATRICE STILL FORGING AHEAD

A Farmer Plucked of His Feather—Manager Young's Farewell Benefit—Local News of Interest.

The home team and Grand Island put up one of the prettiest games of the season yesterday. Perrine was in the box for the home team and pitched a rattling good game. Grand Island only getting two base hits off him. Tom Patte souped his first game yesterday at shortstop and put up a good fielding game, although he was unable to hit the ball. Tamm started in to play first base but was disabled during the game, and Green went to left field and Reeves to first.

John Patterson was the first to face Mr. Summers, and the first ball that left his hands went away out to right field. Sam Patterson sacrificed, advancing John to second. Kennedy hit the ball for two bases and J. Patterson scored. Maupin lined out a single and Kennedy scored. That ended the runs for that inning, as Reeves and Tom Patterson both failed to reach first.

Pattiford went to bat first for Grand Island, hit to Kennedy, and on a wild throw, reached second, stole third and scored on a passed ball. Stratton was given a base on balls, went to second on Wilson's sacrifice and scored a few minutes later. Rourke and Kipp retired the side.

The home team failed to cross the plate again until the fifth, while Grand Island squeezed in two more runs in the third.

The boys all played good ball yesterday.

The same teams played this afternoon. To-morrow Fremont will be here for two games. The first will be called at 2 o'clock. Reeves will pitch the first and Perrine the second game.

AT BEATRICE.

Kearney faced Beatrice yesterday in the first inning with Fuller in the box. He was wild and short-lived and before the inning was half over he retired to the beach and was succeeded by Pender, who pitched a very fair game, but was hit freely. A big crowd was in at audience, but the succession of errors made the spectators rather weary. Soney, from Omaha, covered second base for Beatrice, Gatewood being supplied. Taylor, Rendell and Holmes did some good fielding. The score:

Rather Expensive Fun.

Charles Meyer, a farmer living near Manley, Cass county, arrived in Lincoln yesterday to see the circus. He was either misdirected or his indignations led him to the wrong quarter, for he wound up his sight-seeing in a notorious colored dive. After drinking several rounds with the dusky sirens of the place he was seized by several stalwart Senegambians, held down on a bed while several others went through his pockets and robbed him of $108 in cash. He was then fired from the house. He at once reported the case to the police and a few hours later Charlie Smith, Charles Johnson, Charles Clater, Lillie Lewis, Gertie Strickman and Alice Johnson, all colored, were arrested for the crime. They will be tried under the state law.—Bee.

Manager Waterman is going to give J. P. Young a farewell benefit on Thursday, June 9. For this special occasion he has secured the popular "Dodd Opera" company, consisting of 40 persons. By request they will produce the popular and beautiful comic opera "Erminie," and as there will be no advance in prices, the Waterman should be packed on this occasion. The reserved seat sale will open Monday morning at Chilberg's book store, next door to postoffice, for all those that signed the guarantee list.

Secretary Rusk's Views.
Secretary Rusk said to-day: "Mr. Harrison's nomination is only the logical conclusion of the unanimous verdict of approval passed upon his administration. The short term of four years justifies a re-nomination by his party, whenever a president's administration receives the country's unqualified endorsement. Moreover, stability of public affairs is essential to the business interests of the country which always suffer from frequent changes."

A report which gained general circulation that Secretary Blaine had placed his resignation in the hands of the president is officially contradicted. It was followed soon after by another that if he had not done so already he certainly would do so before the convention meets.

All sorts of rumors are being circulated. One of the latest of which the president is a victim is to the effect that if by Saturday night Mr. Blaine has not written a letter declining to have his name used at Minneapolis, Mr. Harrison will recognize him as a candidate and withdraw his own candidacy. At the white house this was said to be too absurd to be considered, much less denied. Another story, which received more credence for a time, has it that Chauncey M. Depew has sent a telegram to some of the leading republicans, the purport of which is that the conservative men of the party at Minneapolis are seriously concerned at the grave possibility of dissension in the party unless a change is made in the tactics of Mr. Blaine's friends. The plan of action proposed is to have a mutual friend of Mr. Blaine and Mr. Harrison call upon Mr. Blaine to-day and urge him to use the same frankness and candor now that he displayed in 1888. This story cannot be traced to any authoritative source, nor can it be learned that any conference of republican leaders to take action in this direction has been called, and the story is generally discredited.

World's Fair Notes.
Ca-I Hagenbeck, of Hamburg the celebrated dealer in wild animals, will take to Chicago his entire collection of trained and wild animals, also his collection in natural history. A structure in the form of a Roman arena will be erected in the Midway Plaisance on a space of 110 feet square, where some seventy animals and several hundred monkeys and parrots will be shown. The wildest beasts living, together with domestic animals, will go through all sorts of performances. The H. C. Frick Coke Company of Pennsylvania, has decided to make a complete working model in miniature of a entire plant. The machinery will be in operation, the motive power being electricity with gas for the ovens, the coke being represented by asbestos.

Church Services.
First M. E. church, Dr. L. E. Britt, pastor. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., public services 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.
B. R. Ball of Omaha will conduct the morning service in the east of the "Deaconess Home of Omaha." We expect one of the deaconesses will be present. Epworth League will meet at 7 p. m. in the gallery of the church. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

The address delivered by A. C. Wright was the most able ever listened to by the people of Elmwood, and many eyes were wet with tears while he told of the part his father took in the great conflict for the preservation of the union.—Echo.

District Court.
J. A. Gutsche, administrator, vs. Cass county was argued this afternoon and given to the jury.

THE HERALD is in receipt of the annual report of the Nebraska state board of agriculture for 1890, with the compliments of Robert W. Fornas.

HOME PROTECTION COLUMN.

CONDUCTED BY THE W. C. T. U.

"Be sure to heed his lessons while we may, look up fast, do not get our defenses weak; look forward bravely, look not weakly back; the past is done with, mind the coming track. Look in with searching eye and courage stout, but when temptation comes, look out, look out."

The world's W. C. T. U. concluded that it did not care for space on which to erect a separate edifice at the Columbian exposition, because ample accommodations were promised in the woman's building and thus the money that would have been required for the enterprise could be put to more helpful use in extending the society. We make this statement in reply to many inquiries.

Mrs. Mary A. Woodbridge has been speaking in Trinidad, where Mrs. Prof. Gordon, sister-in-law of our Anna Gordon, presided over the white ribbon meeting, which was a success. On the 28th of March, Mrs. Woodbridge spoke to prisoners of Colorado penitentiary at Canyon City, and later on in Denver, where admirable arrangements are being made for the entertainment and success of the national W. C. T. U. convention, to be held there in October next.

On Friday, May 13, at the Omaha Methodist conference a memorial service was held. The memoir of Gen. Clinton B. Fisk was read by Dr. J. M. Buckley, of New York, who reviewed the whole career of the deceased—his private life, his army record, his work for the church, the temperance cause and his success as an educator.

We are looking for and shall expect great things in the next decade. What are some of these things? I answer, when our women shall have the God-given right of this ballot, when our whole country shall be free from the curse of rum, and the homes of this country free from the monster evil.

When a young man simply declines a glass of wine, giving the name of Jesus for the reason, I call that gospel temperance. And when a young woman with christian tact and grace demands, as christian ladies can demand, for the sake of Jesus, who never reproached a woman, abstinence as a prerequisite to her respect, I call that christian temperance. And when the honored wife of Minnesota's spotless senator, who died with his glass reserved, Mrs. William Windom, refused to serve wine at her table according to custom, saying she would rather offend a few than to tempt any, I call that gospel temperance.

They are now making a brand of whisky in the old bourbon state and they call it "Horn of Plenty." So let it be—they have chosen the name wisely, for out of the thing designated shall come "Plenty of power, plenty of pain, Plenty of sorrow and plenty of shame, Plenty of broken hearts, hopes doomed and sealed, Plenty of graves in the potter's field."

The W. C. T. U. of Hastings will run the city hospital in connection with Bethany Home.

Bishop Newman of Omaha will be one of the speakers at the Beatrice Chautauqua this year.

The Hawaiian queen has lately testified her interest in the W. C. T. U. of Honolulu by paying the license on their coffee house, something over $70. Her total abstinence principles are proved by the banishment of all sorts of liquors from her table and her receptions. She also forbids in her presence the performance of a lascivious dance, formerly a great favorite in court circles.

Hon. Alexander H. Stevens' declaration concerning Liberty county, Georgia, which passed the first iron-clad temperance law in America, seventy years ago: "This county," said Mr. Stevens, "was the happiest, richest, best educated, most orderly county of Georgia, and the year I lived there was the only year of my life in which I was perfectly well."

"The best protection a young woman can have in this city," said a big policeman on the Broadway square, New York, "is one of those little silver crosses that the King's Daughters wear. I've noticed that now-a-days the professional masher will look first at the bosom of a woman's dress and if that little cross is dangling from a buttonhole he passes her by without even a stare. It's the same way on a street car as on the street. The young woman who wears one of those badges has got the whole carload of men to take care of her and jump on the fellow that dares to annoy her. The cross is getting to be looked on with the same respect and defense as a nun's garb. As a safeguard it beats the average policeman all hollow."

At a meeting of the W. C. T. U. a vote of thanks was tendered to the papers of the city for their courtesy in granting the use of a column once a week for temperance.

Mr. Wright's oration was a grand effort. By its pathetic influence many a sympathetic heart beat with commiseration, and from the well-springs of the soul, from out which speak the hidden secrets of the heart, flowed many a tear.—Echo.

Polk's evening paper made a great stir last night about ex-Senator Taggart getting into trouble. It hasn't been very long since the ex-senator of Cass county was very red-headed because THE HERALD published an account of some of his doings. Ex-Senator Taggart was a member of the senate at the time when M. D. Poik represented (5) Cass county.

I had a severe attack of catarrh and became so deaf I could not hear common conversation. I suffered terribly from roaring in my head. I procured a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm and in three weeks could hear as well as I ever could, and now I can say to all who are afflicted with the worst of diseases, catarrh, take Ely's Cream Balm and be cured. It is worth $1,000 to any man, woman or child suffering from catarrh.—A. E. Newman, Grayling, Mich.
