GLADSTONE'S FOURTH TIME.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The new government is composed as follows:
Mr. Gladstone premier and first lord of the treasury; Earl Rosebury foreign secretary; Baron Herschell, lord chancellor; Sir William Vernon Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer; Herbert H. Asquith, C. C., home secretary; Rt. Hon. Henry H.
Fowler, president of the local government board; Rt. Hon. H. Campbell-Bannerman, secretary of state for war; Earl Spencer, first Lord of the admiralty; Rt. Hon. John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland; Rt.
Hon. A. J. Mundella, president of the Board of Trade; Sir Charles Russell, attorney general; John Rigby, solicitor general; Rt. Hon.
Alexander Asher, solicitor general for Scotland; Earl of Kimberly, secretary of state for India and vice president of the council; Marquis of Ripon, secretary of state for the colonies; Sir George O. Trevelyan, secretary for Scotland; Mr. Arnold Morley, postmaster general; Mr.
Arthur Herbert Dyke Ackland, vice president of the council of education; Baron Houghton viceroy of Ireland, without a seat in the cabinet.

The announcement of the appointment of Baron Houghton to the viceroy of Ireland was so incredible that the representative of the associated press made inquiries about it, when he found that the appointment had been made as announced.

Robert Offley Ashburton Milnes, second Baron Houghton, was born Jan. 12, 1858, and is therefore not yet 35 years of age. He married in 1880, Sibyl, daughter of the Duke of Somerset. His wife died in 1887, leaving three daughters. Baron Houghton has been lord-in-waiting on the queen. His father, the first baron, who died in 1885, was Moncton Milnes, the poet and literateur.

DIED AT A JAG CURE.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 17.— Charles Lutzen arrived at a well-known bichloride of gold institute Saturday last and died last evening at 7 o'clock. He had been employed by J. L. Meseraull of Doniphan and had been drinking hard for some time past. No treatment, it is said, had been given by the doctors in charge. Sheriff Costello summoned a jury, which, after viewing the body, adjourned until morning. A post mortem will probably be held.

UNION MEN AGITATED.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 17.—With the starting up of the iron mills the labor unions are in an agitated condition. Three signatures to the scale were received yesterday from the west. They are those of the Etna mill, of Bridgeport, Ohio, the La Belle works of Wheeling, and and the Terre Haute Iron and Steel works of Terre Haute, Ind. The three concerns give employment to 1,400 men.

President Weihe, in speaking of the resumption, said: "The men are as glad to get back to work as the managers are to have them. We go to Youngstown today. We are now preparing the graded scales and the jobbing mill contracts are also being looked after."

THE LINCOLN MURDERER.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 16.—W. H.
Irvine, who on the 20th of last May shot and killed Banker Montgomery in the dining room of the Hotel Lincoln, has just received a telegram from Marion, Ind., conveying the intelligence that his father is dead. Mr. Irvine, Sr., was taken suddenly ill on receipt of the news from Lincoln concerning the terrible tragedy in which his son was a central figure and although he apparently recovered has been in declining health. His death is a terrible blow to the son and for over an hour he cried like a child, the fact that he could not be present to pay his last tribute adding poignancy to his grief. Although the prisoner's health since confinement has been fair, he has gradually wasted physically and is far from being the man he was before the killing, his face especially showing the effects of the terrible mental strain he has undergone. It is about seven weeks yet before the case comes to trial.

SUSPECT FOUL PLAY.

About five or six weeks ago the people north of Ashland were surprised by the sudden death of Dan Adsit, a farmer. He went home badly intoxicated, having a keg of liquor with him. After drinking some more he suddenly went into convulsions and died in an hour.
A doctor from Ashland was summoned and pronounced the death as a case of heart disease, but it seems that foul play was suspected and the body was exhumed and the stomach sent to Chicago for analysis. Mrs. Adsit for some time past, it is reported, has been very friendly with Jerome Adsit of Yu-tan, and especially since the death of her husband. It was upon complaint entered by Jerome's wife that an inquest has been held at the residence of Addison Carr, six miles north of Ashland, at which time Dan's wife swore that the hired man drank from the same keg. Much conflicting testimony was given and the case promises to be an interesting one, especially if any developments arise from the analysis of the stomach.

GREENWOOD'S CAMP MEETING.

GREENWOOD, Neb., Aug. 16.—A camp meeting is going on in the beautiful grove half a mile from town, conducted by Rev. Mr. Powers of Omaha. At 10 a. m. yesterday there was preaching by the minister; at 1:30 p. m., a children's meeting, led by Mrs. Roberts of Lincoln; at 3 p. m., sermon by Rev.
Mr. Guild of Crete, and at 7 p. m., preaching.

THROWN FROM A WAGON AND KILLED.

BOLDREGE, Neb., Aug. 16.—J. W.
Jackson of Loomis just received a telegram while in this city announcing the sudden death of his 12-year-old son by being thrown from a wagon on which he was loading wheat, the wheels passing over him, killing him instantly.

TWO IRON MILLS START UP.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 16.—The Susquehanna Iron Company and Columbia Iron Company started work yesterday after six weeks' suspension. The puddlers accepted a reduction from $4 to $3.65 a ton.
About 600 men are employed at the mills.

THAT ADVERTISING TRAIN.

Will Cass county be represented in the advertising train to be sent east next month? The Eaglet is anxious to see Cass as ably represented as last year. Who will be the party volunteering to work up an interest? As a means of advertising the resources of our state the Nebraska Business Men's Advertising Train has proven to be the best scheme ever promulgated. It lays in the shade all printed circulars and the like. In fact, the train is a regular object lesson that cannot fail to convince any or all who call to see the train of the wonderful productiveness of our state. Thousands of eastern farmers will see the train. Twenty counties have applied. Will Cass?—Eaglet.

Joe Klein, the clothier, flung his banner to the breeze yesterday announcing his opening on the first of the month. Accompanied by his wife and boy he departed for Chicago on the midnight train and will not return until Monday next. In the meantime the work of fixing up his new room in the Stadelman block is going in and the fall campaign is going to be an interesting one in the clothing business as well as in politics.

It is stated that in case the Omaha-Chicago deal in democratic newspaper property goes through that Editor Sherman of the Plattsmouth Journal will become editor-in-chief of the new morning edition and that the Plattsmouth Journal will be conducted by his son, Charles S. If such an arrangement is consummated the state democracy will have a livelier newspaper at the metropolis than it has ever had in recent years.

CEDAR CREEK.

Mrs. C. H. Parnelle spent Friday here.

Mrs. W. B. Osborne and Mrs. S. D.
Smith, drove over to Nehawka one day last week.

Dr. J. B. Duff has a large practice this summer, he has more patients than he can attend to at present.

D. E. Seiver paid our town a short visit Friday and informed us that he had another bouncing baby boy.

We are glad to hear that Miss Nettie Meisinger is able to be around again after being bedfast so long.

Miss Katie Sherman of Louisville returned home Sunday, after a pleasant visit among relatives and friends here.

Chris Metzger started west last week to be gone two or three weeks to look after his interest on his cattle ranch.

Corn around here is as far advanced now as it was last year at this time and everything looks favorable for corn yielding as many bushels per acre as our last year's crop.

James Terryberry starts for Washington Territory this week in search of a new home. Mr. Terry-berry thinks his health would be better if he is nearer the Pacific coast.

We are sorry to say Mr. F. H.
Wilson has forsaken us and gone to Louisville to do some work there.
Mr. Wilson was a credit to the town and I don't see how we are going to get along without him.

John Hennings, living four miles south of here, is erecting a fine two-story frame dwelling. Having the lower floor laid Saturday he gave a house warming in the evening.
Quite a number of our Cedar Creek sports went, and say they had a good time. They say that Mr. Hennings was well up with the times in knowing how to entertain his guests.

Besides everything seems to be progressive very quickly here at present our stone quarries are employing more men now than they have heretofore and the B. & M. have about 50 men at work here.
This, together with the good substantial farmers we have around here, makes business good.

Now the only thing we are in need of is a good blacksmith, one that will stay at home and do the work for the people, when they bring it in. We have a good blacksmith, but he either has to much money or else is getting tired of work. He locks up his shop three days out of a week and goes away. Farmers bringing work here have to go elsewhere, to get it done. Now what we want is a blacksmith that will stay at home and do the work, or else put a man in the shop to do the work.

MURDOCK.

John Cook's hired man had a runaway, which resulted in a broken wagon.

Reinhold Weitzel's team ran away with a hayrack and smashed it up, and Ernest Hildebrand's mules had a lively time in running away with a self-binder attached to them. The machine is badly used up.

John Connally had business in Council Bluffs Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wolfe took a trip to Madison, this state, Mr. Wolfe's old home.

Martin & Tool are having their store remodeled, to give room for the immense stock of goods.

Old Cass county is "in it" on wheat this year. Previous record is broken by J. M. Leis, who raised on thirty-four acres 150½ bushels; that is, over forty-four bushels to the acre. Who can beat that?

The first independent caucus that was ever held in this precinct, was held here last Saturday. There was a big crowd in town, but that is all we could learn about it.

Rev. F. Backermeyer of Hastings, Neb., visited friends here last Sunday and preached three times to his old friends. This was Rev.
B's home before he entered the ministry.

Work on the new school house will commence, as soon as the material for the foundation arrives.

E. T. Tool is having a well put down on his property, previous to starting his new dwelling.

F. Hess is commencing his dwelling Geo. DeFord is doing the work.

ALVO.

O. J. Wells has rented his restaurant to L. W. Clements.

Samuel Ryan has returned home from a month's visit with friends in Iowa.

Nine loaded excursion trains went through here, bound for Denver, Sunday.

George Duryea attended the funeral of a relative in Greenwood Saturday, August 6.

Pruty & Sons are putting a new addition to their flouring mill for storage purposes.

Chester Mooney is the happy papa of a new son. Mother and baby are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murty buried their only child Tuesday, August 9, at Elmwood cemetery. They have the sympathy of many friends.

Samuel Cashmer, C. R. Jordan and a Waverly man have bought the Chicago elevator and will be ready to buy grain in the near future.

The contract for building the new school house has been let to H. C.
Forbis. R. D. McDonald captured the furniture contract and John Keefe the team work.

MYNARD.

The farmers are nearly through their work in the harvest field.

A. E. B. Neleigh has been very busy the last week with his farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keitzel, who lives near Sunlight, are visiting Mrs. Keitzel's father, Mr. Joseph Cook.

Geo. Smythe, an employe of Wm.
Marks, has purchased a new bicycle and seems to be enjoying himself these days.

Will Nye, the grain dealer, at this place made a brief visit to Plattsmouth Friday to have a doctor examine his hand, which is very sore.

Some of the boys living north of Wm. T. Adams, have taken the wire off his fence and taken it home.
Will says that if it is not brought back they will here from him.

UNION.

Geo. Spicer has gone to the Pacific coast where he expects to make his fortune in the near future.

Charley Voughtman of Plattsmouth was a visitor a few days ago.

Mrs. John Piercey of this place has gone to Johnson county, where she will visit with relatives and friends for a few weeks.

Small Profits on Hardware.

Mr. Hendee, of the hardware firm of J. W. Hendee & Co., says that he is convinced that his firm made an eminently correct move when it established the rule at the opening of its business career of selling for cash and making the profit on sales the smallest consistent with safe business principle. The Hendee hardware firm has never advertised to do anything it did not do. It has sold in the past, is selling now, and will continue to sell the very best hardware and at lower prices than are quoted by any other firm in these parts. The prices on files, irons, skillets, hay forks, hammers, rivets, etc., which have created so much talk, are only a few illustrations of the rule of the house in regard to quality of goods and the prices at which hardware is sold in Plattsmouth by Hendee & Co.
