

IS STILL ON THE BOOM.

Plattsmouth's Committees are Doing a Grand Work.

TO HAVE THAT DIVISION.

Everything is Working Smoothly Toward that End—Congressman Bryan and Wife to be Here Tomorrow.

The Improvements.

President Windham of the board of trade seconds the suggestion of ex-Mayor Richey that the city shall spend what money it does in something that will show to the world, and also give encouragement to home capitalists as well as those from abroad who contemplate investing here.

The proposition of Mr. Richey is met with cordial indorsements from all directions. Councilman Jones of the Second, who was recently in favor of extending the sewer this summer, is favorably impressed with the suggestion of the ex-mayor.

Mr. Windham says that he is in correspondence now with the railroad officials and that he is confident that the Burlington company means business with regard to enlarging the shops here at once and otherwise making changes that will be greatly beneficial to this town.

Plattsmouth is a big, broad and liberal town. It welcomes any and all conventions. Its citizens will royally entertain any and all visitors, regardless of their opinions upon any subject.

The Temperance Convention.

The women of the W. C. T. U. are completing their arrangements for the holding of the second district convention at Plattsmouth, beginning Tuesday, August 30, and continuing three days.

Strictly speaking, Plattsmouth cannot be said to be a prohibition town. However, if THE HERALD correctly understands the situation, it is not in prohibition towns that the greatest work for the prohibitionists to accomplish exists.

The New Garbage Master.

Mr. Shields has been appointed and filed his bond as garbage master. He will go to work at once on the job of cleaning up the vaults and alleys of the town.

Married at Court.

Herman Hildebrand and Miss Ida Dettman of Murdock were this afternoon married, Judge Ramsey officiating, in the county court room.

The young son of J. F. Hornes, a farmer living southeast of Duncan, was severely bitten by a dog yesterday afternoon.

Cass at Chicago.

Handsome and uniform cases are to be made for each county in Nebraska in which to display the special exhibits at the World's Fair.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 31, 1892.—David Miller, Secretary, Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, writes: "I am anxiously awaiting to hear the result of your county's decision in reference to case for county exhibit in state building."

Unless the county commissioners appropriate the money it must be raised by private subscription.

Mr. Shryock's insurance.

It begins to look as though Mrs. Shryock of Louisville, Neb., the widow of the late representative found dead in his room at the Murray hotel a few months ago, would have trouble collecting the insurance on his life.

The insurance companies are not satisfied that Mr. Shryock died from heart disease or some like cause, and for this reason have held off paying the money to Mrs. Shryock.

The examination of the witnesses who testified at the coroner's inquest will begin tomorrow.

Changed Hands.

F. A. Murphy has purchased the Schildknecht shoe store. Fred is an enterprising young man and will put in a bigger stock than ever before carried.

Mrs. Wise Dead.

Mrs. J. N. Wise Friday afternoon received a telegram from Kansas City announcing the death of Mrs. Prof. U. W. Wise at that place.

A bay mare, eight years old, was stolen Thursday from the barn of Jas. Schiesse of Louisville, Mr. S. was in the city today to learn if he could find any trace of the horse.

Miss Barbara Gering brought back with her a number of fine photographs that she had collected during her stay in the old world.

The Knights of Pythias of Plattsmouth except to re-organize a division of the uniform rank in a short time. Active steps are already being taken for that purpose.

Col. Frank P. Ireland visited Mr. Cleveland at Gray Gables and when he left Mrs. Cleveland inquired: "Is Col. Ireland fairly representative of Nebraska?"

At the meeting of the Bryan club last night $100 was subscribed for the purpose of enlarging the New York World's western campaign fund.

The M. P. R. R. Co. is cutting rates and the fare over that road to St. Louis is now only $8.75 and to Chicago $10.00.

THAT MARCHING CLUB

It is Organized and Will be Handsomely Uniformed.

A SPLENDID MEETING.

The Republican Club.

The Young Men's Republican Club Friday evening held an interesting and lively meeting. The large and increasing attendance at each session of the club shows that the interest is growing in the cause of republicanism.

The various committee chairmen reported progress being made in solidifying the rank and file and that the willingness of republicans to do their duty was universal.

Charles Beers and Robert W. Brown made reports in regard to styles and prices of uniforms for the marching division of the club.

A marching division roster was headed by President Root and numerously signed by members. It is believed that this year the club will turn out more marchers than ever before in its history.

Treasurer S. P. Holloway resigned his position, for the reason that his private affairs were in such a condition that he would not be at home all the time during the campaign and would therefore be unable to give the office that attention which he would be pleased to do and which was necessary.

Mr. Harvey Holloway reported, as chairman of the glee club committee, that he was at work upon the organization of one, but had not yet signed all the members.

O. M. Peterson stated that the secretary had informed him that there were no constitution and by-laws on file in the secretary's office, and moved that a committee of three be appointed to investigate if any were on file with the county clerk.

G. F. S. Burton of the News then obtained the floor and began to air his newspaper and personal grievances before the club in pursuance of the Polk-Burton policy of treachery to the republican party.

The Journal seems to have lost sight of its presidential candidate in its enthusiasm for the Young Man Eloquent.

D. S. Draper is a veteran democrat of the Jacksonian description and he admits that he isn't feeling jubilant over the fact that Grover Cleveland is inclined to snub the old-line boys and hobnob with such mugwumps as Schurz of New York and Quincy of Massachusetts.

Mr. Quincy, the Massachusetts mugwump, seems to enjoy more of the confidence of Grover Cleveland than do old-time democrats.

The young ladies' society of St. John's church Wednesday gave a pleasant dancing party at Rockwood Hall and managed it in a manner to give satisfaction to all who were present.

Mr. Whitney, ex-secretary of the navy under Cleveland and Dr. Dana's fool-killer for the democracy, has been laboring very hard to patch up a truce between the warring democratic factions in New York and elsewhere.

PEOPLE AND AFFAIRS.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Wm. Abbott, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of St. Edward, Neb., was dangerously and probably fatally injured by being dragged with his foot fast in the stirrups a distance of about 30 yards through a grove by a vicious bronco.

That able editor of the World-Herald about "Mr. Gladstone's Dilemma" is good and able and all that sort of thing, but what the people want to hear about more particularly is "Mr. Hitchcock's Dilemma."

ANXIOUS TO HEAR PADDOCK.

Senator Paddock has received an urgent request from the republican state central committee of Illinois to participate in the campaign in that state.

CARNAHAN'S COMPLIMENT.

The Pythians at Kansas City are at last down to hard work. The uniform rank entertains the visitors and in doing so it is showing how a large body of well drilled men can be mobilized at the call of a superior.

Maj. Gen. Carnahan of the uniform rank yesterday afternoon reviewed all the Pythian boys in camp. He was surrounded by his staff, mounted, and the various divisions, regiments and brigades passed by for his inspection.

The Nebraska brigade especially showed up in fine form and after the review General Carnahan personally congratulated the officers of the Nebraska brigade upon the correctness of their marching and remarked that it was the only brigade in line that passed inspection without the discovery of a flaw.

Mona division No. 24 of Kearney, Neb., attracted special attention by reason of the precision of its marching and its general military bearing.

PEOPLE AND AFFAIRS.

Gorman, Brice and Ransom and he has written Whitney a letter on the subject. Listen to how the Fat Dictator talks: "I trust that in the interest of true democracy you remember the conversation we had while driving from Gray Gables to the station at Buzzard's Bay regarding the making of promises to persons who until recently were not in accord with the principles of true democracy."

A RUBBELLITE.

Mrs. Ann Luce, a Plattsmouth woman, who made herself justly famous in her native place by indulging in red-eye, has struck for larger fields, and is now cutting a figure in Lincoln police courts.

ONE IN PLATTSMOUTH, TOO.

There is nothing in the world more hopeless, more pitiful than a bankrupt newspaper, which drags on an aimless, wintry existence through sheer dread of death.

Mr. M. Alden is the happiest man in Murray at the present writing, and it is all caused by his wife presenting him with a girl baby.

The Modern Woodmen of America of the First congressional district held a reunion at Lincoln yesterday. A big parade was held in the forenoon, in which 2,000 Woodmen participated.

WITH THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The supreme lodge Knights of Pythias now in session at Kansas City elected the following officers Thursday afternoon: Supreme chancellor, W. W. Blackwell of Kentucky; supreme vice chancellor, Walter B. Ritchie of Ohio; supreme prelate, E. G. Blackmer of California; supreme master of exchequer, F. J. Wiley of Delaware; supreme keeper of records and seals, R. L. C. White of Tennessee; supreme master-at-arms, J. H. Lyons of Kansas; supreme inner guard, A. C. Gardiner of New York; supreme outer guard, John H. Thompson of Washington, D. C.

Walter B. Ritchie, the new supreme vice chancellor, is a lawyer of Lima, O., and is recognized as one of the foremost leaders of the bar.

Joseph H. Lyons, the new supreme master-at-arms, is general agent of the Missouri Pacific railway, with headquarters in Kansas City. His home is in Leavenworth, Kan., and he is commander of the Kansas brigade, uniform rank. All the other officers were re-elected and are well known to all Pythians.

BRYAN STILL RUNNING.

The casual, hard-headed observer will always believe that Billy Bryan was afraid to meet Hon. John C. Watson in debate. That's the way it looks to a man up a tree.

BORN—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Teggarden are happy over the arrival of their first-born, a little daughter, that put in an appearance on Monday, August 22. Weight, eight pounds. Handsome announcement cards have been sent to distant relatives and friends.

An organization has been formed at Geneva, Ill., whose object it is to compile and publish a history of the work of women in the elective offices of Kane county, which is to be exhibited at the World's Fair.

Mrs. J. F. Jenkins of Los Angeles, Cal., is preparing for exhibition at the World's Fair a tapestry picture representing the surrender of Mary Queen of Scots, to the lords in 1567. The study is 6 by 4 feet, and will contain, when completed, the figures of thirty-five men and women, four horses, four banners, a large tree; with a foreground of grass, shrubbery and other accessories.

Where is Johnny Davies now, that he don't challenge Mr. Bryan? It is not unusual to see a whole lot of little dogs barking at the heels of a big mastiff.

John Davies is right in town, Brother Sherman, but it would be useless for him to challenge Bryan. The eloquent apostle of disaster, would not accept. He has got more on his hands now than he is able to handle.

AND BRYANOTIC ELOQUENCE.

Matthew Gering, the vigorous young democrat of Cass county, mentioned as temporary chairman of the democratic state convention, Mr. Gering has the enthusiasm of youth and the sagacity of an entirely self-made man.

The postmaster at Louisville says THE HERALD has a larger circulation at that office than ANY other newspaper, and he ought to know.

THE HERALD refuses to entertain a quarrel with republican newspapers. We want them to do right and fight the enemy within and without the party and we will aid them in the work.

The Ashland Driving association is making numerous improvements on its park. Part of the place has been enclosed and lumber is now on the ground for a judges' stand, stables and the like.
