

Wound up
—the man or woman who's "run-down." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery sets the wheels going. It starts the torpid liver into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses, repairs, and strengthens the system, and restores health and vigor. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, and builds up flesh and strength.

For all scrofulous humors and blood-taints, and even Consumption (or Lung-scorfula), if taken in time, it's a positive remedy. Unlike the sarsaparillas, which claim to be good for the blood in March, April, and May, "Golden Medical Discovery" works equally well at all seasons. Unlike other blood-purifiers, too, it's guaranteed to benefit or cure, in every case, or your money is returned. On these terms, it's the cheapest. You pay only for the good you get. But it's the best—or it couldn't be sold so.

CHEAPER TIN CANS.
Bluffton, Mo., June 18, 1892.—
Editor American Economist: A word about the price of tin.
We are producers of comb and extracted honey, and put up all of our extracted honey for shipment in tin cans—mostly in five-gallon square cans, two cans in a case or box—and have been purchasing these cases at St. Louis, Mo., for some three or four years.
Two years ago they cost us sixty cents per case of two five-gallon cans. Last summer we bought a better quality of another firm for fifty-eight cents, and now they quote them to us at fifty-six cents per case.
Does this look as if the McKinley act had raised the price of tin to the consumer? Respectfully,
MILLER BROS.

TARIFF A TAX.
Tariff is a tax in the sense that the fence that the farmer builds around his garden or his corn field is a tax paid by the farmer. It is a tax that consists of the cost of the construction and maintenance of the fence. And, yet, the fence must be constructed and maintained, or the trespassing animals of the neighborhood would destroy the entire proceeds of the labor and the fruits of the land, of the farmer. The tariff is also a tax, in that the cost of its construction and maintenance may be said to be paid by the people; but the loss due to a submission to the commercial trespass that is thus repelled would be greater than the loss due to the maintenance of the tariff.

ROSSELL G. HERR will start the political ball a-rolling to-night. Let everybody turn out and hear him.
THERE is no break in the solid republican ranks. The lines were formed at Minneapolis and the united party has approved.
THE committee sent from congress to investigate the strike at Homestead, found that skilled and unskilled labor averaged $21.55 per week.
THE republican national committee met in New York last Saturday and elected Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, in place of Campbell, who resigned.

ROSSELL G. HERR will address the citizens of Plattsmouth to-night at the Waterman opera house. He will speak on the tariff. Ladies are requested to come out and hear him as well as the men.
A FEW days ago the democratic press was howling because Carnegie was a republican, but they do not howl at the proprietors of the mines in Idaho where the strike is because they are democrats.
BILLS providing for free tin plate after October 1, 1894, and for free lead in ores containing greater value of silver than of lead, were passed on the 8th inst. by the democratic house. So the free trade war on American industry goes merrily on.

OBJECTION is made by the democrats to the passage through the house of the free lumber bill "until after election," as it might endanger North Carolina to the party. The effect of passing the free iron ore bill is also dreaded in Alabama and Tennessee. No one advocates delay any longer than after election.
THE democrats and free trade papers will be filled with joy by the announcement of the failure of the lead of tin at the Temescal mines in California and the early closing down of the works. This same trick has been resorted to before, but then it was about the mines in the Black Hills, but they have just gone on mining more tin than before. It is only a scheme to buy up the stock and mine more tin than before.

THAT fence around Carnegie's steel plant was built three years ago, and the "iron clad scows" for the Pinkertons were only lined with sheet iron, the same as all scows are. The congressional investigation has about destroyed all that romance about the Scotchman's great preparations for battle at Fort Frick. The great question as to who fired the first shot remains unsettled. That is the most important question at Homestead.

"My God!" exclaimed Henri Waterson with impassioned fervor as, with tears in his great round eyes, he contemplated the awful step his beloved party was about to take in the matter of choosing a standard bearer, "to go to New York for a candidate is to walk through a slaughter house into an open grave. The slaughter house promises to be a bloody one and the grave an ample parallelogram to fit its obese occupant.—Fremont Tribune.

DO FARMERS WANT DIRECT TAXATION?
In discussing the tariff it should be remembered that we have to consider only duties upon imports. We levy no duty on exports. Whatever our people produce to sell abroad goes out to our foreign customers free of any export tax. But why should we levy import duties? Well, it cost during the last fiscal year $365,000,000 to carry on our government. We raised $145,000,000 by our internal revenue taxes upon alcoholic liquors and tobacco, $4,000,000 by the sale of public lands and $23,000,000 from miscellaneous sources. These sums total $193,000,000 to be raised in some other way.
How should this be done? By direct taxation on property? Have our farmers, who are more heavily taxed than any other class of the community, considered what would be the burden upon them? What would be the condition of that great industry which produces the prime necessities of life, and is more than any other the source of our comfort and wealth, if obliged to pay in addition to its present large share in sustaining state, county, and municipal government, its portion of $193,000,000 for national expenses? What, then, would be the value of farm lands, and when would the farm mortgages, so much talked about and lied about by our political opponents, be paid?—Congressman Milliken.

When Egypt was in the neigat of her power, when she was most highly civilized and "delighted in being called the "mistress of the land and sea," her people worshipped a black bull. There was some discrimination, however, even in this form of worship. In order to be an object of mad adoration it was necessary that the bull calf be born with a circular white spot in the exact center of his forehead, and the advent of such a creature in any herd was the signal of wild demonstrations from the Lybian desert. Even as late as the time of Cleopatra, "star eyed goddess, glorious sorceress of the Nile," such animals were adored with gold and had their horns tipped with the same metal. Herodotus tells of a man who died with grief because he sold a cow that soon after became the mother of a black bull calf marked with the sacred white circle in his forehead.—St. Louis Republic.

Fellowship to the Baptism.
When Bishop Goe, of Melbourne, was a curate a famous pugilist in the parish, who went by the name of Jim the Slogger and who had never darkened a church door, called at the parsonage asking him to baptize the baby. Accordingly the bishop repaired to Jim's house, but was surprised on being admitted to see Jim lock the door and pocket the key. "Be you the parson come to sprinkle my kid?" he asked. On the bishop assenting, he continued, "Yer can't sprinkle that kid till you and me has had a fight, parson."
The unfortunate parson protested, but finding protest useless "stood up" to Jim. The battle went for the bishop, and Jim, pulling himself from the floor, muttered, "He's the parson for me." The baptism was proceeded with and, as the story goes, Jim took to church going from that day.—Pall Mall Gazette.

In a house stove introduced in England the grate is swung on trunnions and can be reversed. After fresh coal has been added at the top the reversal is made, and the green coal is thus brought to the bottom in an easy manner. By this means the gases from the coal, passing upward through the red portion of the fire, previously at the bottom, are almost entirely consumed before reaching the chimney.—New York Journal.
