

FROM ALTAR TO JAIL.

The Way John Engle Celebrated His Honeymoon.

WHIPPED HIS NEW WIFE.

Married, Whipped His Wife, Jailed and Fined Inside of 48 Hours is the Experience of John E. Engle.

Married and Jailed.

Saturday afternoon John B. Engel secured the necessary papers from Judge Ramsey which allowed him the privilege of caring for Maggie Stattler for the remainder of her life. The prospective benedict also made arrangement with the accommodating judge to tie the knot, and the time was set for 7:30 Saturday evening and the couple were too go to the judge's residence in the Second ward.

Promptly at 7:30 they put in an appearance and the ceremonies was performed and the couple went on on their way rejoicing. Their rejoicing was, however, of a short duration.

On their way home they stopped at a saloon for refreshments and were seated in one of the small rooms in the back end. After the party had secured their refreshments the bride wanted to go home and a set in there with so many men. To this the liege lord objected and told her that she must stay with him, and that when he was ready to go then she could go.

In a short time the bride started for home and left her liege lord to come when he was ready.

This seemed to greatly anger his royal highness and he started in pursuit overtaking her before she arrived home and began to beat her over the head, after which a free-for-all occurred.

They finally arrived home and there the fiend showed his nature. He deliberately locked the door and proceeded to give the woman whom he had promised to protect only a few hours ago, a severe thrashing. The woman was knocked down two or three times and finally the police were called and Constable Kroehler arrested and placed him in jail.

The trouble Engle was in, he had a revolver in his pocket, with the trigger ready to shoot, and while the gun was in the trunk, the police court Saturday night morning the police court heard in the store, and badly disciplined him a fine of $25 after giving him a piece of advice.

LE AND AFFAIRS.

LIFE HAD LOST ITS CHARM.

At 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon the young wife of James Whitney, who with her husband has been sleeping for the past week at the hotel, Smith at Union, attempted to end her life by shooting herself in the breast with a 44-calibre revolver. The bullet passed almost through her body and near the spine by the opposite side. She now lies in a critical condition, with little chance of recovery. Her parents reside at the Salem, Neb., and will arrive in the morning. The cause for the deed was despondency. Whitney is a noted sprinter, who is known all over the state.

IRVINE SEEKS A DIVORCE.

Word has reached Lincoln that W. H. Irvine has commenced suit for a divorce from his wife on the ground of adultery, the correspondent being the late C. E. Montgomery. Before and during his trial in Lincoln for the murder of Montgomery Irvine gave his friends no indication of his intentions toward his wife. After he had been acquitted he studiously refrained from any reference to her and many of his friends finally accepted the belief that after sufficient time had elapsed he would again take her to his home. His case will be conducted by Judge Powers.

WILL HAVE RED MEN.

A. W. Day, deputy great sachem, Improved Order of Red Men, goes this week to Ashland, Wahoo and Plattsmouth to institute new tribes.

Mrs. J. J. Chleborad caused the arrest of her husband last night. It seems that Chleborad was intensely jealous of his better half, and last night things did not go to suit him around the house and he ordered his wife to leave the house. She refused and he helped her out with his boot. This morning he was fined $10 and costs by Judge Archer for his officiousness.

AN UNSOCIABLE PASSENGER.

Messenger Abel and Baggage man Kirkman came in over the B. & M. this morning over No. 2 looking as if they had experienced more than they could bear. In other words, they had been the victim of an innocent flirtation with a Dago bear of the Cinnamon species. The bear held down one corner of the baggage car at first chained just in his allotted corner. The boys did business for the corporation all right until the chain broke. Then they commenced to apply themselves to the top of the pile of trunks in the baggage car. Kirkman thought it was Oliver Curtis Perry and with the aid of a shotgun was about to declare void the bear's articles of incorporation. He was finally captured and again chained up. The boys are overjoyed at their hairbreadth escape.
