

HARRISON AND REID.

A Strong Ticket Placed in the Field at Minneapolis.

REID THE UNANIMOUS CHOICE

Editor Rosewater Elected a Member of the National Committee-- The Convention Adjourned After an Interesting Session.

At 11:35 yesterday morning Chairman McKinley called the convention to order after which Rev. Hays of Minneapolis offered prayer. After some routine business the chairman announced that nominations were in order. It was decided that the roll of states should be called and when Colorado was reached Senator Wolcott took the floor and placed in nomination James G. Blaine.

The roll call went on and when Indiana was reached Hon. Richard Thompson ex-secretary of the navy arose and nominated Benjamin Harrison.

The call of states was resumed until Michigan. There was a breathless pause, but no response from the Michigan delegation. "What's the matter with Alger?" shouted a delegate. "Not in it," a voice replied.

When Minnesota was reached Eustis seconded the nomination of Blaine.

At the close of Eustis' speech the chief Blaine demonstration of the day took place. It seemed to have no limit. The crowd yelled waved umbrellas, threw hats, and danced and cheered, and when it seemed that human power must soon overcome itself the old cry of Blaine, James G. Blaine, spread through the audience.

Enthusiasm Unbounded.

The manifestation was the most sensational. The prolonged endurance of intensity probably equaled anything ever seen in the convention. At twenty-three minutes the band began playing, but the roar came again and the stamping renewed.

McKinley began rapping with his gavel and finally the storm spent itself at the end of thirty-one minutes.

W. E. Malleson, colored, from Mississippi, seconded the nomination. He was the greatest citizen in the world, a man so great that no one was jealous of him. He was the greatest American and the greatest living republican, James G. Blaine.

When New York was reached Hon. Chauncey M. Depew arose and in one of his greatest speeches seconded the nomination of Benjamin Harrison.

After several other delegates had spoken ex-Governor Sewell of New Jersey moved that the convention proceed to ballots. The vote resulted as follows:

Harrison	351 1/2
Blaine	182 1/2
McKinley	182
Reid	1
Lincoln	123
Total	906
Necessary to choose	454

The convention then adjourned until 8 p. m.

At 8 o'clock the convention was called to order and the roll of states was called until New York was reached and State Senator O'Connor arose and placed in nomination for vice president Whitelaw Reid of the New York Tribune. General Horace Porter in an able speech seconded the nomination.

On motion of Mr. Caney of Iowa, the rules were suspended and the nomination made unanimous.

At ten o'clock the convention adjourned sine die.

With a Kiss.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—A kiss, given by Miss Jeanette Halford as she flung her arms about President Harrison's neck at 5:12 o'clock this afternoon, announced to him that he had been renominated by the Minneapolis republican convention for president.

The president was in his office across the hall from the telegraph room, where the bulletins were being received by an enthusiastic crowd composed of cabinet officers, generals in the United States army, newspaper men and women, attaches of the executive mansion and colored servants.

Miss Halford rushed across the hall and saluted the president as she had done four years ago at Minneapolis when he first received the nomination. The president was surrounded by Secretaries Tracy, Noble and Rusk and by Mrs. McKee, Russell Harrison, Mrs. Parker, Lieutenant Parker and other members of his private family.

It was a memorable scene, and only one face was missing to complete the picture, that of Mrs. Har-ison, who lay upon a sick bed less than 100 feet away, anxious, no doubt, but as yet unconscious, that the extra anxiety of the last few days had been dissipated and that her husband, Benjamin Harrison, had been selected to lead the republican party in the coming campaign for the presidency.

HOME PROTECTION COLUMN.

CONDUCTED BY THE W. C. T. U.

A tone pealed through the solemn night. The city clock tolled One. It said to every listening ear. Another day's beginning. So, in our nation's gloom, a peal Rings out our triumph hour. It tells how honest, earnest work Breaks down the tyrant's power.

The whole world hears the welcome stroke. And fresher forces rise To join the few who long have fought. With faith that never dies. Our faces fall back in wavering lines. And tremble for their power. They knew defeat is drawing near— God's clock has struck the hour.

With God there is no compromise. He hatches every wrong. With him as leader of our cause. With ballot, prayer and song. We'll work united, brave and strong. With the wisest power. Throughout the world, shall surely know God's clock has struck the hour. Western Christian Advocate.

Prohibition prohibited, even in New York. On Sunday, April 1, saloons and gambling houses were tightly shut; let us hope that other haunts of sin were also barred and bolted. The like was never seen in Gotham. What was the reason? One Christian minister had preached against the abominations of his own city and had kept on preaching; had arraigned the sworn officers of the law as vulgar roughts leagued with the immoral and criminal classes. He had been cited to appear before the grand jury, had made his words good by sure testimony; the jury had arraigned the police; the police did not dare longer to let the law remain like a rusty sword in a still more rusty scabbard. So they set at work to do, under the lash of public criticism, what they ought always to have done. Who will roll away the stone for us in other cities? Where is the Dr. Parkhurst of Chicago and St. Louis, Baltimore and Boston? Heaven grant that he may soon appear with thunderbolts.

It is in direct violation of Missouri's statute law to employ women to sell liquor, unless the woman is the wife, daughter, mother or sister of such saloon keeper. The grand jury at St. Louis, in response to a resolution presented by the St. Louis W. C. T. U. arrested and indicted the offenders. At the hearing, representatives of the liquor dealers association eulogized the 1,800 saloon keepers, who must be respectable, they said, or they could not procure licenses, and who paid $300,000 a year taxes. One of these addressed the ladies of the W. C. T. U. particularly, claiming that the objects of his association were, by every means, "to promote temperance and the good order of society."

The Norwegian plan of running saloons (if saloons must be run) commends itself in practice and results. A monopoly is given to a society of shareholders, who must pay into the city treasury all profits over 5 per cent. This surplus is applied to deserving charities and benevolent institutions. Women are not permitted to be employed, nor youths under sixteen. Attendants are clad in uniform, each man with a number on his collar like a policeman. The bars are plainly fitted up, clean and respectable. There are no seats, private compartments or attractions of any sort for loitering on the premises. These saloons cannot be opened before 8 o'clock in the morning, nor kept open after 10 in the evening. It is a conclusive fact, founded upon experience, that the traffic in alcoholic beverages has been greatly reduced and drunkenness curtailed, since the introduction of this system in Norway.

The French Temperance organization is known as "La Societe de la Croix Bleue." The careless Frenchman is becoming thoughtful in regard to the drink danger.

The temperance movement is gaining a hold among French Christians.

It has been decided to discuss the question of Sunday opening the exposition on the second day of the next meeting of the national commission which will probably be October 6.

She Committed Suicide. Mrs. F. D. Boe, at Watkins, left this letter: "My husband—Forgive me if I cause you trouble, but I suffer so. You do not know what these long, wakeful, wretched nights are to me, and I am so tired, darling—the pain will never be better. It is not easy to take my own life, but I have been sick so long. Good-bye, my husband, I love you—your wife."

This is but one of thousands that give up, instead of using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and being speedily cured of their wretchedness. Go to F. G. Fricke and get an elegant book and trial bottle free.

WE WILL CELEBRATE.

Plattsmouth Will Appropriately Observe Independence Day.

A VERY ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

The Citizens of Plattsmouth are Making Arrangements for a Big Time on the Fourth of July--A Regular Old Fashioned Celebration.

Pursuant to a call last night the equity court room was crowded with citizens who were unanimously in favor of celebrating Independence day. The meeting was called to order by Hon. R. B. Windham, president of the board of trade. After stating the object of the meeting, a general discussion by those present was indulged in and every one was very enthusiastic over the matter. The citizens are all working together and will make the celebration eclipse anything ever held in the county.

An executive committee was appointed by the chair, consisting of ten members—two from each ward—who will have the celebration in charge. The committee stands:

- First ward—Geo. E. Dovey and J. J. McVey.
- Second ward—Dr. A. Shipman and H. C. McMaken.
- Third ward—Judge Sullivan and F. M. Richey.
- Fourth ward—T. C. Shepherd and William Ballance.
- Fifth ward—Ed Oliver and A. J. Graves.

This committee will meet Monday evening for the purpose of appointing all sub-committees and taking active steps towards making the celebration a success.

The right kind of men compose the committees and you can look for a big time.

Yesterday's Ball Games.

According to the Beatrice correspondent of the Lincoln Journal the Plattsmouth and Beatrice clubs put up about as rocky a game of ball as has been seen this year. Plattsmouth had the game won up to the eighth inning, the score standing 8 to 5. But in the next two innings Beatrice made eleven runs, while Plattsmouth only secured one. The score:
