

OLD SOLDIERS MEET.

Officers Elected for the Coming Year.

AFTER BISHOP BONACUM.

General VanWyck's Opinion on the Different Parties—Says God Almighty Couldn't Reform the Politicians.

The Nebraska Soldiers. The old soldiers' association of Nebraska held their regular winter meeting in the district court room Wednesday evening, but there was not as large an attendance as was expected.

After Bishop Bonacum.

The morning papers in a tele-gram dated at St. Louis say: "The oft-proven truth, 'Gossip rests the head that wears a crown,' might be applied equally well to the wearer of a mitre, for at least one bishop who attended the provincial council yesterday has had as many troubles as some unfortunate monarchs.

A Poor Prospect.

The Bee yesterday interviewed C. H. Van Wyck at the Paxton. Following is the report: "General C. H. Van Wyck and wife came in this morning from Nebraska City and are stopping at the Paxton. The general touched briefly on the political situation, and that he did not look for any great things at the hands of the legislature, as the body was very unfortunately made up so far as the enactment of good legislation was concerned.

Supreme Court Decision.

International Copyright in Italy.

It is to be hoped that the international copyright, which has just been proclaimed by the Italian government and the United States between President Harrison and King Humbert, may not throw the plaster-cast industry on both sides the Atlantic into a chaotic system.

Hardly three weeks ago, for example, Signor Cesare Giulio (who bears a name cherished by Italian patriots) opened in the Via Nargio at Rome a Columbian exposition of models in clay and plaster, intended to represent all the possible and impossible phases of the career of Columbus.

Love at First Sight.

Last winter D. W. Little, one of the adobe farmers on the west of town, shot into a band of geese. A white gander was struck and had one wing broken. Mr. Little took the goose home and gave him to his boys, who doctored his wing, and he soon became so tame as to follow the boys whenever they went, eat from their hands, and even poke his head into their pockets for corn or wheat.

The Latest Hypnotic Yarn.

The latest hypnotic yarn from the Charite hospital, Paris, casts all its predecessors into the shade. Dr. Luys, it appears, has been making experiments in relation to what he calls the "exteriorization" of the human body, and it is asserted that he succeeded in transferring the sensibility of a hypnotized woman into a tumbler of water.

The Loss in Gold Coin.

A remarkable example of the loss of gold by reason of abrasion came to the notice of the Chicago customs officials the other day. George W. Sheldon & Co. sent $15,000 in gold to the collector to pay duties. The sum was in equal amounts, made up of $5, $10 and $20 pieces.

Buried Under Seventy Tons of Coal.

James Bordley, of Chester, lost his life in a strange manner at the Wellman Iron and Steel works. The company have an appliance for loading coal into cars through chutes. Bordley was on top of a 400-ton pile of coal, and when the chute was opened he was sucked into the chute, and seventy tons of coal covered him over.

Rolling a Peanut.

Some very funny election bets are now being paid here by good Republicans who were confident of the success of their ticket. A Sixth ward man rolled a peanut seven squares with a toothpick and had a broken back when his bet was paid.

John T. Stone, of Henderson, N. C., is the youngest editor and proprietor in the United States. He is the boss "kustler" of the Henderson Daily Hustler, and is only thirteen years old.

A vault 4 feet high, 4 feet wide and 7 feet long was uncovered a few days ago by workmen at Whitely, Ind., who were engaged in removing a peculiar mound.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Chas. Kennedy Causes His Wife Lots of Trouble.

A WABASH MAN INSANE.

Once Discharged as Cured The Mad Lady Comes Back And He Goes After Citizens of Wabash With a Gun.

From Saturday's Daily.

A woman approached Officer Fitzpatrick on the street this afternoon and with tears in her eyes asked him to go to the different saloons and request them not to sell her husband any more liquor.

The woman was seen a few minutes later running through the alley trying to get her drunken husband, and try and get what money he had left to purchase some food for the little ones.

The man, if the public will excuse us for calling him a man, has taken treatment several times for the liquor habit and as soon as he is started away cured starts to drinking again.

The fellow's name is Chas. Kennedy, and every cent his wife receives he spends for liquor. It has not been very long since she was pleading with him to go home, and today he secured $15 and started out to blow it in when his family was in need of it.

Mrs. Kennedy seems to be a very ladylike woman, and she should throw the brute out doors and let him either work or starve to death.

Adjudged Insane.

John Dalton was brought in this morning from Wabash and taken before the insanity board and examined as to his sanity. Dalton has been an inmate of the asylum before but was discharged by the officials, who thought he was cured.

Lately the mad lady has secured a new hold upon him and he has been hunting for several people with a gun. The board adjudged him insane.

Picturesque Wedding.

At a picturesque morning wedding—and picturesqueness is an indispensable feature of a modern wedding—the fancy for yellow was notably prominent. There were six bridesmaids, all wearing quaint gowns of yellow silk, the style copied from a portrait by Sir Joshua Reynolds, and large hats of green velvet trimmed with gold lace and nodding yellow plumes.

Herold's Double Store.

UNDERBUY AND UNDERSSELL, (Our Two Watchwords.)

THESE two words epitomize the whole philosophy of mercantile success—underbuy, not so much to make extra profit on goods, but to sell again at a proportionate under price, and with the "Knock-down Logic" of our unmatchable bargains, sweep all competition from our path like the chaff before the wind. We earnestly invite you to call and examine our goods and prices which appeal with the burning eloquence of genuine bargains to your self interest. We call your attention to the following "Trade Quickeners":

Trade Quickener No. 1.

Hats at Half Price—A complete stock of Mens' and Boys' hats, consigned to us by W. A. L. Gibson & Co., wholesale hat house of Omaha, being the stock of one of their customers who failed. We bought them for 50c on the dollar and are prepared to sell them at a proportionate under-price.

Trade Quickener No. 2.

Shoes at Less Than Cost, to Make—$3,000 worth of Ladies', Misses', Children's, Men's and Boys' Shoes knocked down at auction to the highest bidder. We took the lot at about 40 per cent under the regular price, and the price that we are offering them at will be a great bid for your trade. We are also offering in our Shoe Department 1,500 pairs of Ladies', Misses', Children's, Men's and Boys' Sample shoes, being the entire line of samples of shoes manufactured and carried by one of the largest wholesale shoe houses on the Missouri river—Kirkendale, Jones & Co., of Omaha—and we are offering them at exactly factory prices.

Trade Quickener No. 3.

Underwear to the consumer at prices that other dealers pay. We buy our underwear in case-lots direct from the mills, saving the middle-man's profit, and can sell it to our customers at the same prices that the western wholesale dealers charge the small country dealer. Call or send for our prices on underwear and be convinced of the truth of this statement.

We have opened up the store room formerly occupied by Brown & Barrett, druggists, so that we are now ready to do business on a larger scale than ever, in our Immense Double Store building. See our Fall and Winter line of Dress Goods and Cloaks before buying. We can save you 20 per cent in these two departments.
