

FAINTED AND DIED.

Sad Fate of a Young Woman of Beatrice.

RUINED BY HER FAITHLESS LOVER

Ida Ebricht, a School Teacher, of Beatrice Died at Omaha Yesterday in a Doctors Office—Name of her Disposer Revealed.

The Omaha correspondent to the State Journal this morning says:

Ida Ebricht died in the office of Dr. J. J. Carricker shortly after 2 o'clock to day under circumstances that warrant the coroner in making a thorough investigation. So far the facts learned from the girl's relatives and brought out by the testimony of the witnesses the coroner has examined have only gone to show that the girl's death was the result of her own folly. Miss Ebricht was about nineteen years of age and taught school for a living. She was last employed in the public schools at Odell, Neb. She is spoken of highly by those who knew her at her home near Beatrice, where her family is considered ultra respectable, but she was a queer girl, quiet and one who made no confidant of anybody, so very little can be told of her trouble.

SHE NEEDED ASSISTANCE.

Dr. Carricker, in whose office she died, said to the coroner's jury that Miss Ebricht came to his office four days ago and asked him to help her. She said she was pregnant and she had several times tried to produce an abortion, both by mechanical means and by drugs. She seemed to be suffering then from the effects of the drugs she had taken. The doctor refused to aid her in her criminal intent, but offered to restore her to health.

She left, but to-day returned, accompanied by her married sister, Mrs. Duke, of Beatrice. While the three were talking over Ida's troubles, the latter fell forward in a faint on the floor, and died in a few moments. Dr. Carricker said death either resulted from heart disease or from the effects of her attempts to rid herself from her trouble. Mrs. Duke testified that her sister had always been delicate and for years had suffered from a functional derangement of the heart.

CAUSE OF HER DOWNFALL.

Mrs. Duke and her mother had taxed Ida with being in a delicate condition and had sought to obtain from her a confession. This the girl had strenuously denied, but a short time ago she confessed to Mrs. Duke that her lover, a traveling man named Levy who lives in Beatrice, had drugged and assaulted her last March. Levy had been forbidden to come to the house by Ida's parents on account of dissolute habits.

At this point the coroner determined to hold a post mortem examination to ascertain the exact cause of death and if possible secure some clue to the persons who advised the girl to attempt a criminal operation on herself. The city detectives are searching for the house where Miss Ebricht stopped while in Omaha. Her address is not known. Mrs. Duke only came here to-day and found her sister on South Sixteenth street en route to the doctor's office. An earnest effort to ferret out the true story and fasten the responsibility for the crime on some one will be made.

Attacked by Soldiers.

Last night the soldiers and citizens indulged in a small riot at Bellevue as the following will show: "Last night James Dillion and Henry and Charles Whetstone were attacked by a number of soldiers while returning from the rifle range, where they had been drinking beer. Only a few shots were exchanged when the boys started to run, followed by the soldiers. James Whetstone, a brother of the others, hearing the shooting went up to see what was the trouble and was struck over the head with a club by a hospital steward and knocked senseless, in which condition he still remains. The steward was arrested during the night by Sheriff McCarty and Marshall Patrick on the charge of assault with intent to commit murder and is under guard awaiting a hearing, which will take place as soon as the prosecuting attorney arrives. The United States surgeon and local doctor are attending the injured man and think he will recover."

The bull dog owned by Cal Walton attacked a boy who works in Ed Stemm's cigar factory last night and the boy was bitten two or three different times. Mayor Butler ordered the police to shoot the dog. Cal refused to let them have the dog and they were forced to shoot the dog under the house.

A dead man was discovered yesterday seven miles southeast of Bellevue on what is known as the "Bellevue Island" in a bad state of decomposition. The description is as follows: dark hair, red mustache and whiskers, checkered pants, black shirt and strap-around waist five feet and six inches tall, probably 35 or 40 years old.

John Turner left his spotted team a short distance, standing in the hay field Wednesday, and they enjoyed another runaway with the hay rack. They cleared a wire fence and never broke a wire, run two miles and did but little damage. This is the team that distinguished itself last week by jumping over another team of horses on our streets. John says he will sell them to some circus if he can get enough for them.—Echo.

The republican primaries will be held in the city Saturday, July 23, from 4 to 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention which will be held at Weeping Water, Tuesday, July 26 for the purpose of electing delegates to the state and congressional conventions, which meet in Lincoln and Nebraska City respectively. The First ward is entitled to 8 delegates; the Second 8; Third ward 11; Fourth ward 9; Fifth ward 4.

The Journal last night quoted Judge Wright of Wahoo as saying that if he was in this district he would vote for Bryan even if he was a republican. The fact of the matter is Judge Wright is a chronic office seeker. When he went to Wahoo the republicans elected him county judge, and because they refused to give him anything else he went to the independent party last year, and he failed to receive a nomination from them and now he is a rip-roaring democrat. Instead of being a republican he is a disgruntled politician.

The farmers alliance held a rally at Alvo, Cass county, last Tuesday and a large crowd was in attendance. At 10 o'clock the exercises opened with a song from Mrs. Kerper's glee club, which was composed of thirty talented young ladies and gentlemen and excellent music was furnished. Rev. Fleherity of Greenwood offered prayer. In the forenoon the meeting was addressed by P. J. Lynch and O. Hull. After the speaking a free for all picnic was indulged in. After dinner was over Mrs. Clark rendered a recitation and then J. W. E. Wright spoke several hours. He also spoke to a small crowd in the evening.

The good looking lady clerk in the Red Front store had a little experience the other day with a jug of molasses that furnished her food for thought, also all the sweet she wanted for a week. She was counting out some eggs near a jug of molasses, when all at once the cork of the jug flew out—there was an explosion and molasses filled the air—it also filled her hair and bathed her in a sea of sweet mist. She scrambled for supremacy, but only succeeded in scrambling nine eggs and upsetting a jar of conversable butter. She halloed "fire" and waited four minutes for the Echo hook and ladder company to help her out, and then departed for the wardrobe.—Echo.

Fall to do Our Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. Herbechtter, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three weeks' use of the Nervine for headache, nervous prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved.
