REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.

For President
BENJAMIN HARRISON of Indiana.

For Vice-President
WHITELAW RIED
of New York.

THE tin plate liar has crept under cover at last. A whole week has passed without our seeing a single reference to the tin plate question in the free trade press.

As was expected, the British papers are all booming Cleveland, and the Cobden club has already subscribed liberally to the democratic campaign fund.

TO-DAY ends the financial year for Uncle Sam. He has no big surplus in the treasury, but is able to meet his engagements all right, and something will be laid by for a rainy day besides.

THE electoral college this year will consist of 44 votes, and no more. The democratic territories of Arizona and New Mexico will not be admitted to statehood yet awhile.

THE free trader keeps on shouting that the tariff is a tax, and the advertisements in every paper in the United States keep on showing that he is either the greatest fool or the greatest knave that ever lived.

A GOOD corn crop means a big republican majority this fall, and the corn is looking as well as it did this time last year, consequently the democrats are down in the mouth, as they cannot win unless there is a big crop failure.

THE ILLEGALITY OF TRUSTS.
The courts of every state in the Union, when the question of the lawfulness of such combinations has been presented—and this has been many times—have declared them to be illegal, besides being against public policy. Trusts are unlawful, because, through the surrender, by many differing and distinct corporations and by the individuals composing them, of the power to manage and control themselves, and by delivering over their corporate powers to some other person, as well as by engaging through the trust in many kinds of business not authorized by their respective charters, they have done prohibited things. The corporation so doing forfeits its right to exist to the people who bestowed it, and the trust existing solely through these violations of law is itself null. The principles underlying these decisions of the courts are recognized by the fundamental law of nearly all the states, and most notably have they been enforced by the judiciary of the state of New York in the "sugar trust" cases, where by three tribunals, through three successive and deliberate opinions, the law has been announced with strength of reasoning fortified by precedent and a courage and clearness worthy of the best days of Anglo-Saxon freedom.—Roger Sherman, in the July Forum.

WHO ARE THE FREE TRADERS?
But who are our free traders? They are not found much among our industrial classes, certainly not among our workmen and producers. They are composed of proslavery theorists, who can never forget what they learned before the war; doctrinaires and dreamers, who have a supreme contempt for facts and practical results; foreign importers, who can see nothing beyond their own personal gains; newspapers which are the subsidized attorneys of foreign manufacturers and merchants; the Cobden club, representing British interests and caring nothing for the welfare of our people or the honor and glory of our country, and the pro-British democracy.

The toilers and producers of our land, they whose intelligent labor makes the wealth and greatness of our country and the prosperity of our people, are not among them. There is one other fact in connection with this subject of too much significance to be overlooked. It is that the drift of population is from free trade countries to protective America. "All roads lead to Rome" was once a saying. All pathways across the sea, in which are found people traveling to a land where they hope to better their condition, lead to our own favored country. They are all coming this way, too. None are returning.

It has been truly said that the gates of Castle Garden swing inward. No man or woman who is struggling up the hill of life for a competency and comfort ever has occasion to swing them out. None desire to leave this land of protection and plenty for the poverty and wretchedness, the helplessness and hopelessness from which they fled in the free trade land of their birth.—Congressman Milliken.

Cool Work by a Burglar.
Talk about cool headed burglars. One of the gentry who visited the residence of Mr. William Flannin outrivals the daring audacity of Jim Barlow or Claude Duval.

He entered the house while the inmates were sound asleep, and with the aid of a match proceeded to investigate. It appears that he would hold a lighted match until it burned his fingers, and then throwing the still burning remains on the floor light another.

On returning to a room he had quitted a few moments before he saw that the place was on fire. He ran from the house, and meeting a police officer coolly informed him that "a house back there" was on fire. He hurried to the place with the officer. The fire was now burning brightly. In his haste the officer failed to notice that though the rear door was open none of the family was to be seen. They secured pails, but the burglar doing the pumping act, but the apparatus failed to respond. A large boiler of water, intended for the next day's washing, stood convenient, and between them they carried the boiler of water into the house, where the flames were soon extinguished. It was when the officer looked around for his gentlemanly associate that he discovered that he was alone. The family was aroused, and then it was found that the house had been ransacked, but little of any value taken.—Toledo Bee.

A Mute Recovers Speech.
Alphonse Hemphling, of Summit township, Butler Co., Penn., made an affidavit that his twelve year old son, who had St. Vitus dance for twelve years, lost his speech, was completely cured after using three bottles of Dr. Miles Restorative Nervine, and also recovered his speech. Thousands testify to wonderful cures from using it for nervous diseases, dyspepsia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, headache, etc. Four doses of this Nervine cured Mrs. W. E. Burns, South Bend, Ind., who had been suffering with constant headache for three months. Trial bottle and elegant book free at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Some Foolish People
allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

The Queen Gives Away a Goat.
The queen has presented the Second V. B. Royal Welsh Fusiliers with a white goat. Colonel Damscook, in communicating the information to the battalion in an order, says he feels assured that "this most gracious act on the part of her majesty will tend to strengthen the feeling of loyalty and attachment to the throne which exists among all classes of Welshmen." Can any one explain why in so many instances a goat is chosen to be the "pet of the regiment?"—Pall Mall Gazette.

Exhaust Pipes for Oil Tanks.
Judging from the reports from the oil regions, few of the tanks have pipes at the bottom of the great receptacles so arranged that the oil can be drained out of a burning tank from below, thus reducing the loss from fire to a minimum. The great fires at the Point Breeze refineries brought about that reform in our local oil works, and it has proved of great service ever since it was put in operation.—Philadelphia Press.

Metric System in Pharmacy.
In the new pharmacopoeia now in course of preparation the metric weights and measures will be adopted throughout, to the entire exclusion of the English weights and measures hitherto used. It is considered by many that this is but the thin edge of the wedge, and that sooner or later the metric weights and measures will be adopted for all purposes in the United States.

In all the states of South America this system and none other is in use, and there is a growing feeling that an international system of weights and measures will do much to simplify and develop the commercial intercourse of the nations in question as well as those who have adopted the metric system in Europe.—Cor. London News.

Insane from Drinking Coffee.
Peter McKeever, a restaurant keeper, is in the detention hospital on complaint of his wife and a friend, George W. Conch. At the hospital a straight jacket is necessary to prevent McKeever from tearing off his clothes and doing injury to himself. McKeever is an American, forty-five years old. "For the last two or three years," his wife said, "he has taken scarcely any solid food, but has subsisted almost entirely upon coffee. Although we tried to persuade him to change his method of living and abstain from coffee, for we saw that it was impairing his mind, we were unsuccessful."—Chicago Times.

The Homeliest Man in Plattsmouth.
As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption.
