The democrats have cut down the appropriations for postal purposes in the hopes that it will cover up their extravagant river and harbor appropriations.

CONGRESS has not done all it has to do, but the democrats are afraid to do anything more, so it is doubtful whether congress will get itself adjourned this summer.

LORD SALISBURY blubbers that the United States is the chief offender in shutting out Great Britain, but that Great Britain cannot retaliate because she must have what is sent her from here. But that's not saying she would not like to.

"NOT on Calvary" is the title of a little book received at this office that is intended to help those who have gone down the dark valley of doubt and cannot find their way out. The book is beautifully written and will no doubt do a great deal of good.

If the anti-free silver man Cleveland heads the Chicago ticket and free silver Boies is tacked on to the tail of it the democrats will have to remit the discussion of the silver question to the congressional districts, as they did the tariff in 1872 when they supported the protectionist Greeley.

AN improved machine for the manufacture of tin plate has been invented by Samuel Y. Buckman of Philadelphia. This machine, it is claimed, will turn out in the same time a product five times as great as that turned out by the old method. The question that naturally suggests itself is: What incentive would Mr. Buckman have had to make his invention had not the McKinley tariff made the manufacture of tin plate in the United States possible?—American Economist.

PROTECTION AND AGRICULTURE.

Our American policy of protection was inaugurated by farmers for the special benefit of farmers.

The first congress, which framed the first tariff, was composed for the most part of farmers, and it was signed by a farmer president—George Washington.

These men felt the need of protection in order to create a home market for their products.

They had all the farmers they wanted, but were suffering for a non-agricultural population to buy what they raised.

They could not sell their wheat and vegetables to one another.

From the first our tariff system has depended for its maintenance in every election on farmers' votes. They remembered how wretched they were when all were agriculturists and how protection brought them relief exactly as the framers of the first tariff had predicted.

So nothing has ever been able to wean the American farmer from his love for Washington's and Hamilton's, and Jefferson's and Madison's protective policy. And the free trade "reformer" is unable to do so to-day.

Farmers see the land of Virginia, which has few factories, selling on an average at about $11 an acre, while the poorer land of Pennsylvania, with many factories, brings $49 an acre.

In Mississippi, devoted exclusively to agriculture, land sells for less than $6 an acre, but brings $42 in sterile, but manufacturing, Massachusetts.

The average in Georgia, where mills are almost unknown, is between $4 and $5 per acre; but in New Jersey, with all its swamps and clay beds, the average value of land is $65.

So the farmers continue, and will continue, to vote for protection and against free trade, because they do not want to vote away one-half the value of their farms. And who can blame them for it?

GOODBY, GOD BLESS YOU.

I like the Anglo-Saxon speech
With its direct revealings:
It takes a loud and seems to reach
Far down into your feelings.
That some folks deem it rude, I know,
And therefore they abuse it;
But I have never found it so—
Before all else I choose it.
I don't object that meat should stir
The Gaelic they have paid for,
With "An reivor," "Adieu, ma chere,"
For that's what French was made for:
But when a crowsy takes your hand
At parting to address you,
He drops all foreign lingo, and
He says, "Goodby, God bless you!"

This seems to be a sacred phrase
With reverence impassioned:
A thing come down from righteous days
Quaintly but nobly fashioned.
It well becomes an honest face,
A voice that's round and cheerful;
It stays the sturdy in his place,
And soothes the weak and fearful;
Into the porches of the cars
It steals with subtle unction,
And in your heart of hearts appears
To work its gracious function:
And all day long with pleading song
It lingers to caress you,
I'm sure no human heart goes wrong
That's told, "Goodby, God bless you!"
—Eugene Field.

Odd Names of Streets.

To reach Boa Vista palace take a carriage at your hotel door and drive down the Rue Cattete, skirt the bay along the Praya da Gloria, rattle through the Rua das Manguerras (street of leather pipes), dash under the aqueduct arches of Mate Cavallos (horse killing avenue), turn into the Rue das Invalidas (street of sick people), and then follow the Mata Porcas (pig killing street), until at last you come to the direct road that leads out to Sao Christavoe. The well paved avenue has lampposts set on either side and is lined with handsome suburban homes set in gardens of perpetual bloom, shaded by feathery palm trees.—Rio Janeiro Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

Testing Love.

Southern children have a very pretty way of "telling fortunes" with the dodder vine or love vine, as they call it. A piece is broken off and twisted around the head three times, then dropped on a bank behind them. If the sweetheart is true it grows. If it dies, hoor she is false.

The mullen stalk is also used to learn the constancy or the fickleness of the lover. The stalk is broken, but not detached, and if it continues to grow the absent one is constant, or vice versa.—New York World.

A Public Benefactor Dead.

William Toomey, familiarly known as old Bill Toomey, died at 10:30 o'clock Friday night. This is a case where death had all the alleviating circumstances possible. For forty years old Bill Toomey laid out the dead of this town, man, woman and child, without exception. He never would accept any remuneration for these kindly services, always rejecting money and saying, "It's a real pleasure to me and no trouble at all."

His wife's millinery shop supported him and her comfortably, and it soon became known that old Bill Toomey was ready and anxious to come at all hours of the day and night, rain or shine, winter and summer. To make sure that no one would be laid out without him he fell into the habit of keeping careful account of all the sick, and made his rounds of inquiry each evening. Several times, when sick persons were not expected to live through the night, Mr. Toomey spent the night watching the house of sickness, without regard to his health or the weather.—Aristotle (Ind.). Cor. New York Sun.

An Obliging Murderer.

A very accommodating sort of murderer is John Smith, of Wolfe county, Saturday he killed W. H. Reynolds, and afterward helped dig the grave and assisted the neighbors in the interment.—Bowling Green Times.

Just as sure as hot weather comes there will be more or less bowel complaint in this vicinity. Every person, and especially families, ought to have some reliable medicine at hand for instant use in case it is needed. A 25 or 50-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is just what you would need, even for the most severe and dangerous cases. It is the best, the most reliable and most successful treatment known and is pleasant to take. For sale F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.

Fail to do Our Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. Herbertchter, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie, C.T., Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three weeks' use of the Nervine for headache, nervous prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. Trial bottle free. 1.

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far west for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling has led to the establishment as what is known as Pullman Colonist sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference being that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen curtains plenty of towels, combs, brushes etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper leaflet. E. L. Lomax, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha Nebraska.

Nothing New Under the Sun

The following item, clipped from the Ft. Madison (Iowa) Democrat, contains information well worth remembering: "Mr. John Roth of this city, who met with an accident a few days ago, spraining and bruising his leg and arm quite severely, was cured by one 50-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm." This remedy is without an equal for sprains and bruises and should have a place in every household. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Fall Dead.

These words are very familiar to our reader, as not a day passes without the report of the sudden death of some prominent citizen. The explanation is "Heart Disease." Therefore beware if you have any of the following symptoms: Short breath, pain in side, smothering spells, swollen ankles, asthmatic breathing, weak and hungry spells, tenderness in shoulder or arm, fluttering of heart or irregular pulse. These symptoms mean heart disease. The most reliable remedy is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which has saved thousands of lives. Book of testimonials free at F. G. Fricke & Co., who also sell the New Heart Cure.

The wisdom of him who journeyeth is known by the line he selects; the judgment of the man who takes the "Burlington Route" to the cities of the east, the south, and the west, is never impeached. The inference is plain. Magnificent Pullman sleepers, elegant reclining chair cars and world-famous dining cars on all through trains. For information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha.

The Handsomest Lady in Plattsmouth
Remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lung was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and to convince you of its merits any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Some Foolish People
allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.
