

There's nothing left of Catarrh, when you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. With the poisonous, irritating snuffs and strong, caustic solutions, a good deal is left. They may, perhaps, stop it for a time, but there's danger of driving it to the lungs. They work on false principles.

But Dr. Sage's Remedy cures it, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing. Not only Catarrh itself, but Catarrhal Headache, Cold in the Head—everything catarrhal in its nature. The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. So will yours. You may not believe it, but the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy do.

And to prove it they make you this offer:

If they can't cure you, they'll pay you $500 in cash. It's a business proposition from a responsible house.

But do you think they'd make it if they, and you, couldn't depend upon their medicine?

THE desire of the labor unions of Pittsburg to have the city authorities fling back Mr. Carnegie's gift of $1,000,000 for a free library, in his face, because they are real mad at Carnegie, reminds the New York Tribune of a little story of what happened once in New York.

Two members of a club, who were cronies, had a little dispute one day over some trifling matter, but both got hot under the collar and they parted in anger. One of them was a manager of the Western Union Telegraph company and the other was a newspaper man. The newspaper man had been supplied by the manager with a book of telegraph franks. When he got home he bundled up his frank book and sent it back to the manager with a freezing note, polite, but curt, very curt.

The manager had in the meantime cooled off, and the humor of the situation appeared upon him. So he sent the book back with the following rejoinder: "My Dear —, I return the inclosed, as I think upon reflection that you will agree with me that a mere personal difference between us is hardly sufficient to justify your withdrawal of your patronage from the Western Union company." The journalist ordered the refreshments the next time they met.—Lincoln Journal.

THERE is no democratic party in Kansas this year, it has died and the Independents have buried it.

THE people of Union are making preparations for the fourth annual reunion of old settlers of Cass county to be held there August 22, which will be the best one of the kind ever held in this county, and every old settler should not fail to be there.

THE New York Sun declares that Grover Cleveland is a protectionist. We would not be surprised if some of Mr. Cleveland's friends would declare that he is a republican before they get through with this campaign. They are ready to pledge him to anything.

UNANSWERABLE.

There are men at Homestead to whom this company offers $6.47 per day. These are no professional men; they are not superintendents of departments. They are simply skilled workmen. Democrats may explain and explain until election day, or until doomsday, but they will not be able to convince any man of sense that any such scale of wages could be paid in this country if the "wall of protection" were torn down and our workmen forced into direct competition with workmen in Europe, who receive not more than half so much.—Leavenworth Times.

THE New York Sun warns the free trader that when the principle of free trade becomes identified with the cause of anarchy, and the destruction of the right of property as its leading advocates among us are frantically tending to identify it, all thought of its continuing to receive serious consideration will have to be abandoned for many years to follow. This country is not ready for anarchy yet.

The Sun is eminently right. The free traders have gone mad in their support of the effort of the workmen of the Homestead mills to take that property away from its proprietors by force of arms. Their attempt to identify the Carnegie company and its scale of wages with protection of home industries and put both down with the revolver and Winchester is one of the most idiotic outbursts of demagoguery the country ever saw.—Lincoln Journal.

BROTHER WEAVER.

Candidate Weaver is providing a load for the people's party to carry in the south. The democrats are exploiting his record as republican, greenbacker, labor candidate, democrat, and now alliance and third party man, and quoting certain choice selections from some of his comments on the south and the southern people. Weaver has never been moderate in his language, and when a republican he was a rank sectionalist and a vigorous waver of the bloody shirt. Some of the phrases he used in describing the southern people are graphic and forcible enough for epigrams, and now they are being revived and repeated all over that section with great effect. The force bill issue and Weaver's rank sectionalism are going to be too much for the third party in the south.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

NO DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN IOWA.

Since it has been definitely settled that there is to be no democratic ticket in Kansas the democrats have concluded to throw up the sponge in Iowa, and endorse any and all means that is likely to take the electoral vote away from Harrison. The democratic plan is to insist on the renomination of and fusion on Iowa's "sick six" the people's party to have the congressional candidates in the other five districts and the entire electoral and state ticket! The bosses of the people's party have not yet agreed to fuse on the "sick six" but that is the present probable outcome of the negotiations that have been in progress between the bosses of the two parties ever since the wigwag convention adjourned. That is the reason why there has been no ratification of the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson at Des Moines. The whole object of the now certain fusion in Iowa and other republican states, is to attempt to defeat the election of a president by the people and thus make certain of the election of Cleveland by the democratic house, if the line to carry out the agreements between the bosses of the two parties, in exchange for contracts for whatever vicious and destructive legislation that may have been contracted for to effect the fusion in the republican states.

Fusion will be a stool pigeon trap for democracy all around. The trap will be baited with calamities of every degree of opposition to republicanism, but the democratic bosses are in charge of the trap and they will work it wholly in the interest of free trade democracy. It is a dangerous combination to every good interest of the people of the state and nation, and it can only be defeated by the vigorous and united efforts of all honest voters who are in favor of the best, purest and most progressive government of the bosses, by the bosses and for the bosses who are determined to rule or ruin without regard to the interests of the people. Conscience democrats will be put to a severe test in Iowa and other republican states in this years campaign, for fusion is to be the rule in all states where the democratic party is not in the majority.
