THOUSANDS IN REWARDS.

The Great Weekly Competition of The Ladies' Home Journal.

Which word in this advertisement spells the same backward as forward? This is a rare opportunity for every Indian Moe, every father and son, to win a splendid prize.

WEEKLY PRIZE.—Every week throughout this great competition prize will be distributed as follows:

The first correct answer received, the post mark date on each letter to be taken as the date received, the post office of the Ladies' Home Journal, each and every week during 1892, will get $200; the second correct answer $100; the third $50; a beautiful silver vase, $10; a six-clock silver serving and the next fifty correct answers, ranging from $25 to $2. Every fifth correct answer irrespective of whether a man or woman or not, will get a specimen.

Competitors residing in the southern states, as well as other distant points, have an equal chance with those nearer home, as the post mark will be authority in every case.

RULES.—Each list of answers must be accompanied by $1 to pay for the monthly subscription to one of the best home magazines in the American.

REFERENCES.—The Ladies' Home Magazine is well able to carry out its promises.—Peterborough (Canada) Times. "A splendid paper, and unusually strong."—Hastings (Canada) Star. "Every prize winner will be sure to receive just what he is entitled to."—Norwood, (Canada) Register.

Money should be sent by post office order or registered letter. Addressed to the Ladies' Home Magazine Peterborough, Canada.

HALF YEARLY COMPETITION.—The Most Interesting Contest Ever Offered by The Canadian Agriculturist.

One thousand dollars in cash, a pair of handsome Shetland ponies, carriage and harness, and over two thousand other valuable prizes for the Agriculturist's brightest readers. Who will have them? According to the general custom for some years past, the publishers of the Agriculturist now offer their sixth half yearly literary competition. This grand competition will, no doubt, be the most gigantic and successful one ever presented to the people of the United States and Canada.

One thousand dollars in cash will be paid to the person sending in the largest list of English words constructed from letters in the words "The Canadian Agriculturist."

Five hundred dollars will be given to the second largest list.

A handsome pair of Shetland ponies, carriage and harness, will be given to the third largest list.

Over one thousand additional prizes awarded in order of merit.

One grand piano, $300 organ, $400 piano, dinner sets, ladies' gold watches, silk dress patterns, portiere curtains, silver tea services, Tennyson's poems bound in cloth, Dickens' twelve volumes bound in cloth, etc.

As there are more than 1,000 prizes, anyone who takes the trouble to prepare an ordinarily good list will not fail to receive a valuable prize.

This is the biggest thing in the competition line that we have ever placed before the public, and all who do not take part will miss an opportunity of a lifetime.

RULES.—A letter cannot be used oftener than it appears in the words "The Canadian Agriculturist." For instance the word egg cannot be used as there is but one 'g' in the three words. 2. Words having more than one meaning, but spelled the same can be used but once. 3. Names of places and persons barred. 4. Errors will not invalidate a list—the wrong words will simply not be counted.

Each list must contain $1 to pay for six months' subscription to the Agriculturist. It two or more tie, the list which bears the earliest postmark will take the first prize and so on in order of merit. United States money and stamps taken at par.

The object in offering these magnificent prizes is to introduce our popular magazine into new homes in every part of the American continent.

Every competitor enclosing 30 cents in stamps extra will receive free, by mail, postpaid one of the Agriculturist's elegant souvenir spoons of Canada.

Prizes awarded to persons in the United States will be shipped from our New York office free of duty. All money letters should be registered.

Our former competition—we have given away over $25,000 in prizes during the last two years, and have thousands of letters from prize winners in every state in the union and every part of Canada and New Foundland, Lord Kilcoursie, A. D. C., to the governor general of Canada writes: "I shall recommend my friends to enter your competition, M. M. Brandon, Van Couver B. C., received $1,000 in gold and we hold his receipt for the same." A few of the prize winners: Miss Robinson, Toronto, $1,500; J. J. Brandon, Fenelon Falls, Ont., $1,500; David Harrison, Syracuse, N. Y., $300; Dr. Beavis, St. Louis, $300; Jas. Baptiste, West Duluth, Minn., $200; Miss Georgia Robertson, Oak St. Brooklyn, $1,000; Fred H. Hill, 350 State street, Bridgeport, Conn. and thousands of others. Address all communication to the Agriculturist, Peterborough, Ontario.

According to the census of 1890, Chicago takes rank, by virtue of her population of 1,038,576 people, as the eighth largest city on the globe. Most of us desire, at one time or another, to visit a city in which so many persons find homes, and when we do, we can find no better line than the "Burlington Rite." Three fast and comfortable trains daily. For further information address the agent of the company at this place, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger and Freight Agent, Omaha, Nebraska.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, action directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all Druggists; Testimonials free.

The new style of writing "unpunctuated letters" certainly cannot be called the fad of the period.

Financially Embarrassed

A large manufacturer whose affairs were very much embarrassed and who was very much overworked and broken down with nervous exhaustion, went to a celebrated specialist. He was told that the said thing needed was to be relieved of care and worry, and have change of thought. This doctor was more considerate of his patient health than of his financial circumstances. He ought to have advised him to use Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the best remedy for nervous prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, headache, the ill effects of tobacco, coffee, opium, etc. Thousands testify to it. Book and trial bottle free at F. G. Fricke & Co's.

Watts—This has been a great year for record-breaking.

Potts—Hasn't it, though! Mudge paid me $2 he borrowed, for instance.

For all forms of nasal catarrh where there is dryness of the air passages with what is commonly called "stuffing up," especially when going to bed, Ely's Cream Balm gives immediate relief. Its benefit to me has been priceless.—A. G. Case, M. D., Milwood, Kas.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and, much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured at par.
