

ENDED IN A RIOT.

The Fair Name of Plattsmouth Trained in the Dust...

OFFICERS HAD THEIR HANDS FULL

Nineteen of the Omaha Crowd Laid in Jail Last Night—The Thugs Who Brass Knuckles, Blows, Shots and Bucks...

Six car loads of Catholic Knights of America came down from Omaha yesterday on a special train and held a picnic in Bajek's park, and as usual with an Omaha crowd ended in a small riot.

The party who had the excursion in charge, when they secured the grounds asked Mayor Butler to station a couple of officers on the ground. Everything passed off quietly until afternoon, when one of the members started a fight.

As soon as they could the officers left the grounds, came down town, found the sheriff and waited for the ruffians to come down town, and as they came down they were marched to the cooler.

There were nineteen of them that languished in durance vile over night.

This morning Sheriff Tighe sported a black eye. While arresting a man last night some one struck him a terrible blow.

Officer Fitzpatrick, while walking through a car, had a narrow escape. Just as he had passed one of the men in uniform, the fellow made an effort to stab him in the back with his sword and would in all probability have accomplished his hellish design if a couple of women had not grappled with him.

The sooner such exhibitions are done away with the better it will be for all concerned.

Everytime an Omaha excursion comes here it ends with several battered faces, broken bones, etc.

If any more are to come the authorities should swear in enough deputies to cope with the mob.

The picnicers brought with them their dinner and a car load of beer, so it can be seen that they were well supplied.

The Primaries.

The republicans held their primaries Saturday evening. In the Second and Third wards there were two tickets in the field.

Following are the First ward delegates: Henry Mauzy, A. Salisbury, Byron Clark, O. C. Dovey, C. W. Holmes, J. I. Unruh, W. J. Koon and S. Buzzell.

Bitten by a Snake.

Thos. Kildow, who has been in the employ of Jonathan Hatt, was bitten by a bull snake Saturday afternoon, while pulling weeds on his farm adjoining the Platte bottom road.

Broke Her Arm.

Myrtle Worden, the ten-year-old daughter of W. H. Worden, fell out of a tree yesterday and broke her left arm just above the wrist.

THE ROUND UP.

Regular meeting of the city council tonight. There is not a more abject little piece in the county than Elmwood.

The American Exchange bank of Elmwood is building a fine new building.

The swing men left this morning for Wahoo and from there they go to Ashland.

A boy baby made its appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loebeck this morning.

G. W. Van Rensselaer, of Chicago, arrived in this city Saturday evening on his way to the Black Hills and spent Sunday with his friend, County Superintendent G. W. Noble.

Jacob Lemon is building a fine new barn near Greenwood. He bought the lumber of David Dean of Ashland and says it is the finest he has ever used.

George H. Holtor, the man with a mammoth imagination, and who has made so many dismal failures in the newspaper business, is trying to work the democrats to help him establish another democratic paper at Weeping Water.

Editor Polk said in his News Saturday evening that H. C. McMaken made Sherman back down on a straight forward proposition. THE HERALD has noticed that Editor Polk failed to make Sherman take water recently, after all his blowing that he would.

The board of education held a meeting Saturday evening for the purpose of opening bids for the construction of the new school house. There were four bids but the board refused to accept either of them and now will advertise for two weeks longer.

The railroad officials have fully investigated the cause of the accident near Plattsmouth the other day and have exonerated Engineer H. T. Mayfield from blame.

Defendants Discharged.

In police court this afternoon Jos. Rines, Frank Honza, A. J. Shoup, Frank Bazanic, John Mokana, Nick Domitrovic had their trial.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Windham's little baby has been dangerously ill, but is a good deal better to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Houseworth arrived home from a two weeks' vacation yesterday morning.

Fred Howland and Ben Hempel spent Sunday with their families, returning to Havelock this morning.

Louisville. The past week has been a very busy one in Louisville.

Mr. Marconet sold 35,000 feet of lumber and bought one car load of corn.

The streets have been thronged with teams every day.

Hot weather has kept back the work some on buildings.

There was a cry of fire last Friday. Dr. Hassemer's clerk was mixing some chemicals and they ignited. The doctor's fingers were slightly burned while putting out the fire.

Bert Shryock had a runaway last Friday. His pony and cart came in town without a driver and brought up at the livery barn of Furgeson & Son. No damage done.

Mr. Michael Williams bought one car load of hogs and shipped them to Omaha.

Our primary came up all quiet and the following delegates were elected for the county convention: W. P. Killian, S. P. Matheny, J. O. McLain, James Robertson, A. A. Knott, E. Palmer, M. N. Drake.

THE KING OF PASSES.

John Wyck has one small pastebord. It is a railroad pass. It carries him over all the lines. A No. 1 first-class.

Oh what a mighty "pull" it took To fetch this king it passed! Oh what a herd of gaping fools And leathery lunged jackasses!

Who stand and yawn with open mouth, And pray like long eared demagogues, And cheer this prince of demagogues.

Who buy their bread with sweat, And let them bow down in the dust Before this farmer's pet!

PERSONAL.

J. P. Wood of Louisville, is in the city to-day on business.

Captain H. E. Palmer came down from Omaha this morning.
