

FAIR OF CASS COUNTY

The Opening Day Proves the Success Claimed.

PEED RING CONTESTS.

The Show in Agricultural Hall is Beyond Expectations—Only a Few Races Today—Tomorrow the "Big" Day.

The first day of the Cass county fair opened under favorable auspices. The twenty-sixth annual promises to be the best of any...

Secretary Miller and assistants were busy at the secretary's office in the grounds making entries and were busy all afternoon, and the entry books were closed and no more entries will be made except in the speed department. It is expected that all exhibits will be on ground this afternoon.

The agricultural hall is filling up rapidly. J. M. Young has a fine display of honey. In the north part of the hall W. R. Murray has a large display of farm products, while in the western part of the hall W. B. Roberts has another big display of the fruits of his labor on the farm. Both of these displays have been entered for the sweepstakes premium for the largest variety of farm products raised on one farm.

Secretary Miller informed THE HERALD that the space had all been taken and that the success of the fair was assured. He said all exhibits would be in place today and that tomorrow the fair would open properly.

The speed program will be the best ever held on the fair grounds. Over twenty-five horses are on the grounds to enter the races and some exciting races may be expected, as the horses have all good records.

The management of the fair had made big preparations for taking care of stock, but the entries have greatly exceeded their expectations. Now they are afraid that they will run short on stall room. Never in the history of the association has the demand for stalls been so great as this year.

There will be some fine blooded horses on the grounds. Mr. Todd of Union, has his $2,500 yearling colt on the ground, and Mr. Young has a three-year-old stallion that it would be worth going many miles to see. W. D. Jones has some fine blooded horses on the ground.

Tomorrow the following speed program will be carried out under the supervision of J. C. Eikenbary: Lot I—2:50 trotting race, purse $100.

First.....$50.00 Second.....30.00 Third.....20.00

Three best in five; four to enter, three to start, mile heats.

Lot II—Cass county green road steeple race.

For horses that have trotted outside of Cass county and have never won first or second money in any race. Horses must be owned six months in the county before the race. Mile heats, three best in five; purse $100.

First.....$50.00 Second.....30.00 Third.....20.00

Five to enter and four to start.

Lot III—Bicycle race, purse $30.

First.....$15.00 Second.....10.00 Third.....5.00

One-half mile heats, two best in three; four to enter, three to start.

The opening day of any fair can never be taken fairly as the criterion of the whole. While this is true in the sense of the word, it is not in other. If, on the first day there happens to not a good attendance, it does not necessarily follow that upon the other days there will not be. But, weather in its favor, if there is a good attendance upon the first day, then there is reason to suppose that the succeeding days will have still greater attendance.

This is what has occurred at the present session of the Cass County fair. A larger number of admission tickets were sold today than ever before on the first day of a Cass County Fair.

The horticultural hall is nicely arranged and well filled.

The agricultural hall has not been filled up as yet but it is rapidly being occupied by the merchants of town. J. I. Ulrich and Henry Hoeck are there with furniture. Fred Gorder's Sons are there with buggies, carriages, etc. The ladies are at the center of the building with a fine display of needle and fancy work. Entries are still coming in and not until tomorrow will THE HERALD be able to give any thing like a completion of the exhibit.

Following is the speed program for tomorrow:

Lot 4—Pacing or trotting race, purse $100. Confined to horses in Cass county. Horses must be owned six months in the county before the fair.

First.....$50.00 Second.....30.00 Third.....20.00

Mile heats, best three in five; four to enter three to start.

Lot 5—Half mile running race, purse $75. Two in three; four to enter three to start.

First.....$25.00 Second.....15.00 Third.....10.00

Lot 6—2:35 trotting race, purse $150. Mile heats, best three in five; four to enter three to start.

First.....$25.00 Second.....15.00 Third.....10.00

In the 2:50 class this afternoon one heat was trotted and "Dick Tilden" came out first, McCarty second, and Duchailen third. Time 2:50.

The green race was surely rightly named. It was really laughable to see "the start." Four horses came under the wire about abreast and the pole horse "trailing." "They walked under the wire," said one of the judges, "but they got a fair start." W. D. Jones' "Little Boy" won in 3:49, Sam Shumaker's "Neddo" came in second, John Clemons' "Billie S" third, O. M. Straight's "Billie B" came fourth, and William Gilmore's "Cap" brought up the tail end.

The Field-Bryan Debate.

The despatches from Lincoln state that the congressional campaign was opened in that city Monday night by joint discussion of the issue of the day between Hon. Allen W. Field and Hon. W. J. Bryan, republican and democrat candidates for congress. The event was marked by no blazing torches or marching bands, but the Lausling theater, in which the debate was held, was packed to overflowing by the friends of both candidates.

Every seat in the vast auditorium was filled and every foot of standing room was occupied. It was the opinion of all that Mr. Bryan was a disappointment to his friends in his encounter with Judge Field. He had not met the man his democratic friends had led him to believe he would meet. Not only were Bryan's friends disappointed, but so were those of Judge Field. But not in the same way. Judge Field did even greater service for the republicans than his most intimate friends expected he would, while "Sherman's Great Bryan" was a complete failure as compared with the expectations of his friends.

The republicans are feeling jubilant over the result of the first meeting between the candidates and the democrats are feeling blue. Are you satisfied, Brother Sherman?

About the Crops.

The week has been rather too cool for the best ripening of corn. The temperature has been everywhere low, averaging about three degrees below the normal. There have been slight frosts over the state generally but no damage has been reported.

The rainfall has been below the average in all sections and with few exceptions has been less than half an inch.

Extended special reports from a large number of reporters indicate the following facts with regard to the corn crop; there is on the whole a very slight increase acreage as compared with last year, the increase being in the northeast and southwest sections; there was a slight decrease in the southeast and northwest; the estimated yield per acre, if not injured by frost, will average from 25 to 30 bushels, resulting in a total decrease of the crop for the state, as compared with last year, of about 15 per cent, the greatest decrease being in the eastern sections. The average time required to mature the bulk of the crop is about two weeks.

Nehawka's Exports.

Nehawka, one of Cass county's most prosperous villages, situated on the M. P., is doing a large amount of business for a small town. Last year their exports were as follows: cattle, 53 cars; hogs, 122 cars; provisions, 60 cars; wheat, 15 cars; oats, 3 cars; corn, 193 cars; barley, 5 cars; seed millet, 1 car; seed flax, 2 cars; apples, 14 cars; stone, 1,553 cars; lime, 13 cars; miscellaneous, 3 cars. Besides the above 3,300 pounds of corn was shipped in small lots, 26,100 pounds of apples in barrels, and 45,235 miscellaneous articles at different times, also a large amount of eggs, tallow, hides, poultry and dairy produce. THE HERALD ventures the assertion that there is not a town the size of Nehawka in the state that can equal the above record.

A QUANTRELL MAN SHOT.

Some Monumental Corruption at Hastings and a Killing at Greeley About the Markets—Other Matters.

LOON LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Harrison passed a comfortable day, but her condition of such a serious character that a full medical aid has been summoned. Dr. Gardner, the family physician, who has been in constant attendance, decided to call to his aid Dr. Dougherty, an eminent specialist of New York City. Dr. Truett will arrive here from Saratoga Lake, and Dr. W. D. Dougherty and Gardner will hold a consultation. The president spent the day at the bedside of his wife.

One of Quantrell's Men. LIBERTY, Mo., Sept. 12.—Sidney W. Crook, a follower of Quantrell, was shot and killed by his son-in-law, Joe Morrison. There had been a long standing quarrel between them. The shooting occurred on East Kansas street, about a block east of the Archer house, in a house run by a Mrs. Gold. All of the parties had been attending a picnic, near Reed Springs, and had returned to town on account of the rain. A couple of women of Kansas City were with Crook at the time he was shot, and it is thought that the son-in-law, Morrison, was afraid Crook was going to marry one of them. Crook lived in Kearney and was pretty well fixed. He was one of Quantrell's most trusted soldiers on the Lawrence raid, and it had often been said of him that he would die with his boots on.

Monumental Corruption.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 11.—Ex-Deputy County Treasurer Emanuel Fiat has given to the public his statement of the county treasury muddle. If he can prove half he alleges, as the Adams county treasurer's office has seen corruption almost beyond description. To show where the money went, Fiat stated that it was sunk in a brick yard, some paid to the president of the defunct City National bank, some lost in a real estate speculation, some lost in Paul's Mexican mine and from $6,000 to $18,000 loaned to political friends. In order to cover up his tracks, Paul, he alleged, turned all the checks.

Nebraska Killing.

GREELEY CENTER, Neb., Sept. 13.—F. A. Gardner and Richard Holcomb were employed by the Widow Nason, who resides on a ranch twelve miles north of Greeley. Holcomb returned to the ranch intoxicated, and drove Gardner and the widow from the house, and endeavored to shoot Gardner.

Gardner succeeded in evading the bullets, and after Holcomb had fired five shots, Gardner raised his revolver and shot Holcomb through the head, killing him instantly. Gardner came to Greeley and gave himself up to Sheriff Finn.

CHAPTER NUMBER TWO.

Nebraska City News. It will be remembered by the readers of the News that a week ago last Sunday William Ince came to this city and took away his child which was staying with Dr. W. H. Gibbs. Last evening Deputy Sheriff Weber armed with a warrant, rode to Plattsmouth and arrested William Ince and brought him to this city in company with the little girl. At first Ince was very indignant over the arrest and refused to come, but on being given a good straight talking to he consented to come and bring with him the child. The case was called this morning in Judge Eaton's court and the state withdrew the complaint on Ince turning the child over to the court and promising not to molest her again. Ince took the train back to Plattsmouth from whence he came and the little girl is now in Judge Eaton's charge and he will see that she is properly adopted by those who want her. John C. Watson appeared for the plaintiff.

The panels stand six feet high and three feet wide, have a background of red and blue and are covered with wheat, oats, rye, flax, corn, grasses and specimens of all sheep products that are grown in the state. DREADFUL PSORIASIS

Covering Entire Body with White Scales, Suffering Fearful. Cured by Cuticura.

My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and almost covering my face. It ran into my eyes, and the physicians was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head, neck and shoulders being the worst. The white scales fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change, and after I had taken four bottles, I was almost cured, and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. THE PERCHERON BEAUTY.

A Horse With a neck Nine Feet In Length With the Ringling Bros.

"Prince Chaldean, the Percheron Beauty," is the name that has been appropriately bestowed upon one of the most beautiful specimens of the equine that nature has ever produced, and which through the enterprise of the famous Ringling Bros. has now for the first time been placed on exhibition. This wonderful horse is worth a day's travel to behold. One cannot conceive anything more beautiful in horse flesh. Picture the finest and heaviest Percheron ever imported give him a lordly mien and a noble carriage, inspire him with the pride of an irrefragable pedigree and crown him with a mane so long that despite his great height it sweeps the ground, and that will be a mind-drawing of this marvel among equines. Prince Chaldean's mane by actual measurement is nine feet, two inches in length, and his tail is correspondingly long. His weight is over 1,800 pounds. He was sired in Eure et Loir, Normandy, and is registered as No. 84 and 637. Nothing like this noble animal has hitherto been seen in America, and as one of the novel features of the Ringling
