AN ENJOYABLE EVENING.

Harry Race's Father Dead—An Ashland Farmer Comes to Grief—Other Important City News Items.

The A. O. U. W. Party.

The members of the A. O. U. W. lodge No. 8 last night gave one of the most pleasant dancing parties of the season at the I. O. O. F. hall. The committee on arrangements did themselves proud in making the dance a success.

The Degree of Honor furnished the supper in the dining hall on the north end of the building.

Among those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Morgan, Fred Murphy, Frank Coursey, Benj. Elson, J. N. Summers, Frank Vermelyea, L. C. Anderson, W. K. Fox, George Dodge, Wm. Ballance, M. C. Davis, A. Adams, Dr. Hall, M. Manzy, D. B. Smith, D. F. Foster, Val. Burkel, Geo. Hawkins, and Misses. Ella Wright, Mollie Ballance, Edith Patterson, Buleah Elson, Clara Green, Belle Vermelyea, Maggie Oliver, Rupley, Kate Stademan, Frank Johnson, Elmer Cole, Harry Green, Frank White, Francis Ballance, R. T. Sherwood, and a number of others whose names could not be obtained.

Joseph Race Dead.

Joseph Race, father of Harry Race, editor of the Weeping Water Eagle, died at the home of his son, Wednesday, December 28, of Bright's disease of the kidneys.

Mr. Race was past seventy-five years of age. He was taken down last August and has been confined to his room since that time. He was a great sufferer during his last illness and was unconscious much of the time before his death.

Funeral services were held at the residence at 12:30 today, conducted by Rev. Hull of the M. E. church. The remains were then conveyed to the depot and on the 2 o'clock train were taken by his son to Eldora, Ia., to be laid to rest by the side of his wife.

Closson and His Cash.

Farmer E. A. Closson, who was taken to Omaha from Ashland, Neb., by Detective Vaughn, is either extremely green or unusually crooked. He is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses by Isaac Brown, who loaned $1,000 on Closson's note, secured by a satisfactory chattel mortgage, but the chattels were sold as the property of Closson's deceased wife before the note fell due.

The whole transaction is so tangled up that Mr. Brown will not be able to recover his money, but he wants to get all the justice the law allows, and has had the farmer arrested. Closson maintains that he was innocent of any wrong intent and says he was robbed of the money he got from Mr. Brown by another man in a business transaction.

Another Wife Beater.

John Karnes is getting up a first class reputation. Only last week he was arrested for taking a blanket from another man's horse and was fined $1 and ordered to pay to the plaintiff a sum equal to twice the value of the blanket.

This morning his wife went before Judge Archer and swore out a warrant for his arrest for knocking her down, and bruising her. The warrant was placed in the officers' hands, but Karnes has not yet been arrested.

On Three Charges.

David Kime of Nehawka came to town yesterday and caused a warrant to be sworn out for the arrest of Henry Lindsay on the charge of threatening to do him great bodily injury. A warrant for his arrest was placed in the sheriff's hands.

Both parties are from Nehawka, and the case will be called tomorrow at 9 o'clock before Judge Archer. From the number of witnesses subpoenaed the case will be a long and interesting one.

MAJORS STRIKES A BLOW.

An altercation, which was the result of a misunderstanding between Lieutenant Governor Majors and Dan Custer, occurred last night at the Capitol hotel in Lincoln during which Majors struck Custer a light blow on the cheek. The affair arose over the misinterpretation of Custer's language and manner by Majors, and was deeply regretted by both parties. Custer, although a rock ribbed democrat, has the warmest admiration for Majors. Everything was shortly explained by friends and a hand shake ended the trouble.

Likely to go Free.

About fifteen of the defendants in the case against the cattlemen who invaded Johnson county last summer with the avowed purpose of exterminating the stock thieves, or "rustlers," have reporthie for trial. The indictments are in the case for arson murder. A council has been held by the leading cattlemen and their attorneys. It is reported that they came to the conclusion that it would be best to put the case over until the May term. A motion for a postponement will be made and will in all likelihood be allowed.

It is doubtful if any of the Texas who were hired to accompany the invading party will appear for trial. Of the twenty-two engaged originally four are under the sod. All died violently. The last to go was "Kid" Tucker, who killed one of the men in the raid. The opinion is fast gaining ground that the cattlemen will never be brought to trial. All the defendants are wealthy, while Johnson county, which must stand the expense of the prosecution, is practically bankrupt.
