

COURT HOUSE CROWDED

Fully Two Hundred People Turned Away.

MARQUETTE ON SILVER.

The Free Silver Folly Dissected Saturday Night at the Court House by Honorable T. M. Marquette.

Crowds Turned Away.

Notwithstanding the remarks made by democrats, that the republicans could not get a crowd when Billy Bryan was here, the court house was packed to its utmost capacity and fully 200 people were turned away.

There is an issue between the independent party and the republican party, on the unlimited coinage of silver. Let us inquire what power congress has in this matter. They are empowered by the constitution of the United States to coin money and regulate its value, as I take it, it is that it must be a fair regulation; that is, it must be fair to the men that dig the gold, to the men that dig the silver, and to the people.

Mr. Marquette then turned his attention to the tariff and discussed it in an able manner after which the meeting was dismissed. The republican of this city are in line and will carry the city on the national ticket if not on the rest of it.

Still has his Liberty. The robber who beat Jewler Pollock of New York on the Omaha train, near California Junction last Friday night, and robbed him of $15,000 worth of diamonds, lamed himself in jumping from the cars to avoid capture.

Saturday night the robber stole a fresh horse near Mondamin. It was a dark bay stallion with white hind feet and a valuable animal.

The first horse stolen about three miles north of California Junction by the robber the night of the robbery, has been found near Modale, which is the first station north of California Junction. It was an old horse, blind in one eye and evidently was not much use, for it was only one or two miles.

WORK OF BURGLARS AT AVOCA. Saturday morning some person broke into the Pacific Express company's office at Avoca, this state, blew open the outside door, and secured 50 cents in pennies. They failed to get the inside door open although had they done so they would have secured considerable booty.

the dollar is put into the people's hands to circulate they must conscientiously circulate it. The people must have a conscience. This thing of making one set of morals for congress or rulers, and another set for the people is where the trouble comes in.

This nation is too great, too grand to afford to say to the producers, the speculators in silver, come to our mint and we will coin your sixty millions of production into ninety millions of dollars; we will put the great stamp of this nation upon it, certifying to the world and forever, that this is ninety millions instead of sixty millions.

Congress has no right to thus create value in the silver dollar. Their power is simply to regulate the value between the two dollars, and above all they have no right to put a greater value upon one man's labor than upon another's.

There is an issue made by the democratic party, that they desire to re-establish all state banks. On this issue we state that where the constitution provides for the coinage of money and to regulate its value, and carries with it the right for the general government to regulate the matter of money and prohibits states from emitting bills to credit, it evidently makes the question money a national one and not a state affair.

Mr. Marquette then turned his attention to the tariff and discussed it in an able manner after which the meeting was dismissed. The republican of this city are in line and will carry the city on the national ticket if not on the rest of it.

That is a conceded fact, and the reason why it is conceded is that the railway company has reports that the robber was seen limping with a cane in the outskirts of Mondamin Saturday evening. The person who saw him did not then know that he was a robber or was wanted, and so let a chance for the railway's $500 reward slip through his fingers.

The first horse stolen about three miles north of California Junction by the robber the night of the robbery, has been found near Modale, which is the first station north of California Junction.

The detectives could not have been very far away, and one wonders what they were doing that they did not watch the roads and mark a man so easily told as a robber with a limp and a cane after his description—excepting that he was lame—had been telegraphed all over.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Extract From the Speech Delivered by the President.

MORE LOYALTY TO CHRIST.

Looking Forward to the Many Things This Society Expect to Accomplish in the Near Future.

Looking Forward. Extracts from an address delivered at the Cass county Christian Endeavor convention at Union, Neb., Sept. 2nd 1892, by the president of county Union.

"Bubbling up eleven years ago, in Williston church, and flowing on down through the years, passing through valleys of beauty, cutting mountains of difficulty, combining the force of the Niagara, the grandeur of the Colorado, and the usefulness of the Nile, forming what is truly one of the streams that have made glad the city of our God, the Christian Endeavor stream has been an ever widening and increasing stream.

And its course is not done nor will it have been run until its peaceful waves shall have spread over all the world. Its flow will ever be supplied by the changing of the ice of sin into water of righteousness, together with the showers of blessings from above. Its future course will be similar to its past, still increasing in its power, beauty, and usefulness.

Leaving the figure, let us look forward at some of the things that will characterize and energize the future society. First and foremost I predict that there shall be "A Nearer Lord."

Nearness to our Lord. How much that implies! Happiness, greatest, usefulness largest, endeavor most earnest. It implies also a life most holy. It imparts a loveliness to the character that nothing else can give. It is said that, if you are in an orange country, you are all the time sensible of the fact that the orange blossoms are about gone.

Abiding in his presence, and walking in the light. And trying to do always what's well pleasing in his sight. We look to him to keep us all beautiful within.

Again, I predict that the members of the future society shall have more "seven days in the week religion."

It is a beautiful thing to listen to one who is gifted in speech and prayer in the prayer meeting. But I am persuaded that there is a beauty far greater in that person who goes out and from Monday morning till Sunday evening, lives Christ. Here is something that infidelity can not attack, nor scoffers scorn. Religion today is too much like our best clothes—for use on Sundays and special occasions.

The future society will be characterized by More Loyalty to Christ O haste the day when Christ will be the Governor that regulates the movements of politics and of trade, and when Christ will be the ruler of every human heart. Our society motto is: "For Christ and the Church." The Christ is first. Let's make I see "More Loyalty to the Church." To each of us, this means loyalty to my church. There are many ways to increase and show this loyalty. First, more general interest in the church.

Then, there shall be an increase of "Loyalty to the Pastor." O the innumerable ways of being loyal to the pastor! And the first way to be loyal is to be attentive to his preaching. Then do you ever brag on your pastor? If not, you are depriving yourself of a great privilege. O, you can say some good of the poorest preacher. They open your mouth and say it at every opportunity. Again, let him know you appreciate his work with, and for you. O, pour out to your pastor a generous supply of the oil of gladness and appreciate, and the lubricating and energizing influence will be truly wonderful.

In the future I look for "More Systematic, Proportionate Praying" to the Lord Not giving to the Lord. We can fix up a nice little present for the Lord after we have paid up what we owe him. We have been used to people who loved to sing.

"Just as I feel all About Him Lowe" and to compare themselves with the thought that the slight dollar is all that can refer to. But, thank the Lord, he is raising up a band of Christian Endeavors that are and will be willing to divide their substance with him on the true partnership plan, such as is expressed in Mal 3. 10.

More temperance endeavor will be a feature of the future society. The Y. P. S. C. E. is destined to be God's greatest temperance society. The society in the future be characterized by Greater Missionary Zeal local societies are supporting, and many more will support missionaries in the dark places abroad. Thousands of Endeavorers will realize that Christ was speaking to them when he said: "Go ye into all the World and Preach the Gospel."

Then, there shall be an increase of that greatest of all the society's results "Interdenomination Fellowship." All denominations are to be brought together more to catch each other's enthusiasm, to learn each other's plans of work, and to enjoy each other's fellowship. Who are to be actors in this work? You and I. Then depend on us the future success of the society. We can make it the greatest, or we can let it be the least.

In our country "there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed." O, let us arise, and, in the name of our conquering Leader, drive out all the foes of darkness. And, for sin, let's substitute Christ, and, for the clubs of wickedness, let's substitute Christian Endeavor societies. Let's take for our motto, "Cass County for Christ"; and let's be willing to work and pray, suffer and beat, live or die—if needs be—to change it to "Cass County is Christ."

WILL PUT IN A TURN TABLE.

Superintendent Rathburn with an engineer and corps of assistants was here yesterday in his special car and located the turn table. He stated it had been decided to put in a sixty foot turn table instead of a "Y," and that it would be completed as soon as possible. He also stated that the new time table would not go into effect until the 20th inst., as the necessary changes could not be made until then. If to any one person the credit is due for this change that person is Frank P. Ireland. He has worked faithfully to secure the Lincoln train to come to this city and success has crowned his efforts.

Mr. Will Smith, who has been working in the B. & M. tin shops at Wymore, Neb., is in the city visiting his parents.

A NOVEL BET.

The members of the democratic and republican club, of Hastings through their representatives, S. A. Campbell and J. W. Harris, have made a novel bet. Their flambeau hats, caps, torches and $50 a side are put on the result of the election. The defeated club is to march in line with the victors and cheer for Cleveland or Harrison as the case may be, and $100 is to be used for fireworks and liquor red paint.

PROMPTLY KNOCKED HIM DOWN.

Jacob Zimmerman, a prominent independent, cheered for Jeff Davis at Kearney yesterday and was promptly knocked down by O. Olinger.

Yesterday morning about 8 o'clock H. L. Jones, a brakeman, received a terrible gash on the back of the head while leaning out of the car door. He was taken to Kearney and is being cared for. His home is in Falls City, Neb. He has a brother in Omaha.

AN ARTIST'S TRIUMPH.

The Coghlan's Revival of Sardou's "Diplomacy"

GOOD ART APPRECIATED.

Charles Coghlan's Wonderful Impersonations of the Character of Henri Beauliere and Other Noted People

A fortune awaits the manager who shall get together a high grade stock company for the presentation of serious drama in New York city. This conviction has been forced upon me by the star with which the revival of Sardou's "Diplomacy" at the Star theater has been received. With an ordinary lot of players this drama would exercise a soporific effect upon the average intelligent theater goer. With the aggregation of artists now presenting it in New York it is an absorbingly interesting play, even though the first act is by comparison with the others deplorably weak.

There is no stronger theatrical organization in the United States today than the one headed by Rose and Charles Coghlan, which includes Frederic Robinson, Robert Fischer, John T. Sullivan, Sadie Martindale, M. C. Tranter, Beatrice Moreland and Mabel Eaton. It is therefore not surprising that "Diplomacy" is a success.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY

Head one Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using these eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well.

After using these eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using (the head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was so full of scales, most of his face, and much worse on different parts of the body. There were eleven weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his fingers out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hands loose. We feel your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.
